This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Records of the Synods were called for and put into the hands of the Committees appointed to examine them.

The Narratives, the Statistical Reports, and several Overtures and Memorials were received, and put into the hands of the Stated Clerk, to be appropriately referred.

The Committee of the last Assembly, "On the Memorial with reference to Infirm Ministers," made a Report, which was accepted; and, together with a resolution relative to the Report, was placed upon the Docket.

The Assembly took a Recess, to meet at the call of the Moderator.

After the Recess, an invitation was received from the Ladies of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, soliciting the company of the members of the Assembly to tea, in their "Society Rooms," on Wednesday next, at 7 o'clock P.M. The invitation was unanimously accepted.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 18th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioners were reported and their names were entered upon the roll:

Elder	William Brooks,	from the Presbytery of	Marshall.
Rev.	William S. Leavitt,	"	Columbia.
"	Daniel M. Lord,	"	Long Island.

Resolved, That the name of the Doctrinal Tract Committee of the General Assembly, be changed to "The Presbyterian Publication Committee."

An invitation was received from Rev. William Homes and others, to make an excursion to-morrow over the Pacific Railroad to the Missouri River.

The invitation of these gentlemen was accepted, and the thanks of the Assembly were returned to them.

The orders of the day for to-morrow were deferred until Monday morning, and those of Monday to the day following.

The Assembly heard Reports and Statements concerning our Theological Seminaries: from the Union Theological Seminary, through Rev. Henry B. Smith, D.D.; from Lane Theological Seminary, through Rev. Thornton A. Mills; from Auburn Theological Seminary, through the Moderator; and from Marysville Theological Seminary, through Rev. Gideon S. White.

A Committee, consisting of Rev. James W. McLane, D.D., Rev. Benjamin J. Wallace, and Hon. Augustus P. Hascall, was appointed to prepare a suitable minute upon this subject.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported supplies for the various pulpits in the city and vicinity, on the ensuing Sabbath; and also public services for the ensuing week.

The Auditing Committee reported, that they had examined the accounts of the Treasurer, with the accompanying vouchers, and found them correct; also, that they had examined the bill of error presented to the Assembly by John A. Gray, and recommended that it be paid. The report was adopted.

It was made the first order of the afternoon session of Monday next to hear the reports of the Committees on Synodical Records.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported that Overtures have been referred them from the Synod of Iowa, and from the Presbyteries of Chicago, Philadelphia, 3d, and Philadelphia, 4th, requesting that some action be taken by the Assembly to provide for the wants of the Church as yet unmet by the agencies of the American Home Missionary Society. The Overtures particularly direct the attention of the Assembly to the fact that no provision exists to furnish means for exploring destitute counties and districts, to supply needy churches in emergencies, and to seek out members of the Church in remote settlements. The Committee recommend that the subject be referred to the Standing Committee on Church Extension to report immediately. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures further reported Overtures from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, 4th, and from the Synod of Missouri, on the subject of Church Psalmody, desiring that some action be taken by the Assembly to secure greater uniformity in the use of the psalms and hymns in public worship; and recommended that, in view of the resolution of the Assembly of 1846, recommending the adoption of the Church Psalmist, no action be taken in the premises. After some discussion, the subject was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Artemas Bullard, D.D., A. E. Campbell, D.D., James W. Mitchell, D.D., Rev. R. J. Wallace, and James P. Wilson, D.D., to report during the sessions of the present Assembly.

Adjourned until Monday, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21st, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioners presented their credentials, and their names were placed on the roll, viz.:

Rev. Henry S. Osborn,	from the Presbytery of	Hanover.
Elder J. Marshall Paul, M.D.,	"	Philadelphia, 4th.
Elder Francis W. Digges,	"	Lexington.
Elder Nichol H. Dering, M.D.	"	Utica.
Elder Josiah W. Fairfield,	"	Columbia.
Rev. Samuel H. Willey,	"	San Francisco.
Rev. James M. McLean,	"	Newton.
Elder John Loughridge,	"	Trumbull.
Rev. Joseph M. Grout,	"	Illinois.
Elder Hon. Geo. T. Allen, M.D.,	"	Alton.
Rev. William H. Spencer,	"	Milwaukee.

An invitation was received from Messrs. John Sigerson & Brother to visit their grounds in the vicinity of this city, on Thursday afternoon next. The Assembly voted that thanks be returned to Messrs. John Sigerson & Brother for their kindness, but that the invitation be declined.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day. Reports were received from the Delegates appointed by the last Assembly to Corresponding Bodies, viz.: from Rev. J. W. McLane, D.D., Delegate to the General Association of Massachusetts; from Rev. Edward Taylor, Delegate to the General Association of New-Hampshire; from Rev. Bela Fancher, Delegate to the General Convention of Vermont; from Rev. Samuel D. Burchard, D.D., Delegate to the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin; and from Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D., Delegate to the Union of the Evangelical Churches of France.

The Reports were accepted, and ordered to be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Nominations were made of Delegates to Corresponding Bodies.

A communication was received from Rev. Samuel T. Spear, D.D., informing the Assembly of the inability, both of himself and his alternate, Rev. R. W. Patterson, to preach, as appointed by the last Assembly, on Home Missions.

A communication was also received from the Dean of the St. Louis Medical College, respectfully inviting the Assembly to visit in a body, or individually, that institution.

The invitation was accepted.

The Committee of the last Assembly on the Publication of a New Digest reported progress, and asked to be continued. Their request was granted.

The Standing Committee on Education for the Gospel Ministry made their Annual Report.

The Report was accepted, and referred to a Special Committee of five, consisting of Rev. Henry B. Smith, D.D., Rev. Gideon S. White, Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, J. Marshall Paul, M.D., and Mr. Josiah W. Fairfield.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21st, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Assembly, agreeably to previous order, proceeded to hear the reports of the Committees on the Synodical Records; and, on the recommendation of the respective Committees, the Records of the following Synods were approved as far as written: Albany, Utica, Geneva, Genesee, Pennsylvania, West-Pennsylvania, Michigan, Ohio, Cincinnati, Peoria, Iowa, Missouri, Virginia, West-Tennessee, and Mississippi.

The Records of the Synod of Western Reserve were approved, with the following exception:

On page 154, it is said: "Overtures No. 1 and 4 were taken up and acted upon," without stating what the Overtures were, either in full or in substance.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Tennessee reported, That after a careful examination of said Records, they find them correct; and, the attention of the Committee having been called to the report of a Committee of the Synod of Tennessee, relating to the constitutionality of a called meeting of said Synod, convened in accordance with a declaratory resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in 1796, and found on page 321 of the Digest published in 1820, after a careful examination of the whole subject, they recommend the following action in the case: That, in the judgment of this General Assembly, the meeting of the Synod of Tennessee, at Knoxville in said State, on the 9th day of November, was in accordance with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, and the Assembly do so declare. The report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Church Extension, to whom was referred the Overtures on the subject of Home Missions, made a report, which was accepted, and ordered to be printed.

The Assembly voted to take up the order of the day for to-morrow morning; when the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund made their Report, which was accepted, and referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Rev. A. E. Campbell, D.D., A. Bordman Lambert, D.D., Rev. Augustus T. Norton, Rev. Samuel H. Gridley, Rev. William Sterling, Rev. A. H. Dashiell, Hon. E. A. Lambert, Robert Boal, George Mygatt, and Hon. Augustus P. Hascall.

The Judicial Committee reported that they have received a paper, purporting to be a Memorial from the Session of the Presbyterian Church in Iowa City, relating to the case of Rev. W. W. Woods, which was acted upon and decided by the Synod of Iowa; and, having considered the same, they are unanimously of the opinion that the case cannot be regularly brought before the Assembly; because (1.) This memorial is, in fact, a complaint against the decision of the Synod of Iowa; and it does not appear that any notice of intention to complain to the Assembly was given to the Synod by the complainants.

(2.) No evidence has been presented by the complainants of the injustice of the decision of the Synod.

The Committee therefore recommend that the paper be returned to the complainants. The report was adopted; and, no other business having been presented to the Judicial Committee, they were discharged.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported a Memorial on the translation and publication, in the German language, of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church, and its Book of Psalmody; and recommended that it be referred to the Publication Committee.

The report was adopted.

A copy of a pamphlet, entitled, "Thoughts on the City of St. Louis," was presented to each member of the Assembly by the publisher, Mr. George Knapp, and the thanks of the Assembly were returned to him.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been given to Elder Amos Rice, of the Presbytery of Cortland.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the calling of the roll was dispensed with for the remaining sessions.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Assembly proceeded to the first order of the day, viz., the election of Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, which was referred to a Canvassing Committee.

The Stated Clerk was instructed to communicate with the Synod of the Free Church of Scotland, in Canada, with reference to opening a correspondence between that body and this General Assembly.

The Committee to whom was referred the framing of a Minute on the Theological Seminaaries, reported as follows:

The Presbyterian Church has ever taken a deep interest in the training of her sons for the sacred ministry. To this she has looked, as one great source of her influence and power for good among men. The General Assembly, therefore, has heard with great pleasure the evidence, presented at its present sessions, of the increasing prosperity and usefulness of its Theological Seminaries. It is matter of joy and of devout thanksgiving to God, that in these schools of the prophets the heart is cared for as well as the head; that, in the instructions there given, the religious element is developed along with the intellectual; and that the mind is turned off from speculations vainly curious, is kept near the Cross, and brought into sympathy with the wants of a perishing world. The Assembly regards it as a token for good, that among the students in these Seminaries the spirit of self-denial, the willingness to consecrate themselves to the missionary work, exists to so great a degree as it does; and that so large a number of them, from year to year, devote themselves to the work of preaching the Gospel to the heathen, or with equal readiness give their energies to the cause of home evangelization, of converting the wilderness into a fruitful field, and of making the solitary places glad. The Church has much to hope for from this increasing spirit of self-denial in her sons and daughters—from this willingness to endure hardships for Christ's sake. The Assembly regards with peculiar interest the mode of training introduced to a considerable extent in some of these Seminaries, and capable of much greater application in all, which unites the practical with the theoretical, and thus gives activity and life to every lesson, and increased meaning and importance to every precept. Great good must result from combining with study and research that species of preparation for the ministry which consists in instructing in Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes, in engaging in tract-distribution, and in teaching from house to house. Most heartily, therefore, does the General Assembly commend these Seminaries to the confidence and support of the churches, as the fountains which are to send forth the streams that gladden the earth. They should be put in a strong position, and have all healthful influences thrown around them. And the time of the students should not be taxed, as it now is in many cases, for their individual support, but be free from all such encumbrance, and devoted to study, to prayer, and to personal effort in the work of doing good. Any necessity of this kind which is laid upon students during their Seminary-life, any tax upon their time and energies of this character, tendeth to poverty. The churches, in permitting this necessity to exist, are in reality robbing themselves, are taking from their future pastors that which would increasingly enrich the intellect and the heart of the people to whom they are to minister in holy things.

The report was adopted.

The Assembly proceeded to hear the Delegates from Corresponding Bodies, in such communications as they desired to present; when Rev. Samuel Harris, from the General Association of Massachusetts; Rev. Charles C. Parker, from the General Convention of Vermont; and Rev. Zephaniah M. Humphrey, from the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin, made statements in reference to the state of religion within their respective bounds.

Communications from Rev. R. S. Storrs, Jr., D.D., Delegate from the General Association of New-York to this Assembly; from Rev. Samuel M. Gould, Delegate from the General Conference of Maine; from Rev. A. G. Loomis, Delegate from the General Association of Connecticut, and from Rev. H. A. Bomberger, D.D., Delegate from the Synod of the German Reformed Church in the United States, were received and read.

The communication from the Delegate of the General Association of New-York was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Rev. A. E. Campbell, D.D., Rev. Henry Neill, and Christopher R. Robert.

The Committee to nominate a Preacher on Home Missions for the next year, recommended Rev. Robert W. Patterson, of the Presbytery of Chicago, Principal, and Rev. Grosvenor W. Heacock, of the Presbytery of Buffalo, and their recommendation was adopted.

The Assembly voted to take up the order of the day for this afternoon, when the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and the Publication Committee made their Annual Reports. Before the completion of the reading of the latter Report, the Assembly adjourned until this afternoon at 3½ o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22d, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The reading of the Report of the Publication Committee was completed; and, together with the Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Rev. James W. McLane, D.D., A. Bordman Lambert, D.D., Rev. Edward D. Neill, Rev. Wm. Sterling, Rev. Wm. Lusk, Rev. M. M. Post, Hon. E. A. Lambert, N. H. Dering, M.D., and J. Marshall Paul, M.D.

The Canvassing Committee reported that the following persons had been duly elected Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, viz., to the General Association of Massachusetts—Rev. William W. Newell, Principal; and Rev. Samuel T. Spear, D.D., Alternate.

General Association of Connecticut — Rev. Joseph C. Stiles, D.D., Principal; and Rev. Samuel H. Gridley, Alternate.

General Association of New-Hampshire—Rev. George F. Wiswell, Principal; and Rev. Carlos Smith, Alternate.

General Association of New-York—Rev. Philos G. Cook, Principal; and Rev. James H. Rice, Alternate.

General Conference of Maine—Rev. Henry B. Smith, D.D., Principal; and Rev. John Ward, Alternate.

General Convention of Vermont—Rev. O. Phelps Hoyt, Principal; and Rev. Wm. S. Leavitt, Alternate.

General Evangelical Consociation of Rhode-Island—Rev. Henry Darling, Principal; and Rev. William C. Wisner, D.D., Alternate.

Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin—Rev. Clement E. Babb, Principal; and Rev. Henry Neill, Alternate.

Synod of the German Reformed Church—Rev. Benjamin J. Wallace, Principal; and James P. Wilson, D.D., Alternate.

General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—Rev. Gideon S. White, Principal; and Rev. Alexander Newton, D.D., Alternate.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to Rev. H. B. Smith, D.D., for his Address, in behalf of the Presbyterian Historical Society, on the Characteristics of the Reformed or Calvinistic Churches, delivered in this house last evening, and that a copy be requested for publication under the direction of the Stated Clerk.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported, that leave had been given to Rev. J. M. Phillips and Rev. S. H. Gridley; Elders, J. W. Sprague, E. Parshall, A. Requa, and J. W. Fairfield.

The Assembly, having learned that the Clerical Commissioner, from the Presbytery of Ithaca, was, on his way to the Assembly, robbed of the money intrusted to him by his Presbytery for the Commissioners' Fund, voted, that the Commissioner be allowed to draw his mileage from said Fund, although, for the reason specified, the money contributed by the Presbytery has not been paid into it.

The Committee on Church Extension, to whom were referred the Overtures on Home Missions, presented a report recommending a particular course of action on this subject; the consideration of which occupied the remainder of the session.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock, A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 23d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The thanks of the Assembly were returned to the Young Mens' Christian Association of St. Louis, and the Medical Faculty of the University of Missouri, for their invitations to visit their respective institutions.

Rev. Samuel Harris, Delegate from the General Association of Massachusetts, after a short address, to which the Moderator responded, respectfully took his leave.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported, recommending that the Assembly celebrate the Lord's Supper in this house, on Thursday next, at 4 o'clock P.M.; that the services be conducted by Rev. William C. Wisner, D.D.; that Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., administer the bread, assisted by Rev. John T. Hargrave; that Rev. A. T. Norton administer the cup, assisted by Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd; and that the closing hymn be read and the benediction pronounced by Rev. S. H. Willey. And further, that the distribution of the elements be committed to the following Elders, viz.: Hon. A. P. Hascall, Robert W. Davenport, Robert Boal, Robert A. Armstrong, George Mygatt, James K. Bates, M.D., John F. Judd, Frederick E. Robinson, William P. Cook, John Smith, Charles S. Hempstead, and David Dickey. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Mileage presented their report, stating that there have been paid into the hands of the Committee from 34 Presbyteries the sum of $864.28; and that an apportionment has been made on 43,022 miles of travel in coming to the General Assembly, at the rate of 2.0092 cents for each mile of travel in favor of 47 members, who have applied for their portion of the fund, and each of whose Presbyters, excepting Ithaca, has contributed thereto.

The report was adopted, and the Committee on Mileage were directed to pay the Commissioners accordingly.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Church Extension, relative to the Overtures on the subject of Home Missions, when, after full discussion, it was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Church Extension, to whom were referred the Overtures and Memorials on the subject of Home Missions, from the Third and Fourth Presbyteries of Philadelphia, the Synod of Iowa, and the Presbyteries of Chicago and Iowa City, respectfully report:

That their attention has been especially directed to those cases of Home Missionary effort, which are excluded by the rules of the American Home Missionary Society. Such are, for example, the employment of Synodical, Presbyterial, and generally of exploring or itinerant Presbyterian Missionaries, and the planting of Presbyterian Churches in advance of all others in towns and neighborhoods, and the founding of churches within the chartered limits of cities and large villages.

The Form of Government of our Church, chapter XVIII, expressly authorizes the inferior judicatories to apply to the General Assembly for missionary assistance, and in express terms authorizes the Assembly to send missionaries to any part of the Church. The principles of our Presbyterianism, applicable to this subject, are, that the Church is one; that, in accordance with this idea, the stronger parts of the Church must assist the weaker, and that the reservoir into which the surplus shall flow to be equalized and distributed, is the General Assembly. It is obvious that the details of the reception and distribution of funds for this object cannot be arranged by the whole body of the Assembly, but that the Assembly must employ some agency for this purpose; and our opinion is that it is entirely free to choose any agency whatever. Of course it may operate through a voluntary association like the American Home Missionary Society; but your Committee do not conceive that its use of that Society for specific purposes either gives that Society a right to control the whole subject of Church Extension for our denomination, or releases the General Assembly from its own obligation to do so. The older and richer Synods, indeed, do not feel so much the pressure of this necessity, as they are able to afford the needed supplementary aid from their own resources; but it is urged upon us from the more new and destitute portions of our Church, that our interests are grievously suffering, because neither the American Home Missionary Society nor any other agency meets their wants in certain respects, such as those which have been already mentioned; and their appeal in this behalf is made just where the Constitution of our Church directs that it should be made—to the General Assembly itself.

This being obviously, therefore, a case which cannot be reached so effectually by any action of the inferior judicatories, your Committee cannot see how the Assembly can refuse to exercise, in regard to it, that power of "superintendence of the concerns of the whole Church," expressly confided to it by the Constitution. They therefore recommend the following action:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly hereby establishes a Standing Committee, to be called "The Church Extension Committee," a majority of whom shall reside in or near the city of Philadelphia. This Committee shall have no other powers than those conferred by the Assembly; and the functions now assigned to them are those of employing Presbyterial, Synodical, and other Presbyterian itinerant or exploring Agents, and affording aid in such exceptional cases as those already mentioned, and also the receiving and disbursing of funds for these objects.

2. That, in recommending this course of action, the General Assembly distinctly declare that it is not their intention thus to establish an Ecclesiastical Board, or to interfere with the proper functions of the American Home Missionary Society, but, as heretofore, they recommend that Society to the confidence and coöperation of the churches under their care.

3. That the Standing Committee on Church Extension, now constituted, shall consist of fifteen members, to be chosen by the Assembly in such manner as the Assembly may direct, and the Committee shall, at its first meeting, divide itself into three equal parts, to serve respectively one, two, and three years, but the same persons shall be reëligible at the pleasure of the Assembly.

4. Five members of the Committee shall be a quorum; but in order to elect any salaried officer of the Committee, or to increase or diminish the salary of the same, a majority of the Committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum. The Committee shall have power to fill any vacancies occurring while the Assembly is not in session, and they shall make an annual report to the Assembly of all their proceedings.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 23d, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resolutions on the subject of Temperance were moved, and ordered to be put upon the docket.

It having been stated to the Assembly, that the question, on the adoption this morning of the report of the Committee on Church Extension relative to Home Missions, was not fairly understood by the house, the vote was unanimously re-considered, when after considerable discussion the report was again adopted.

The Special Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, made their report, which was accepted.

Rev. B. B. Westbrook addressed the Assembly in behalf of the American Sunday-School Union, after which the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly highly appreciates the American Sunday-School Union, as an Evangelical Missionary Agency; and, while we heartily rejoice in the continued prosperity of the Institution, we most cordially commend it to the favorable regards of all our Churches.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported in relation to certain Overtures and Memorials that had been before them upon the subject of Slavery. The report was accepted, and its consideration was made the first order of the day for to-morrow morning.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 24th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual time had been occupied with devotional exercises, the minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported, that leave had been given to Elder Hon. C. Noble, Rev. I. W. Rice, Rev. S. W. Bush, Elder Hon. A. P. Hascall, C. R. Robert, T. J. Campbell, R. H. Hurlbut, H. A. Babcock, Rev. J. B. Hubbard, and Elder R. L. Seely.

A Committee, consisting of Rev. T. H. Skinner, D.D., Rev. R. Adair, and Hon. A. E. Lambert, was appointed to nominate "The Church Extension Committee."

Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly be presented to the Ladies of the First Presbyterian Church of this city under the pastoral care of Rev. Artemas Bullard, .D.D., for the very elegant entertainment with which they honored us last evening.

A paper recommending a day of fasting and prayer, on account of the wide-spread immoralities of our land and the consequent divine judgments upon it, was presented by Rev. Samuel K. Sneed, and ordered to be placed upon the docket.

The Assembly entered upon the consideration of the report of the Special Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund; and, after discussion, it was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, having had the matters therein contained under consideration, present the following report:

1. The Charter.

The Trustees having, according to the direction of the last General Assembly, obtained from the Legislature of the State of New-York an act of incorporation, and having accepted the same, which act they have reported to this General Assembly, therefore:

Resolved, That this General Assembly approve said act of incorporation and the acceptance thereof by the Trustees.

2. Election of Trustees.

The term of service of the following Trustees, Walter S. Griffith, William E. Dodge, and Oliver H. Lee, having expired, the Committee nominate them as suitable persons for reëlection for three years, according to the provisions of the Plan for the Management and Distribution of the Fund; and recommend that the election be held on Friday morning immediately after the opening of the Assembly.

3. Transfer of the Fund.

At the close of the last General Assembly, the Board not being incorporated or even organized, the amount of the Fund then collected was properly left in the custody of the Treasurer of the Assembly, but the Board now being fully organized, and having a legal existence, it appears to the Committee desirable and proper, that the custody of the Fund as far as completed should be committed to those who are responsible for its future management, and they therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the closing sentence of the 15th Article of the Plan for Distribution be altered to read as follows: "The Treasurer of the General Assembly is hereby directed to transfer the moneys and securities belonging to the Church Erection Fund, in his hands, to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly's Church Erection Fund, upon the written order of the Board, signed by its President and Secretary."

4. Thanks to the Treasurer.

Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly are hereby tendered to Anthony P. Halsey, Esq., its Treasurer, for the accommodating, patient, and faithful attention that he has bestowed on the reception, and the management of the Church Erection Fund, while it has been in his hands; and that the Stated Clerk communicate this resolution to Mr. Halsey.

5. Auditing Committee.

Resolved, That the Auditing Committee appointed by the last General Assembly be reäppointed for the coming year.

6. Change of the Plan.

In reply to the memorial of the Presbytery of Kalamazoo, requesting a change in the conditions of the 12th and 14th Sections of the Plan of Distribution, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That upon a careful examination it will be found, that the Plan contains no conditions or requirements not necessary to the permanence and perpetuity of the Fund; and that essentially to modify or change the conditions of distribution would jeopard its perpetuity.

7. Premature Distribution of the Fund.

In reply to the suggestion of the Presbytery of Ithaca, that the distribution of the Fund should be commenced before the amount originally contemplated is paid in, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That good faith towards many of the contributors to the Fund, and a becoming regard to consistency on the part of the Assembly in its reïterated declaration of its purposes and pledges on this subject, alike forbid any distribution till the whole sum is completed.

8. Injunction to the Synods.

Resolved, That the Synods be enjoined to give particular attention to Article XI. of the Plan of Distribution, requiring the appointment of Committees of Church Extension, and the transmission of the names and residences of the members, to the Board of Trustees.

9. Completion of the Fund.

The Trustees having reported a proposed Assessment on the several Synods, for the purpose of completing the Fund, as follows:

Albany,	$1500	Indiana,	$500
Utica,	500	Wabash,	500
Geneva,	1500	Illinois,	500
Susquehanna,	500	Peoria,	500
Genesee,	1800	Iowa,	100
New-York and New-Jersey,	6000	Missouri,	500
Pennsylvania,	1100	Virginia,	1500
West-Pennsylvania,	500	Kentucky,	200
Michigan,	1500	Tennessee,	300
Western Reserve,	1000	West-Tennessee,	300
Ohio,	500	Mississippi,	300
Cincinnati,	500

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly recommend the several Synods now to assume these assessments.

Resolved, 2. That the members of the several Synods be now called upon to state what amount they have already secured by collections and subscriptions; and also what amount they will individually pledge themselves to raise.

Resolved, 3. That the Trustees be directed to secure the services of such special agency or agencies as they may think best, as soon as they are satisfied that such agency or agencies are necessary to the early completion of the Fund.

Rev. Zephaniah M. Humphrey, Delegate from the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin, and Rev. Charles C. Parker, Delegate from the General Convention of Vermont, after short addresses, to which the Moderator responded, respectfully took their leave.

Adjourned to meet, in the lecture room of this church, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 24th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church made a report which was adopted, and is as follows:

1. The Committee on the Polity of the Church report, that an application has been made, by the Synod of Geneva, for the erection of a new Synod, to be composed of four Presbyteries of the Synod of Geneva; and, as the matter has been amicably arranged by those concerned, and no objection appears to such a course, they recommend, that the Presbyteries of Onondaga, Cayuga, Cortland, and Tioga be erected into a new Synod, to be called the SYNOD OF ONONDAGA.

They also recommend that the first meeting of the Synod of Onondaga be appointed at Cortlandville, on the second Tuesday of October, 1855, at 7 o'clock P.M.; that Rev. Levi Parsons preach the opening sermon and preside until a Moderator is chosen; or, in case of his absence, that the oldest member present preach and preside.

2. They also report an application from the Presbytery of St. Joseph, to be transferred from the Synod of Michigan to the Synod of Wabash. As this transfer would be convenient for the Presbytery, and has been arranged with the knowledge and consent of the Synod of Michigan, the Committee recommend that the transfer be made as requested.

3. The Committee further report an application, from the Fourth Presbytery of New-York, for such a modification of the rules in the Digest, as will facilitate the reception of ministers from foreign bodies, with whom we are upon terms of fraternal correspondence. The Committee can see and appreciate the fact, that, in the great changes which have occurred, bringing the ends of the earth near together, instances of seeming hardship may occur; still in their judgment the time has not yet come, when it is wise for this Assembly to introduce the change in our arrangements referred to; and, they therefore recommend that no action be taken by the Assembly in the premises.

The Assembly entered upon the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, relating to the subject of Slavery.

Pending the discussion of this subject, the Assembly suspended business, and proceeded to the body of the Church, where, agreeably to previous arrangements, the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was celebrated, in union with a number of Christian brethren and sisters, who accepted the invitation to participate with them.

The public services in the Church having been brought to a close, the Assembly returned to the lecture room and resumed business: when the Special Committee on the Report of the Standing Committee on Education for the Gospel Ministry, presented a report, which was accepted and placed upon the docket.

The Special Committee, on the Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and of the Publication Committee, presented a report which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and of the Publication Committee, have considered the same and report the following Preamble and Resolutions, for the adoption of the Assembly, namely:

Whereas, the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, by an Act approved by the Governor, April 21, 1855, incorporated "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House," in Philadelphia, who are by said Act to be elected by this body, therefore Resolved, by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America: 1. That the said Charter be, and the same is hereby, accepted; and that the Trustees, created by said Act of incorporation, be directed to perform all the duties required by their appointment.

Resolved, 2. That the said Trustees be directed to give such official notification to the proper authorities of the State of Pennsylvania, as may be necessary, of the acceptance of the Charter by the General Assembly.

Resolved 3. That the Assembly do now elect ten Trustees, under this Charter, five of whom shall be ministers, and five laymen, all of whom shall be connected with some Presbytery or church under the care of the General Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That the first meeting of the Trustees shall be at such time and place as shall be fixed by the Trustee first elected, or in case of his inability to act, the Trustee next elected, who shall act as Chairman, until the Board is constituted by the election of a President and Secretary.

Resolved, 5. That the Trustees, at their first meeting, be directed to divide themselves into two portions, and in such manner that there shall always be in the Board five ministers and five laymen.

Resolved, 6. That, in electing these Trustees, a nomination shall be made in the Assembly, and that the election shall be by ballot on the day following that on which the nomination is made.

Resolved, 7. That these Trustees be directed to keep an accurate record of all their proceedings, and report the same annually to the Assembly.

Resolved, 8. That these Trustees be directed to take such measures for raising the amount pledged by the last Assembly, for the purchase of the "Presbyterian House," as they may deem expedient and proper.

Resolved, 9. That the action of the Publication Committee, as reported to the Assembly, be approved, and the Committee instructed to proceed officially in discharging the duties of their appointment; and that a brief synopsis of their Report be published in the Appendix to the Minutes, under the direction of the Stated Clerk.

Resolved, 10. That the members of the Committee, whose term of office expires during these sessions of the Assembly, namely, Rev. Albert Barnes, Rev. Nathan S. S. Beman, D.D., Rev. Thomas Brainerd, D.D., Rev. William Eagleton, D.D., and Rev. Asa D. Smith, D.D., be reëlected.

Resolved, 11. That the Report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and that of the Publication Committee, having been audited, be approved.

Resolved, 12. That the Trustees of the Presbyterian House be directed to report to the next Assembly a plan of rules and regulations for the government of said Trustees in the discharge of their duties.

Nominations for Trustees of the Presbyterian House were made; the election to take place to-morrow.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer. Half an hour was occupied with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been given to Rev. E. D. Morris, Rev. S. Cowles, Elders J. R. Bates and Charles Barnes, Rev. A. H. Gaston, Elders E. Gillett, and S. Beckley, Rev. A. G. Gallaher, and Elder P. C. Baldwin.

The Committee to nominate the Church Extension Committee reported the following names: Rev. Albert Barnes, Rev. Thomas Brainerd, D.D., Rev. Thos. J. Shepherd, Rev. Henry Darling, Rev. Benj. J. Wallace, M. M. Baldwin, John A. Brown, Thomas B. Sparhawk, Rev. Geo. L. Prentiss, D.D., Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D., Rev. Sam'l T. Spear, D.D., Rev. John C. Smith, D.D., Hon. John L. Mason, Joseph B. Sheffield, and Hon. Edward A. Lambert. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported supplies for the various pulpits in the city and vicinity on the ensuing Sabbath.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made the following reports, which were severally adopted:

Your Committee report an Overture from the Synod of Missouri, respecting the common version of the Bible. The said memorial sets forth the fact that strenuous efforts have been made for years, and are now made, especially in the West, to destroy confidence in, and set aside, our common and most excellent version of the Bible, as very defective and sectarian, and to introduce a new one.

The Memorial, moreover, sets forth, that we, as Presbyterians, have been misrepresented, and the idea conveyed that some of our ministers favor this scheme. Our silence on the subject has resulted in making the impression, among some of our people, that the common version of the Bible is not worthy of confidence. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we have unshaken confidence in our common version, and a firm belief that a better one on the whole, for common use, cannot be had.

Resolved, 2. That we deprecate the incalculable evils that would inevitably result from such an attempt, by any denomination or denominations, to introduce a new version, destroying, as it would, confidence in our common version, ejecting it from our schools, opening the way for conflicting, sectarian versions, and sadly wounding and marring our beautiful Protestantism.

Resolved, 3. That, in the judgment of this Assembly, not one of our judicatories, and not one minister, approves of, or sympathizes with, this injudicious sectarian movement.

Resolved, 4. That all our ministers be careful, in expounding the world publicly, so to expound, as to inspire and sustain confidence in our excellent version, as truly the Word of God; believing, as we do, that the honest-hearted inquirer searching after the truth, with a teachable spirit, will find it.

An Overture has also been received from the Presbytery of Chicago, asking that measures be adopted by the Assembly to obtain an equal representation in the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Foreign Missions.

And that arrangements be made with the Board to secure the erection of Presbyteries on foreign shores.

The Committee report, in regard to the first part: That inasmuch as the Prudential Committee meet, of necessity, weekly, to transact the important business intrusted to them, it does not seem to be possible to make any arrangement different from that already existing.

In regard to the second part, they recommend that the matter be left with the Standing Committee of the Assembly, appointed for the express purpose alluded to in the Overture, and who are to make a report to this body at the present sessions.

An Overture has also been placed in the hands of the Committee, asking, that, in view of the present unbecoming and censurable variety existing in the churches in their form of admission of church members on profession of their faith, and in view of the fact that such an act is a universal one, and the same in all our churches, a Special Committee be appointed to report to the next General Assembly some form of admission for general use by all our churches; and that the same, if approved, be recommended by the Assembly, that there may be uniformity and impressive propriety in such a public solemn act.

The Committee recommend that the Overture be accepted by the Assembly, and that such a Committee be appointed.

The Assembly proceeded to the election of three Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, in the place of those whose term of service is about to expire; and the following individuals were elected: Walter S. Griffith, Oliver H. Lee, and William E. Dodge.

As Trustees of the Presbyterian House, the following individuals were elected: John A. Brown, M. W. Baldwin, Charles S. Wurts, Samuel H. Perkins, John C. Farr, Rev. Albert Barnes, Rev. Thomas Brainerd, D.D., Rev. Benjamin J. Wallace, Rev. Henry Darling, and Rev. David H. Riddle, D.D.

The Assembly then took up the unfinished business of yesterday, namely, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures relative to the subject of Slavery.

After protracted discussion, the previous question was moved and carried, after which, the report of the Committee, as amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Bills and Overtures has received memorials on the subject of Slavery from the Synod of Iowa, the Synod of Western Reserve, the Presbyteries of Elyria, St. Joseph, Cincinnati, Champlain, Ithaca, Peoria and Knox, Wabash, Athens, Maumee, Hamilton, Indianapolis, Geneva, and the Congregational Church of Colden; all couched in the most respectful language, all complaining that the orders of the Assembly of 1853 have not been complied with, and all of them calling for action on the part of the Assembly.

They have also received a Memorial from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, 3d, deprecating any action on the part of this body, out of a sincere regard for the peace, unity, and prosperity of the Church.

After protracted, deliberate, and prayerful consideration of the whole subject, the Committee are unanimous in recommending to the General Assembly the following action:

1. That the General Assembly address a Pastoral Letter to all the churches under their care, reäffirming the testimony of past Assemblies in regard to the sinfulness of the system of Slavery, as it generally exists in these United States, and expressing their deep regret at the intemperateness of word and action that has too often characterized the spirit of those who have conscientiously aimed at its overthrow; and that they urge upon their churches earnest efforts, by all Christian and constitutional modes, to remove the evil from the midst of us.

2. That a Committee be appointed to report to the next Assembly on the constitutional power of the Assembly over the subject of slaveholding in our churches; and that we recommend that this evil be removed from our Church, as soon as it can be done in a Christian and constitutional manner.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Presbyterian House be, and they hereby are, authorized to receive and hold in trust the title to the property of any individual church which may be confided to them, provided that it be in accordance with the terms of their charter.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Moderator announced the following Committees:

On a Form of Admission to the Church—Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., Rev. Samuel T. Spear, D.D., and Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D.

On the Pastoral Letter—Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D., Rev. Artemas Bullard, D.D., Rev. William Lusk, Rev. Samuel K. Sneed, and Rev. Samuel S. Thomson.

On the Constitutional Powers of the Assembly—Rev. Albert Barnes, Rev. Asa D. Smith, D.D., Rev. A. H. H. Boyd, D.D., Hon. Wm. Jessup, LL.D., and Hon. Augustus P. Hascall.

The resolutions upon the subject of Temperance were taken from the docket, adopted, and are as follows:

Whereas, Intemperance is the great antagonist of domestic peace and social happiness—of sound morality and pure Christianity, and at war with all the dearest interests of man for this world and the future; and whereas, the experience of two hundred years proves, that this evil can never be removed or effectively resisted, while the traffic in intoxicating drinks is continued, it being necessary if we would stop the effect to remove the cause; therefore Resolved, 1. That this Assembly, as lovers of our holy religion, of our country, and our race, and as office-bearers in the Church, can but feel a lively interest in the progress of the Temperance Reform.

Resolved, 2. That we here record our devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the recent unparalleled progress of this Reform, as evinced by the action of the Legislatures of thirteen States and two Territories of our Union, in the passage of laws prohibiting entirely the traffic in all intoxicating beverages.

Resolved, 3. That, in the opinion of this body, laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating drinks, can interfere with the rights of no man; because no man has a right of any name or nature, inconsistent with the public good, or at war with the welfare of the community; it being a well-known and universally acknowledged maxim of law, that "No man has a right to use his own to the injury of his neighbor."

Resolved, 4. That we earnestly recommend to the ministers and congregations in our connection, and to all others, to persevere in vigorous efforts until laws shall be enacted in every State and Territory of our beloved country, prohibiting entirely a traffic which is the principal cause of the drunkenness, and its consequent pauperism, crime, taxation, lamentation, war, and ruin to the bodies and souls of men, with which the country has so long been afflicted.

The report of the Special Committee on the Annual Report of the Education Committee was considered, adopted, and is as follows.

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the first Annual Report of the "Standing Committee on Education for the Ministry," in view of the suggestions of that Report, and of the urgent needs of the Education cause, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the first resolution adopted by the Assembly of the last year, as given on page 506 of the Minutes, be so amended as to read, that, "A Committee of fifteen ministers and members of the Presbyterian Church, of whom five shall always be laymen, shall be appointed by the General Assembly, to be called 'The Standing Committee on Education for the Ministry;' seven of whom shall reside in or near the city of Philadelphia. Five members of this Committee shall constitute a quorum; but for the election of a Secretary of Education, or for action upon his salary, a majority shall be necessary to a quorum."

Resolved, 2. This Committee, as thus enlarged, shall divide itself into three equal classes, the first, second, and third, whose terms of office shall expire, respectively, in one, two, and three years. The General Assembly shall annually elect after the present year, five members of this Committee for three years, to fill such vacancies. It shall also, each year, fill any vacancy which may have occurred in the other classes. The Committee shall have power, by the vote of a majority, to fill any vacancies occurring in the interval between the sessions of two Assemblies for such an interval.

Resolved, 3. That it is inexpedient for this Assembly to proceed to the election of a General Secretary of Education; but that it direct the Standing Committee to procure for that office, if possible, the services of the Rev. Artemas Bullard, D.D., of St. Louis.

Resolved, 4. That this Assembly earnestly commend the whole subject of Education for the ministry to the special care of the Synods, Presbyteries, and churches, exhorting them to use all diligence in searching out suitable candidates for the ministry, and to increased faithfulness in training them for the whole work of the ministry; and that all the churches be requested to take up annual collections for this most important object.

The Report of the Committee of the last Assembly "On the Memorial with reference to Infirm Ministers," was referred to the Standing Committee on Education for the Gospel Ministry.

The Assembly took from the docket the Report of the Committee on Church Psalmody; and the following substitute was adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the Publication Committee confer with the proprietors of the Church Psalmist, and secure, if possible, the transfer, on reasonable terms, of the copy-right of said book to the General Assembly, and that the Committee have full powers to close arrangements binding on the Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That, in case of failure, said Committee report to the next General Assembly, and at the same time recommend to that body the course which they deem it most advisable to pursue in the premises.

Resolved, That the Trustees of those Colleges within our bounds which originated in the action of any of the Synods connected with this Assembly, and the Colleges which now report to said Synods, be requested to make a report annually before the 15th of April to the Education Committee, to be incorporated in their Annual Report to the Assembly.

The following individuals were nominated and elected as members of the Standing Committee on Education for the Gospel ministry, with power to elect their own chairman. Rev. Albert Barnes, Rev. Thomas Brainerd, D.D., Rev. John Jenkins, Rev. Geo. Duffield, Jr., Rev. Henry Darling, Rev. Thos. J. Shepherd, William Purves, Hon. Wm. Jessup, LL.D., Rev. Thos. H. Skinner, D.D., Rev. William Adams, D.D., Rev. J. J. Owen, D.D., Rev. A. A. Wood, I. B. Pinneo, Norman White, and J. W. Benedict.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Presbyteries made the following report, which was adopted.

The Standing Committee appointed by the last Assembly to correspond with the Missionaries, and with the Prudential Committee of the American Board, in reference to the formation of foreign Presbyteries, report that their Chairman has failed to prepare and submit a report for their consideration, and that a majority of the Committee being present desire that Rev. A. E. Campbell, D.D., and Rev. Asa D. Smith, D.D., be added to the Committee.

The paper presented by Rev. S. K. Sneed, relative to the appointment of a day of fasting and prayer on account of the wide-spread immoralities of our land and the consequent divine judgments upon it, was referred to a special Committee, consisting of Rev. P. G. Cook, Rev. S. Mills Day, and Hon. E. A. Lambert.

Resolutions upon the subject of mileage were introduced, and referred to a special Committee, consisting of Rev. Robert Adair and Rev. John Crowell.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 26th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual time spent in devotional exercises, the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been given to Rev. D. M. Lord, Rev. C. E. Rosenkrans, Rev. W. F. Doubleday, Rev. R. S. Crampton, and Elders Wm. Brooks, J. R. Lee, L. S. Crawford, and Geo. Mygatt.

It was moved to re-consider the reference of the Overture from the Presbytery of Chicago on Foreign Presbyteries to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions; and, after an extended discussion, the motion was lost.

The Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion made their report, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Committee to whom was referred the subject of mileage, made the following report, which was adopted:

Whereas, a full representation, both of ministers and elders, from all the Presbyteries, is essential to the efficiency and welfare of the Church; and whereas this can be secured only by the coöperation of all the Presbyteries in raising an adequate fund to defray the necessary expenses of all the Commissioners to the Assembly; Therefore

Resolved, 1. That Messrs. J. W. Benedict and W. P. Cook, together with the Stated Clerk, be a Committee, to estimate the probable amount that will be required to defray the travelling expenses of Commissioners, and the contingent expenses of the Assembly, to assess the same in equitable proportions upon the Presbyteries, and to inform each Presbytery of its quota, as soon as practicable after the rising of this Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That on the fourth day after the opening of the Assembly, the Presbyteries shall be called upon to report whether the amount assessed upon them has been paid into the Treasury of the Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That the Commissioners to the Assembly, whose Presbyteries have paid their assessment, shall, within four days from and after the opening of the Assembly, present a bill of their necessary travelling expenses to the Standing Committee on Mileage, to be audited by them, and paid in equal proportions, according to the funds in the hands of the Committee.

Resolved, 4. That all prior regulations of the Assembly on the subject of mileage inconsistent with these resolutions be, and they are hereby, rescinded.

The Committee appointed to prepare a Pastoral Letter made the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee appointed to draft a Pastoral Letter to the churches under the care of the General Assembly, report, that in view of the entire insufficiency of time allotted for the performance of the duty assigned, and the utter impossibility, in such a limited period, of doing justice to so important a subject, or satisfying themselves or the Assembly, it be recommended to the General Assembly to re-consider the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, with the view of amending it, so as to strike out the words, "address a Pastoral Letter to the churches under their care," and make it read as follows: "That the General Assembly hereby reäffirm the testimony of past Assemblies in regard to the sinfulness of the system of Slavery, as it generally exists in these United States, and express their deep regret at the intemperateness of word and action which has too often characterized the spirit of those who have conscientiously aimed at its overthrow; and that they urge upon their churches earnest efforts, by all Christian and constitutional modes, to remove the evil from the midst of us."

In accordance with this report, the previous action of the Assembly upon this subject was re-considered, and the proposed amendment was made.

Adjourned until 3 o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 26th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

The Committee, to whom was referred the paper on the appointment of a day of fasting and prayer, made the following report, which was adopted:

Resolved, That in view of the late drought, the effects of which have been so severely experienced throughout the land during the past year, we clearly discern the dispensation of an over-ruling Providence, who corrects in kindness and afflicts in love. That we humbly acknowledge our entire dependence upon our Father in heaven, for both temporal and spiritual blessings; that we devoutly pray for the forgiveness of those sins which have required the visitation of His chastening hand, and that we gratefully own that it is by reason only of God's abounding mercy that we are now permitted to rejoice in the hope of returning fruitfulness and plenty.

The Committee upon the Communication from the Delegate of the

New-York Association made their report, which, after amendment, was adopted, and is as follows:

Whereas, the General Association of New-York, at their meeting in Madrid, held August, 23d, 1854, by resolution forwarded to this body, have addressed us in a discourteous and objectionable manner; Therefore

Resolved, That the Assembly would respectfully request that the future communications of the Association to us be couched in courteous language.

The Standing Committees of the Assembly respectively reported that no business was before them, and asked to be discharged. Their request was granted.

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly be, and they are hereby, returned to Rev. W. C. Wisner, D.D., for the prompt, the able, the kind, the patient, the impartial and Christian manner in which he has presided over the deliberations of this body during its present sessions.

The travelling expenses of the Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, to Rhode-Island, Wisconsin, and Vermont; the bill for printing and stationery, the Janitor's bill, with the salary and travelling expenses of the clerks, were ordered to be paid.

The expenses of Rev. O. P. Hoyt, in the performance of duties as a Delegate to the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin, in the year 1849, were allowed, and ordered to be paid.

Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly be presented to the several railroad companies who have generously permitted the members of this Assembly to attend their sessions in St. Louis at a reduced fare.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be tendered to the citizens of St. Louis, who have extended their hospitality to the Commissioners and others in attendance, and have contributed to make their stay in this city so peculiarly pleasant; with the assurance of our fervent prayer that the blessing of God, in connection with this Assembly, may rest upon them.

Also, that the thanks of this Assembly be tendered to the Committee of Arrangements, for their promptness and activity in providing for our comfort.

Also, that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the Trustees of the Union Presbyterian Church for the accommodations extended to the Assembly during their present session.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be given to Rev. Wm. Bradford, editor of the Daily New-York Evangelist, for his full and minute report of the proceedings of the Assembly during its present sessions.

The minutes of the session were read and approved.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with.

The business of the Assembly having been finished, and the vote having been taken for the dissolving of the Assembly, the Moderator, with prayer and the Apostolic benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved; and required another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Madison-Square Presbyterian Church, or in some other church designated by the Committee of Arrangements, in the city of New-York, on the third Thursday of May 1856, at 11 o'clock A.M.

HENRY DARLING, Permanent Clerk.

St. Louis, May 26th, 1855.

APPENDIX.

I. Annual Narrative

OF THE

STATE OF RELIGION

WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

MAY, 1855.

Of the 108 Presbyteries on the roll, 69 have sent up their Annual Narratives on the state of religion. From a patient and careful examination of them all, our hearts are cheered with the evidences that God is in the midst of us. A large proportion of the Presbyterial Narratives, we are happy to say, present a specific statement of the condition and prospects of the churches within their respective bounds. And, as we have perused these papers, and the eye has roamed over our wide field in rapid transit, without reference to order, resting now upon the city, and now upon the prairie, Presbyteries, the scene is one to stir the heart of every son and servant of the Church. Shade and sunshine diversify the landscape, but the sunlight prevails.

On the whole, the past year has been one of progress. Peace and prosperity are within our borders. With few exceptions, our churches have had rest. Our various departments of Christian enterprise have gone on undisturbed. Our cords are being lengthened and our stakes strengthened. There is much to encourage us to renewed devotion, activity, and prayer. The voice of Prophecy and Providence alike says to us as a Church, "Go up and possess the land."

Your Committee have found it no small task to collect, arrange, and condense the varied mass of information contained in the Narratives; but they have selected the following items as worthy of record:

CHURCH ERECTION.

The subject of supplying all our congregations with houses of worship is just now occupying a large share of the attention of our Church. Twenty-one Presbyteries report thirty-three church-edifices completed during the year, or as now being toward completion; while a great number of churches are anxiously awaiting the day of their ability to "rise and build," aided by the Church Erection Fund. In all of our pioneer Presbyteries the want of suitable places of worship is sadly felt. One Presbytery, having under its care six churches, reports: "We have but one house of worship (except the shanty church at B.) in our Presbytery, and that was erected two years since, at an expense of over $1500, $300 of which were loaned from the Synod's Church Erection Fund."

Two other churches in this Presbytery are now struggling to build for themselves, while our Hundred Thousand Dollar Fund remains incomplete and unavailable. We cannot too earnestly urge upon our churches the duty of completing this important undertaking.

WANT OF LABORERS.

Nor are churches alone needed. From most of our Western Presbyteries, South and North, there comes up the earnest call for "more men." One says: "We deplore the scarcity of ministers to fill the waste places." Another: "On this wide field we have but six ministers in actual service. Many churches and fields of labor are vacant. We greatly need more laborers, and feel the necessity of greater efforts to bring forth our young men into the ministry, that the Master's vineyard may be better cultivated." Another: "Our laborers are few. The field is large and ripe for harvest. We pray for laborers." Another: "We have nine ministers to twenty-four churches." Another: "Six ministers to seventeen churches." Another: "We have to lament the destitutions on our field. Population is rapidly increasing, but our laborers do not increase in the same ratio." Another: "In many destitute places within our bounds, the earnest cry is heard from brethren and sisters of our own faith, 'Send us a minister,' while at the same time, some of our own vacant churches are calling in vain, and well nigh famishing, for the bread of life." Another: "Our churches are well attended, and new fields are opening with uncommon promise, but our ministers are too few; the demand far exceeding the supply; and we are compelled to give these places over to others, or suffer them to lie waste." We present these extracts, from eight different States, merely as specimens, with the hope of calling the attention of the whole Church to this point. Money we are offered. A support for every man whom we will furnish is pledged to us on the floor of the Assembly. Churches will be built, but where are the men to occupy them? New and wide doors are opening invitingly to our approach, but where are the men to enter them? Here, so far as concerns outward means for the enlargement of our Church, is our weakest point. "Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth laborers into his harvest." The last General Assembly, in session at Philadelphia, held the following language on this subject: "Many Presbyteries are seeking enlargement, and are hindered by the want of ministers, and of suitable places of worship. * * * * The reports on education for the ministry show that but partial attention has been given to the subject. The general interest felt concerning it is very far below what it should be, for it is second to no other. We believe it will never receive the consideration becoming its importance until our churches shall cease to rely upon any organizations, either ecclesiastical or voluntary, and shall make it a matter of daily prayerful concern among themselves." That Assembly also devolved upon this Committee the duty of incorporating into the Narrative whatever should be deemed of service to this subject. Your Committee regret to add that, so far as appears from the reports laid upon the table of the Assembly, we, as a Church, have made little advance in this direction during the year past. And they feel impelled to ask, with great solicitude, if something cannot be done to increase the number of candidates for the Gospel ministry.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

When we turn to the subject of the religious instruction of our children and youth, the face of our Church presents a different appearance. "Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun."

The universal interest among our churches in behalf of the rising generation gives promise for the future. Almost every Presbytery speaks of Sabbath-Schools and Bible Classes in all the churches; that they are well sustained, with increasing interest, and with enlarged numbers in attendance. Ten of our Presbyteries make special mention of the Assembly's Catechism, that it is more and more engaging the attention of their churches. "In the church of B.," says one Narrative, and it is the "shanty church" above mentioned, "85 Sabbath-School scholars have committed the whole of the Catechism to memory." Another Presbytery, having under its care 16 churches, reports: "With two or three exceptions, the Assembly's Catechism is taught in all our churches." Another mentions "the thorough recital of the entire Catechism by a child only four years of age." Another remarks: "In this respect, we are returning to the customs of our fathers, who spared no pains to deposit these treasures of Scriptural truth in the minds of the rising generation."

Your Committee quote these instances of devotion to catechetical instruction with great pleasure, and desire to record them as worthy examples to be followed by our whole Church.

We also notice, with gratitude to God, the increasing number of schools and seminaries springing up within our bounds, the result of Christian enterprise, to provide ample facilities for the liberal education of our sons and daughters.

Calvinistic Presbyterianism has ever been identified with a sound and liberal education for ministers and people. Its distinctive principles of faith and order grow best and flourish only in an atmosphere of intelligence; and we rejoice with thanksgiving that this ancient spirit still lives, and the mantles of the fathers have fallen upon the men present.

Several of our Southern Presbyteries report that their colored population are receiving a commendable degree of attention, and your Committee earnestly hope that churches and Christian families in our connection will devote themselves to this work, and set before the world the wholesome example of public and family religious instruction to all their servants, young and old. Here is a point where all our churches involved in the difficulties of slavery can at least mitigate its evils, can testify by their acts of duty their fidelity to God, and their sense of obligation to those under their care, as the stewards of the mysteries of grace.

REVIVALS OF RELIGION.

More than half of the Presbyteries from whom we have received reports have sent us cheering tidings of refreshings from the presence of the Holy Spirit. While upon some congregations have fallen but the gentle dews of grace, others have been moved with great power, resulting in large additions to the Church.

One hundred and twenty-four churches are specified as having enjoyed revivals of religion, while many of the Narratives barely mention this item in such general terms as these: "refreshing showers," "several revivals among us." One of our city Presbyteries reports: "With the exception of one small congregation, all our churches report conversions. In two, the work of reviving Christians and converting sinners to the faith of the Gospel has proceeded with great power; in another, a very precious season has been enjoyed, and the other churches have shared in like evidences of God's gracious presence." A few of the Narratives mention the number of conversions in the various churches; and we have gathered them up to the number of one thousand six hundred and eighty; but so many have given no figures that this presents no proper estimate of the number of the hopeful subjects of grace, which our blessed Master has given us during the past year. We thank Him for His goodness, while we deplore our own lack of faith and devotion, and pray for the speedy coming of the day of his power, when "one shall chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight."

The various causes of benevolence have been well sustained. Two Presbyteries only mention a decrease in their contributions, while many report an increase. This, considering the great financial embarrassments of the year, we regard as highly encouraging, and justly commendatory of the liberality of our churches.

Many churches which have been receiving missionary aid have become, during the year, self-supporting.

Nor has the good work of increasing the salaries of pastors been neglected. Several Presbyteries report also that they (or their Synods) employ a missionary within their bounds to gather new churches, preach to vacant congregations, and promote, in various ways, the important interest of church extension.

There is evidently a growing family feeling among us, an increasing attachment to our own Church among its members, and a growing confidence in each other, on the part of ministers and churches, in the different sections of our wide field. May this confidence continue to grow by the exercise of a warm Christian charity, until "the watchmen shall see eye to eye, and lift up the voice together."

In conclusion, it only remains to record the names of thirty-one beloved brethren, whom, during the ecclesiastical year, the Chief Shepherd has called from among us to join "the general assembly and Church of the first born which are written in heaven."

Fathers and brethren, the time is short. How soon will our names appear in the annual list of the DEATHS OF MINISTERS.

Rev.	James Miller,	of the Presbytery of	Champlain.
"	William Chittenden,	"	Watertown.

II. Correspondence.

I. With the General Association of Massachusetts.

According to appointment, the undersigned attended the meeting of the General Association of Massachusetts, which met in June last at Fall River. He was received with the courtesy and fraternal confidence which has ever marked the action of that venerable Association in its correspondence with the Presbyterian Church. The meeting was well attended, and the usual business was transacted with great harmony and Christian feeling.

In presenting to that body of Christian ministers the friendly greeting of the General Assembly, your Delegate felt it to be his duty to advert to an impression which some had industriously tried to make. It had been given out in a certain quarter, and the desire expressed that it might be known all over New-England, that this branch of the Presbyterian Church had abandoned the ground of coöperative action with their Congregational brethren in the work of Home and Foreign Missions, had gone over to the doctrine of ecclesiastical boards, and were kindling the fire of an intense sectarian or denominational spirit. Your Delegate stated distinctly and positively that such was not the fact. And, in proof of this, he pointed to the action of the last Assembly, in which resolutions, fully and heartily sustaining the Home Missionary enterprise, were adopted, and with great unanimity; and also to the foreign field, where this branch of the Presbyterian Church had for years furnished about one fourth of the missionaries, and about the same proportion of the means, and where, among all the churches which had been formed, there was scarcely one that is Presbyterian, and yet no complaint had been heard from that denomination, and no falling off in zeal and coöperation with New-England in this glorious work of benevolence had anywhere appeared.

Your Delegate stated further, that the object of the movement in his denomination was not separation from their Congregational brethren in coöperative action, but consolidation for the sake of more thorough and efficient effort in that direction; that the real animus of this awakened feeling was to strengthen their hands for this; to put themselves in a good working condition; that, standing as they did midway between an intense ecclesiasticism on the one hand, and a loose independency on the other, they felt that they had a peculiar sphere allotted to them in Providence, and were preparing, like wise men, to fill it—to do the work assigned them; that they had trials peculiar—trials growing out of their position and work, which made it necessary for them to have more internal strength, more cohesiveness, more of those acts and influences which bind them together; but that the great object, underlying all this movement, was to coöperate more effectually with others in the great work of preaching the Gospel to every creature; and that, if there was any place, or any body of men to which they could look for sympathy in such action, that place was Old Massachusetts, and that body of men her venerable Association there assembled. May your Delegate be permittted one expression. Far distant be the day when a divisive or sectarian spirit shall separate this Church from such men of God.

All which is respectfully submitted,

JAMES W. McLANE.

II. With the General Association of New-Hampshire.

In accordance with the appointment of the last General Assembly, I attended the meeting of the General Association of New-Hampshire at Derby, in August last, and received a kindly welcome. The Association is composed of both Congregational and Presbyterian ministers. For the year ending July, 1854, there are reported 187 churches, and 20,309 members, being a gain in membership of 142 over the year previous. From 96 churches no infant baptisms are reported; the remaining churches report 267. The number of ministers acting as pastors is 158; of which 49 are stated supplies. There are 27 vacant churches, and 30 ministers are without charge, of whom 15 are superannuated, 6 are teachers, 4 agents, and two diplomatists; one of these two is under appointment as consul to Beyrout, and it is hoped he will be able to render essential aid to the missionaries in that part of the world.

There has been no general outpouring of the Spirit upon them, though eight churches, and Pembroke Academy, Merrimack Normal Institute, and Dartmouth College, have been graciously visited.

The brethren seem much gratified with the correspondence, and appointed a delegate to attend your meeting.

Respectfully submitted, EDWARD TAYLOR.

V. With the General Evangelical Consociation of Rhode-Island.

The undersigned, according to appointment of the last General Assembly, as Alternate to Rev. Dr. Spear, attended the Annual Meeting of the Congregational churches of Rhode-Island, which held its sessions in the High-Street Church in Providence, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of the second week in June.

This Congregational Consociation embraces all the Congregational ministers of the State, and is comparatively a small body, but composed of energetic and faithful men. The several sessions of the body were characterized with harmony. A large share of the time was spent in devotional exercises. At a suitable opportunity, your Delegate was invited to address the Consociation. He assured them of our fraternal regards and sincere desire to continue the present Christian intercourse. Rev. L. Packard was appointed Delegate to the General Assembly of 1855.

Respectfully submitted, WM. C. WHITE.

V. With the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin.

The undersigned would respectfully report as follows:

I attended the Congregational and Presbyterian Convention which met at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, in October last, pursuant to the appointment of the General Assembly. I found in attendance a full representation of both ministerial and lay Delegates from the Churches of the State, intelligent, harmonious, and zealous for the truth as it is in Jesus, and for the advancement of our common cause in the great West. By this interesting body, ecclesiastical and evangelical, as your Delegate, I was received with cordial good-fellowship. They were glad to welcome your sympathy and encouragement in all their labors and trials, and desired a continuance of your correspondence and fellowship. Such correspondence, I am persuaded, will do them good, will stimulate them to love and good works, will strengthen the bond of union, and deepen the impression that we are all one in Christ. The influence of that body, though somewhat peculiar in its ecclesiastical structure, is happy and healthful to all the interests that we love and cherish; and, while its spirit, for the most part, is bold and progressive, it has a high regard for the order and harmony of God's house. The discussions upon education and the various forms of benevolence, and especially upon the importance of a high standard of piety, to meet the demands of the age, were truly encouraging. The reports upon the State of Religion showed that the churches had been largely favored with refreshings from the presence of the Lord. All the meetings of the Convention were characterized by harmony, and there were evident tokens of the presence of the Holy Spirit. A Delegate was appointed to attend the General Assembly about to meet at St. Louis.

Respectfully submitted, S. D. BURCHARD.

VI. With the Union of Evangelical Churches of France.

The undersigned, appointed by the last General Assembly as a Delegate to the "Union of Evangelical Churches of France," then appointed to meet at Mazamet, Department of Tarn, on the 4th day of August, 1854, begs leave to report:

That, on receiving his commission, and learning that the meeting had been postponed to the first week in September, he immediately made his arrangements, at considerable sacrifice, to be on the spot in season to attend to the duty assigned him. But, on arriving in Paris, he learned, to his great disappointment, that, on account of the cholera then raging with great violence in the south of France, the meeting had been deferred for an indefinite time.

In these circumstances, all he could do was to leave his commission.

with your letter, in the hands of the President of the Synod, accompanied by a written communication, to be laid before that body whenever they should meet, expressing his regret at the untoward circumstances which had prevented the fulfillment of your fraternal purpose, and the deep and cordial interest felt by the Assembly in this band of devoted Christian brethren, struggling for existence amidst the most serious discouragements.

Your Delegate had the pleasure of attending Divine service with one of the congregations belonging to the Union in the city of Paris, and was gratified to observe the simplicity and evident devoutness of their worship. From their venerable President, Rev. Frederic Monod, he was happy to learn that their numbers were increasing, and their zeal and courage unabated. Portions of their field had been recently visited with special manifestations of the Holy Spirit; and, where embarrassments had been suffered, amounting in some cases to persecution, from the interference of the local governments, the churches had borne the trial with commendable firmness. The brethren seemed determined, whatever they might suffer in consequence, to maintain their position, and pursue their noble work, relying on the great Head of the Church.

The President expressed, in behalf of his brethren, his deep regret at the failure of their expected meeting; "for," said he, "we much rejoiced to welcome amongst us a deputy from the Presbyterian Church in the United States. But we could not go against the solemn Providential warnings received." He desired also that their most cordial salutations should be conveyed to the Assembly, and their earnest hope that you would not be discouraged by this failure from appointing Delegates to attend their future meetings.

Your Delegate has the pleasure to transmit to you a copy of the minutes of the Union, at all the meetings which had then been held since their organization, and to request your acceptance of them in their name. From these may be gathered a full exposition of their principles, and the history of their proceedings from the beginning.

Respectfully submitted, JONATHAN F. STEARNS.

III. Annual Reports.

I. EXTRACTS FROM THE THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN PUBLICATION COMMITTEE.

We respectfully beg leave of the Assembly to present a resumé of various particulars, that may, perhaps, more easily and more appropriately be put on permanent record now than at any future time.

I. In its original inception, this enterprise was not a denominational, but a Calvinistic one.

The first official notice that we have of it is found on page 11 of the Minutes of 1846, where it is said that "Overture No. 3," on "Doctrinal Tracts," was reported and referred to a committee of two from each Synod—a circumstance which shows conclusively the importance attached to this subject, alike by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and by the Assembly itself. The origin of this Overture, however, is to be traced to the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention that met at Detroit the year previous. After a thorough discussion of the whole matter by Rev. Dr. Beman, Rev. Dr. Lyman Beecher, and others, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in view of the peculiar wants of the churches which harmonize with this Convention in doctrine and benevolent action for the conversion of the world, it is expedient and proper that measures should be adopted to furnish a full supply of doctrinal and other religious books and tracts.

The reasons assigned for such a step were many and various. Other denominational views, it was said, had begun to encroach on our common Calvinism, not because we had not the arguments to meet them, but because they were active while we were inert. There were, indeed, treatises here and there on the doctrines of Election, Depravity, Perseverance, Infant Baptism, Purity of the Ministry, etc.; but when tracts were wanted to vindicate these important doctrines, suitable for wide circulation among the people, they were not to be found. Simple evangelical tracts were good in their place; they had their mission to perform, and they performed it well; but they were by no means sufficient. On the indispensable necessity for doctrinal tracts and books, as the natural and obvious means of self-defence, there was but one opinion. Truth must be defended, or it must suffer from ignorance on the one hand, or from prejudice and misrepresentation on the other.

II. The publication of doctrinal books and tracts, therefore, did not arise out of any opposition to the American Tract Society, or any kindred institution.

One of the most prominent members of the Detroit Convention was a Secretary of the American Tract Society, who, on being appealed to, as to the bearing of such a plan on that institution, made the following frank and manly statement:

"The publication of doctrinal books and tracts would have no antagonistic position to the American Tract Society. I have always thought that the bodies here represented were hardly true to their own interests in not having books advocating their own peculiar views. We as a Society shall be relieved from embarrassments, occasioned by the claims made upon us for the publication of books prohibited by our Constitution. That ministers should so earnestly discuss this general subject is a matter of sincere gratitude; for we have felt that both Eastern and Western ministers have neglected too much this agency, which might be wielded with such prodigious power. Never shall we regard it as a rivalship either to do this, or to take any portion of the channels that we do not reach. It may relieve us of much hard work."

To prove the point that we have endeavored to establish, we do not need any better testimony. The basis on which that Society stands is simply this: "The circulation of religious tracts calculated to receive the approbation of all evangelical Christians." It is not therefore, nor, from the very nature of the case, can it ever be, a Calvinistic basis. Calvinism, in these United States, must be defended by weapons from another armory, if defended at all. Calvinists, as such, are alone competent to this work, and they cannot transfer their responsibility or their work to others if they would.

III. This enterprise has now become a denominational one, simply from the necessity of the case itself.

To insure the success of the measure proposed by the Western Convention aforesaid, it was resolved:

"1. That a Committee be appointed to correspond with such Congregational bodies at the East as they may select, and confer with the next Constitutional General Assembly, and coöperate with them to mature a plan, and, as far as practicable and expedient, carry the same into effect; and report their doings to the Convention in 1847.

2. That in carrying out the objects of the Convention, in supplying the churches with such doctrinal and other religious books and tracts as are especially needed, we recommend that a Board of Publication should be appointed which will fairly represent the different sections of territory and the two denominations composing this Convention."

The subsequent abandonment of this plan is not by any means to be attributed to any want of excellence in it, or of confidence in the object proposed; but, among other circumstances, to the following: 1. The failure to make the Western Presbyterian and Congregational Convention a permanent body, and substitute it for the General Assembly. 2. The judicious and timely return of our Church from triennial to annual Assemblies. 3. The new relations at this time beginning to spring up between the constituent elements of the Convention. 4. And, perhaps, quite as much as any other cause, their erroneous conviction that the simple imprimatur of the Board would secure the printing of such books as were needed, at a cheap rate, by reputable booksellers, and their circulation among the people, without any further capital; a very grave and great mistake on their part, which was discovered to be such too late to apply any efficient remedy.

The two denominations, thus unable to work together in reference to this object, were obliged either to abandon it altogether, or to prosecute it separately. Of the two alternatives, they chose the latter. The Congregationalists fell back upon the New-England Doctrinal Tract Society, which they resuscitated and liberally endowed. Our own brethren, having nothing of this kind, were compelled to start de novo. For a time, however, the commencement of this enterprise was a matter of no little difficulty. Committees were appointed, made their reports, and were discharged. Smaller committees were substituted for larger ones. Reports were read, discussed, and recommitted. The voice of the people was evident enough, but as yet no plan had been developed which was sufficiently feasible to warrant its adoption. Such was the history of the cause in the Assemblies of 1846, 1849, and 1850—gaining slowly but surely.

But in 1852, at the General Assembly that met in Washington City, it will be remembered that a new epoch occurred in the history of our Church. It was then decided, by a most emphatic and significant vote, to "forget the things that were behind," and to press forward. According to the great plan for church extension then adopted, it was resolved: 1. To provide for the education of our children in view of the gospel ministry. 2. To assist them in the erection of houses of worship. 3. To do as every other Church but ours was doing—provide for them a LIBRARY, where they might obtain such denominational books and tracts as could not and would not be provided elsewhere.

This last department was intrusted, not to an ecclesiastical board, but to a simple committee of the Assembly, whose duties, as assigned them in the act of organization, and the several acts additional, by the Assemblies of 1853 and 1854, are as follows:

I. To promote the diffusion of those truths that distinguish us as a Church.

II. To procure the preparation, and superintend the publication, in cheap, neat, and substantial form, of a series of tracts explanatory of the doctrines, government, and missionary policy of the Presbyterian Church.

III. To issue, as soon as practicable, a few tracts, which shall clearly and distinctly exhibit our peculiar views of doctrine, government, and missionary policy, with a view to answer the calumnies against us, and show our true position in the Church and in the world.

IV. By appeal to the churches, to provide a sufficient fund for their publication on behalf of the Assembly.

V. To provide a literature for the denomination, and take such measures as may secure for it a wide and increasing circulation.

VI. To secure the necessary funds for a House of Publication.

The most important action of the Committee, thus far, has been in reference to the sixth and last item, viz., THE HOUSE.

As early as September 20, 1852, a sub-committee, appointed to ascertain what arrangements could be made for the publication and sale of tracts at various bookstores, were led, as the result of their unsuccessful endeavor to find a publisher, and their subsequent investigations as to this matter, to report as follows:

"Whereas, The history of other denominations leaves us in no doubt whatever as to the course which it is best for our denomination to pursue in order to establish the publication cause upon a permanent basis; therefore

"Resolved, That immediate measures be taken for the creation of a fund, which, when large enough for this purpose, shall be invested in a suitable lot and building."

This resolution having been unanimously adopted by the Committee, with the two-fold object of giving publicity to the matter and of testing the general feeling of the Church in reference to it, the first appeal was made to the Ladies of our denomination. Several hundred dollars at once were forwarded to the Committee, which greatly added to their courage in the enterprise, and to the hope that they were thus led to entertain of its ultimate success.

But, notwithstanding this auspicious commencement, several sources of embarrassment presented themselves, which could be obviated only by a steady patience and the lapse of time. The first was the absence of any common organ of communication in the form of a newspaper, and consequently, the absolute impossibility of gaining access to the minds and hearts of the people through the medium of a mere semi-denominational press. A second embarrassment was the fact, that the Church Erection Fund had fairly and deservedly got the start of us in a plan of systematic application to the churches, which left us only the crumbs that fell from the table. The third, and probably the most influential of all, was the consideration that the voice of the Church had never definitely decided the particular place for the House of Publication.

To obviate this objection, and hold out to the General Assembly of 1854 a substantial inducement to choose the city of Philadelphia for this purpose, several of our most wealthy laymen, in accordance with the advice, and indeed at the most urgent request, of the brethren of our Committee, began to take the matter into consideration. The more they looked at the enterprise the more it grew in favor with them; when suddenly, by one of those remarkable interpositions of Divine Providence, which not unfrequently occur in the history of a good cause, the very property, of all others in the city the best adapted to the purpose, was offered to them. The offer required prompt, and indeed immediate, acceptance; but the indications of Providence were too clear to be resisted, and thus it was that the House, 386 Chestnut street, came to be purchased.

The House, of course, was merely regarded as a means to an end. The objects for which it was designed were mainly three-fold.

1. To secure a permanent centre of operations for the Publication Committee, whose business the Assembly had made it to provide for the CREATION, COLLECTION, and DISTRIBUTION of a sound religious and denominational literature.

2. To assist the cause of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and Education, by providing for them rooms free of expense.

3. And incidentally to furnish accommodations for meetings, for committees, for our Presbyterian Quarterly Review, and such other interests as from time to time might be approved by the Church through their trustees appointed for this purpose. The lot, having a front of 44 feet, a depth of 235 feet, the house itself being 44 feet front, by 62 deep, affords ample accommodations, not only for present ecclesiastical purposes, but for all that may be concentrated there for generations to come.

The cost of the building, including alterations to adapt it to its various purposes, was about $45,000. On the 20th of November, 1854, these alterations having been satisfactorily completed, the PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE was opened with appropriate religious ceremonies. The occasion was one of most hearty thanksgiving and congratulation. Three sentiments in particular seemed to commend themselves to the numerous old and tried friends of the Church then assembled. 1. That the establishment of this House would greatly tend to bring out much latent talent in our Church. 2. That, through the press, it would spread the power of religion, tend to the diffusion of the truth, and promote the UNION of our denomination; and 3. That unless we saw to it that our Church was extended, other and perhaps narrower denominations would gain the ascendency, and our liberal principles would perish. TRUTH, UNION, CHARITY, were our watchwords on that occasion, and we trust they will always continue the same!

BOOKS AND TRACTS.

In accordance with the more full and complete instructions of the Committee by the Assembly of 1854, in adopting a plan of operations for the year, it was unanimously

Resolved, 1st. That the truths which distinguish us as a Presbyterian Church chiefly relate to the following points: Depravity, Atonement, Justification, Election, and Moral Obligation.

2d. That the immediate and special attention of the Committee be given to the preparation, publication, and circulation of a series of original tracts on these subjects, which shall constitute a permanent doctrinal volume.

3d. That, in order to answer calumnies against us, and show our true position, a controversial as well as a doctrinal series be prepared on (1.) Transatlantic Presbyterianism; (2.) American Presbyterianism; (3.) The Exscinding Acts; (4.) The Protest of 1837, containing the errors and true doctrines; (5.) The differences of doctrine, real and alleged, between us and the other branch of the Presbyterian Church; (6.) The doctrine of an unlimited or general atonement as opposed to a limited one.

It is the aim of the Committee to have these tracts, as to scholarship, exact statement, nice discrimination, a thorough and clear statement of our position, and adaptation to strike the public mind with favor, of the highest order. As they will be liable to encounter severe criticism, no pains are considered too great that they may be prepared to sustain it. Two of the first series have been prepared, and one of them is already published. Three of the second series are now ready to undergo the revision of the Committee preparatory to their publication.

II. FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Trustees of the Presbyterian Publication House respectfully report that, agreeably to the recommendation of the last General Assembly, (on page 502 of their Minutes,) they have obtained a special Act of Incorporation under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, a copy of which is annexed to this Report. By the interference and opposition of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication," the Legislature were induced to refuse the name given by the General Assembly. The corporation created by the act is styled "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House." In other respects, the charter is believed to be all that the General Assembly wished.

By the fourth section of the Act of Incorporation, the Trustees and their successors have power to execute any trusts that may be confided to them. This section was submitted to the Committee of three members of the legal profession, appointed by the last General Assembly. They thought it both safe and expedient with respect to all the interests of the Church, and its insertion was accordingly secured as recommended. It will be for the General Assembly to authorize the Trustees to accept the Charter, with the corporate name given them by the Legislature, or to decline it altogether. If accepted, the third section of the act requires the election of Trustees at the present meeting of the Assembly.

Your Trustees are informed that twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) have been pledged by responsible persons connected with the churches in Philadelphia, and that the gentlemen now holding the legal title will convey the property to the corporation so soon as the twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) to be raised out of the city of Philadelphia are realized.

JOHN A. BROWN, Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE.

Whereas, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, which held its sessions in the First Presbyterian Church, on Washington Square, in the city of Philadelphia, in May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, did appoint John A. Brown, Samuel H. Perkins, Charles S. Wurts, Matthew W. Baldwin, and John C. Farr, Trustees of the Presbyterian Publication House, and recommended that the said Board obtain an act of incorporation under the laws of this State, and that the said act should contain a general provision authorizing the said Trustees to hold in trust for said Assembly, any property committed to them by donations, bequests, or otherwise;

And whereas, Several gentlemen in the city of Philadelphia, feeling the necessity of some suitable place for the business of the societies and churches connected with the said Assembly, purchased a property for that purpose, which they are desirous of conveying to the said Trustees;

And whereas, The said Trustees will labor under serious disadvantages as to receiving and holding the title of said property, as well as any that may be committed to them by donations, bequests, or otherwise, in trust for said Assembly; therefore,

§ 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John A. Brown, Samuel H. Perkins, Charles S. Wurts Matthew W. Baldwin, and John C. Farr, citizens of the United States and of this Commonwealth, and their successors, are hereby constituted and declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name of "THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE;" and as such shall have perpetual succession, and be able to sue and be sued, and to purchase and receive, take and hold, to them and their successors for ever, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, goods, money, and chattels, and all kinds of property and estate, which may be devised, or bequeathed, or given to them, or to the said Assembly for them, and the same to sell, alien, demise and convey; also to make a common seal, and the same to alter and renew at their pleasure; and also to make such rules, by-laws, and ordinances, as may be needful for the government of said corporation, and not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States and of this State: Provided always, That the clear yearly income of the real estate held by the said corporation shall not at any time exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

§ 2. That the Trustees above named shall hold their office till the first day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and until their successors are duly qualified to take their places, who shall be chosen by the said Assembly and their successors, who may, at any annual meeting, increase the number of said Trustees to ten, if in their judgment the interest of the churches under their care require it.

§ 3. That the said Assembly and their successors shall, at their annual meeting in each and every year, wherever held, elect at least five Trustees, who shall hold their office for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified, provided that the said corporators shall be citizens of Pennsylvania.

§ 4. That the Trustees hereby incorporated, and their successors, shall, subject to the direction of the said Assembly and their successors, have full power to manage all funds, property and effects committed to their care by gift, purchase, bequest, or otherwise, and to execute any trusts confided to them by the said General Assembly or their successors, in such manner as shall be deemed most advantageous and not contrary to law, or the intention of the donor or testator.

§ 5. That the Act, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Trustees of the Constitutional Presbyterian Publication House," approved the thirteenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, be, and the same is, hereby repealed.

HENRY K. STRONG, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WM. M. HIESTER, Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the twenty-first day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five. JAMES POLLOCK.

IV. Miscellaneous.

I. DELINQUENT CHURCH MEMBERS.

Extract from the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1825, Vol. V. 255–6:

"The Committee appointed on the Overture from the Synod of New-Jersey, inquiring what a Church session ought to do with members in communion who have been absent for years without having taken a certificate of dismission, and whose place of residence is unknown, made a report which, being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.:—

"That although this particular case is not provided for by a specific regulation in our Book of Discipline, yet it is embraced by certain general principles, which are recognized in that book, and interwoven with many of its provisions. These principles, together with the result, bearing on the case in question, the Committee beg leave most respectfully to state.

"1. Every church member is amenable to some appropriate tribunal, by the wisdom and fidelity of which, in case of his falling into any error, immorality, or negligence, he may be dealt with according to the word of God.

"2. No member of a church can properly cease to be such but by death, exclusion, a regular dismission, or an orderly withdrawing to join some other Christian denomination; and must of necessity continue to be amenable to that church until he becomes regularly connected with another.

"3. For a church member to withdraw from a use of his privileges as a member, either by irregularly connecting himself with another denomination, or by going to a distant part of the world to reside for a number of years, without making known his removal to the Church Session, and asking a certificate either of good standing, for the purpose of enjoying occasional communion elsewhere, or of dismission, to join some other church, is itself a censurable violation of the principles of church fellowship, and may infer suspension from its privileges.

"4. Church members, therefore, who have been absent for a number of years in unknown places, are by no means to have their names erased from the churches to which they respectively belong; but are to be held responsible to their respective churches, and, if they should ever return, or be heard from, are to be regularly dealt with, according to the word of God and the principles of our Church: and, although great caution and tenderness ought to be exercised towards those whose withdrawing from Christian privileges may be occasioned by the unavoidable dispensations of Providence, without any material fault of their own, yet in all cases in which a Church Session has good reason to believe, that any of the church under their care have absented themselves with design, either from a disregard of Christian privileges, or from a wish to escape from the inspection and discipline of the church, they ought without unnecessary delay to declare such persons suspended from the privileges of the church until they give evidence of repentance and reformation; and of course, in making their statistical reports, ought to enumerate such among the members under suspension."

II. PRAYER FOR THE ASSEMBLY.

Extract from the Minutes of the General Assembly, in Session at Philadelphia, May 19th, 1821.

"AN overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows:—

"Whereas, the General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas, to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear, to every Christian of our denomination, to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore,

"Resolved, That this Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care to observe the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as A SEASON OF SPECIAL PRAYER to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of his own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong.

"After some discussion, the above overture was adopted."

III. COMMISSIONERS' AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Extract from the Minutes of the General Assembly, in Session at St. Louis, May 26th, 1855.

"Whereas, a full representation, both of ministers and elders, from all the Presbyteries, is essential to the efficiency and welfare of the Church; and whereas this can be secured only by the coöperation of all the Presbyteries in raising an adequate fund to defray the necessary expenses of all the Commissioners to the Assembly; therefore

Resolved, 1. That Messrs. J. W. Benedict and W. P. Cook, together with the Stated Clerk, be a Committee, to estimate the probable amount that will be required to defray the travelling expenses of Commissioners, and the contingent expenses of the Assembly, to assess the same in equitable proportions upon the Presbyteries, and to inform each Presbytery of its quota, as soon as practicable after the rising of this Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That on the fourth day after the opening of the Assembly, the Presbyteries shall be called upon to report whether the amount assessed upon them has been paid into the Treasury of the Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That the Commissioners to the Assembly, whose Presbyteries have paid their assessment, shall, within four days from and after the opening of the Assembly, present a bill of their necessary travelling expenses to the Standing Committee on Mileage, to be audited by them, and paid in equal proportions, according to the funds in the hands of the Committee.

Resolved, 4. That all prior regulations of the Assembly on the subject of mileage inconsistent with these resolutions be, and they are hereby rescinded."

IV. ANNUAL MINUTES.

The price, either with or without postage, of a copy of the Annual Minutes, with the usual Appendix, is forty cents. Every Presbytery that contributes to the funds of the Assembly the amount assessed upon it, will have one copy of the Minutes forwarded by mail, as soon as published, to each of its ministers whose post-office address is given in the Statistical Report. The Minutes will also be sent, free of postage, when ordered, to any address at the above rate. The postage on all orders must be pre-paid.

Agreeably to a resolution of the Assembly, a copy of the Minutes will be sent, post-paid, to each of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries and Synods, for the use of those Bodies respectively.

V. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be prepared and forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod, in which are to be stated the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates and candidates within their bounds, and how distributed; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the place and hour of their next Annual Meeting, and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk.

VI. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly—

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 60 of the present Appendix, of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sunday-schools and Bible-classes organized, the number of scholars in each, &c.; also the decease, if any, of the ministers of the Presbytery during the year. Also, as directed by the General Assembly of 1854, its various arrangements for Church Extension; stating the number of its ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of its churches, and how they are supplied; the gross amount of funds collected in its bounds for Home Missions and church erection; the amount received by its churches from the American Home Missionary Society, or any similar institution; the number of houses of worship, with their probable value, and whether they are free from debt; the number of new churches organized and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the gospel; what and how much agency has been employed; together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the detail of particulars such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church.

VII. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

Attention is requested to the following particulars. Let the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery take special care,

1. That the Commissioners to the Assembly are furnished with a Commission, according to the model prescribed in the Form of Government, chap. XXII., sec. ii.

2. That the Assessment for the Commissioners' and Contingent Funds of the Assembly be, in due season, apportioned annually by the Presbytery, and that the amount be forwarded by the hands of one of the Commissioners, or by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

3. That the Presbyterial Reports specified in the previous article, be duly prepared, authenticated, and forwarded. These Reports should be on separate papers, for the convenience of the Assembly in referring them to distinct Committees.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following rules be observed:

(1.) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, &c., on page 60. ☞

(2.) Record ministers in the order of their ministerial age, with their Christian names in full, and their address in the adjoining column.

(3.) Place the name of every church opposite the name of its pastor or stated supply; or, if vacant, at the foot of the roll.

(4.) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation denoting his occupation; e. g.: P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; P. C. for a Pastor of a Congregational Church; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres. for the President of a College; Prof., for a Professor in a College or Theological Seminary; Sec., for a Secretary of a benevolent institution; D. Sec., for a District Secretary; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; W. C., for a Minister without charge; and Col., for a Colporteur.

(5.) Place after the name of every church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; or V., for one that is vacant.

(6.) If a church fails to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7.) In the additions to the church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8.) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the directions at the foot of the blank form on the next page. ☞

(9.) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column; but of the Candidates the number only is to be given.

(10.) Avoid erasures or interlineations, and make names and numbers distinctly legible.

(12.) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet.

☞ If any thing should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the Meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent, as soon as possible, by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, No. 202 Henry street, New-York.

CLEVELAND, May 21st, 1857.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA met, agreeably to appointment, at the city of CLEVELAND, Ohio, on Thursday, the 21st day of May, A.D. 1857, at 11 o'clock A.M., in the Second Presbyterian Church—the place designated by the Committee of Arrangements—and was opened with a sermon, by the Rev. LAURENS P. HICKOCK, D.D., the Moderator of the last Assembly, from Exodus 17 : 11, 12, 13 : "And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and, when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. But Moses' hands were heavy: and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people, with the edge of the sword."

Immediately after the sermon, the Assembly adjourned until 3 o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

The Stated Clerk also reported that Elder John Dunning had presented an irregular commission from the Presbytery of Rockaway; which was referred to a Committee, consisting of Rev. Horace P. Bogue and Rev. Henry Kendall.

The Committee reported that the name of Mr. Dunning be added to the roll.

The Report was adopted.

The Assembly proceeded to the election of a Moderator.

Whereupon Rev. SAMUEL W. FISHER, D.D., of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, was chosen Moderator, and inducted into office in the usual form.

Rev. GEORGE DUFFIELD, Jr., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, 4th, and Rev. FINCELIUS R. GRAY, of the Presbytery of Harmony, were chosen Temporary Clerks.

The General Rules for Judicatories, contained in the Appendix to the Constitution, were adopted as the Rules of this Assembly.

The printed Minutes of the last Assembly were distributed among its members.

The Docket of Business was presented and read by the Stated Clerk.

Resolved, That the Assembly hold its daily sessions, from 9 o'clock A.M., until 12½ o'clock P.M.; and from 3 o'clock P.M. to 5½ P.M.; and that the first half hour of the morning session be appropriated to devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

Ordered, That the usual number of copies of the roll be printed under the direction of the Stated Clerk.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow, to receive the Synodical Records, the Narratives and the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries, Overtures, Memorials, Appeals, and Complaints.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 22d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Reports were accepted, and ordered to be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day. The Board of Trustees of the Church Erection Fund presented their Annual Report. The Report was accepted, and referred to the Standing Committee on Church Extension.

A Memorial from the Presbyterian Historical Society was presented, and referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Rev. Benjamin J. Wallace, James G. Hamner, D.D., Albert T. Chester, D.D., Robert W. Steele, and Orlando Hastings.

It was made the first order of the day for next Tuesday morning, to hear the Delegates from Corresponding Bodies; to be followed by the reception of written communications from Corresponding Bodies.

It was made the first order of the day, for Monday morning, to hear the Report of the Special Committee, appointed, by a previous Assembly, to prepare a Digest; and also the first order of the day for Wednesday morning, to receive the Report of the Special Committee of the last Assembly, on Psalmody.

The Assembly recommended the observance of the first Monday of January, as a day of fasting and prayer, for the conversion of the world; also, the last Thursday in February, as a day of prayer for Colleges.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported that fifty Presbyteries had taken action upon the overture on the subject of Mileage; 31 answering in the affirmative, and 19 in the negative; and, as a majority of all the Presbyteries had taken no action upon the subject, that the overture was not adopted. The whole subject was again referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 23d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The first half hour was occupied with devotional exercises.

The roll was called, and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioners and Delegates presented their credentials, and their names were entered upon the roll:

Rev. Lorrain Rood,	of the Presbytery of	Fox River.
Rev. William R. Dewitt, D.D.,	"	Harrisburgh.
Rev. Erasmus J. Boyd,	"	Monroe.
Elder Benjamin Van Keuren,	"	North River.
" Hon. Joseph Allison,	"	Phila., 3d.
" Alexander Whilldin,	"	Phila., 4th.
" Ebenezer R. Thompson,	"	Buffalo.

Rev. Nathaniel D. Graves, Delegate from Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day.

The Permanent Committee on Education for the Gospel Ministry presented their Annual Report. The Report was accepted, and referred to the Standing Committee on Education, with instructions to print the Plan and the Resolutions, recommended by the Permanent Committee.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported the following order of services for the celebration of the Lord's Supper, on Thursday evening:

1. The Moderator to preside.
2. Prayer and reading of the Scriptures by the Rev. Alfred Newton.
3. Address and administration of the bread, by the Rev. James G. Hamner, D.D.
4. Prayer and administration of the cup, by the Rev. William R. Dewitt, D.D.
5. Address, by the Rev. William Hogarth.
6. Hymn and benediction, by the Moderator.

Also, that the distribution of the elements be committed to the following Elders: Elisha Taylor, Hon Hiram Griswold, William D. Clark, Samuel H. Perkins, Henry Ivison, and Russell Scarritt.

The Permanent Committee on Church Extension presented their Annual Report, which was accepted, and referred to the Standing Committee on Church Extension.

The Assembly heard Reports and Statements concerning our Theological Seminaries: from the Auburn Theological Seminary, through Rev. Jonathan W. Condit, D.D.; from the Lane Theological Seminary, through Rev. D. Howe Allen, D.D.; from the Marysville Theological Seminary, through Rev. Gideon S. White; and from the Union Theological Seminary, through Rev. James W. McLane, D.D.

The Reports were accepted, and referred to the Standing Committee on Education.

It was made the first order of the day for next Thursday morning, to receive the Reports on Synodical Records.

The Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, reported that they had examined them, with the accompanying vouchers, and found them correct. The Report was adopted.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, made a report on the Mileage and Expenses of the present Assembly: pending its discussion the Assembly adjourned until Monday, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 25th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the calling of the roll was dispensed with for this morning.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Digest presented their report, which was accepted, and referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

It was made the second order of the day for to-morrow morning, to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Education.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the unfinished business, viz., the report of the Committee on the Polity of the Church on the subject of Mileage.

Nominations for Trustees of the Presbyterian House were received, and the election was made the third order of the day for to-morrow morning.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported Overture, No. 1, being a request from the Synod of Peoria for the erection of a new Synod.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted, and that the Presbyteries of Milwaukee, Fox River, and Columbus, now attached to the Synod of Peoria, be erected into a new Synod, to be called "THE SYNOD OF WISCONSIN;" and that they hold their first meeting in Columbus, Wisconsin, on the third Thursday of October, 1857, at 7 o'clock P.M.; the oldest minister present to preach the sermon, and to preside until a Moderator be chosen.

The Report was adopted.

Also, Overture, No. 2, being a request from the Presbytery of San Francisco, for the division of that Presbytery, and the erection of a new Synod.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted: That the Rev. Messrs. Silas S. Harmon, Laurentine Hamilton, Walter Frear, and Edward B. Walsworth, together with the churches of Columbia, Sonora, Placerville, and Marysville, be constituted into a new Presbytery, to be called "THE PRESBYTERY OF SIERRA NEVADA," to hold their first meeting at Sacramento, California, on Tuesday, October 6th, 1857, at 3 o'clock P.M.; and to be opened with a sermon by the oldest minister present, who is to preside until a Moderator be chosen.

That the Rev. Messrs. Samuel B. Bell, James Pierpont, William W. Brier, Eli Corwin, and Albert F. White, together with the churches of Oakland, Alemada, and Eden, be constituted into a new Presbytery, to be called "THE PRESBYTERY OF SAN JOSÉ," to hold their first meeting at Sacramento, California, on Tuesday, October 6th, 1857, at 3 o'clock P.M.; and to be opened with a sermon by the oldest minister present, who is to preside until a Moderator be chosen.

That the Presbyteries of San Francisco, Sierra Nevada, and San José, be erected into a new Synod, to be called "THE SYNOD OF ALTA CALIFORNIA;" to hold their first meeting at Sacramento, California, on Tuesday, October 6th, 1857, at 7½ o'clock P.M.; and to be opened with a sermon by the oldest minister present, who is to preside until a Moderator be chosen.

The report was adopted.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 26th, 9 o'clock A.M.

WEDNESDAY, May 27th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The first half hour was occupied with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported a Memorial on the subject of the Parish Psalmody, which was referred to the Committee on Publication. Also, a Memorial on the Ashmun Institute, which was referred to the Committee on Education.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been given to Elder Jeremiah Carpenter.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, viz., the Report of the Committee on Psalmody, which, with the Memorial of the Committee of Detroit on the same subject, was referred to the Committee on Publication.

The following additional Commissioner presented his credentials, and his name was entered on the roll:

Elder Hon. Thomas T. Flagler, from the Presbytery of Niagara.

The Judicial Committee reported that no business had been brought before them, and made request to be discharged, which was granted.

The Assembly proceeded to hear the Delegate from the General Association of Connecticut, who presented resolutions from said Association, which were referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Assembly resumed the unfinished business of Tuesday morning, viz., the Report of the Committee on Education, which was considered until the hour of adjournment.

Adjourned until 3 o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 27th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Assembly proceeded to the unfinished business of the morning, viz., the Report of the Committee on Education, which was discussed until the hour of adjournment.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 28th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Rev. Andrew W. Black, D.D., presented his credentials as a Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America; his name was entered on the roll, and the Assembly proceeded to hear his statements, and the terms of correspondence proposed by the General Synod; which were referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The same Committee were directed to inquire into the expediency of entering into correspondence with the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The Committee on Church Extension presented a report in reference to the Annual Report of the Board of Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Extension, having examined the Report of the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, recommend the adoption of the following report:

We see, in the statements which are given by the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, abundant evidence that this Fund, according to the present plan of distribution, must prove a means of incalculable good to our missionary churches. We find, thus far, no reason to doubt that the most sanguine hopes of the contributors to this Fund will be fully realized.

In consequence of important changes in the relations of our Synods, since the first apportionment of the Fund was made, it is found expedient to vary the apportionment, at least for the ensuing year, so as to allow

To the Synod of Utica, 2 per cent of the Fund.
" " Geneva, 2 per cent.
" " Genesee, 2 per cent.
" " Onondaga, $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.
" " New-York and New-Jersey, 3 per cent.
" " Indiana, 4 per cent.
" " Wabash, 4 per cent.
" " Peoria, 6 per cent.
" " Wisconsin, 6 per cent.
" " Iowa, 8 per cent.
" " Missouri, 2 per cent.
" " Kentucky, 2 per cent.
" " Alta California, 7 per cent.

To render the security for loans in all cases satisfactory, the Trustees are hereby authorized, to require that the churches on which they take mortgages shall be kept insured, whenever they may deem this precaution necessary.

The following Trustees, whose term of office expires at the present time, are hereby nominated to serve for the term of three years: Rev. Asa D. Smith, D.D., Rev. James W. McLane, D.D., and Norman White.

The report was adopted.

The Assembly, agreeably to previous order, proceeded to hear the reports of the Committees on the Synodical Records; and, on the recommendation of the respective Committees, the Records of the following Synods were approved as far as written: Albany, Utica, Geneva, Onondaga, Susquehanna, New-York and New-Jersey, West-Pennsylvania, Michigan, Ohio, Cincinnati, Peoria, Iowa, Virginia, and Tennessee.

The Records of the Synod of Genesee were also approved, with the following exceptions:

1. Page 76: The Synod made two clerical members of Presbytery a quorum for transacting business.

2. Page 80: On entering upon judicial business, it does not appear that the Moderator enjoined upon the members, to regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ.

3. Page 89: The report of a Committee is not recorded.

The Records of the Synod of Pennsylvania also were approved, with one exception, viz., "that it does not appear from the book, that the Records have ever been approved by the Synod."

The Records of the Synod of Indiana were also approved, with one exception, viz., that, on page 342, the Records of Greencastle Presbytery are reported as approved, with exceptions, while these exceptions are not spread upon the Minutes of the Synod, as required in Form of Government, Chap. VII., Sec. 1, Art. 3.

The Records of the Synod of Illinois were also approved, with four exceptions.

1. They contain no record of approval by the General Assembly since 1854.

2. They do not contain the Narrative on the State of Religion which was presented by the Committee on that subject at the sessions of the Synod in 1854: p. 434.

3. They do not contain the report of the Committee on Religious Exercises, mentioned on page 435.

4. They do not state the ecclesiastical connection of the Rev. Amasa Lord, who was invited to sit as a corresponding member: p. 440.

The Records of the Synod of Kentucky were also approved, with two exceptions, viz.:

1. That the Records have not been before the Assembly since 1854.

2. At a meeting in Midway, October, 1854, it was ascertained, after a sermon, that there was not a quorum. The Record reads, that the Committee, the members present, adjourned, from time to time, until a quorum. Rule 2d reads: "If a quorum be not assembled, any two members may adjourn." This phraseology is preferable to that of a Committee; as Committees are only known as such when constituted officially.

The Records of the Synod of West-Tennessee not being present, the Committee were discharged.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Mississippi made a report, and, pending a motion to postpone the adoption of the report, the Assembly adjourned.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 28th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The unfinished business of the morning, viz., the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Mississippi, was resumed.

After some discussion, the previous question was moved and sustained; and the further consideration of the report on the Records of the Synod of Mississippi was postponed.

The Assembly proceeded to the unfinished business of Wednesday, viz., the report of the Committee on Education, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Permanent Committee on Education for the Ministry, respectfully report, recommending the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. The General Assembly recognizes, with gratitude to God, the organization of the Permanent Committee on Education for the Ministry, and the appointment of a General Secretary, Rev. Thornton A. Mills, D.D., who has entered on the duties of his office; also, the fact that the Report of the Committtee presents and enforces the foundation principles of this work, especially in its relation to Churches and Presbyteries.

Resolved, 2. The Assembly, deeply impressed with the importance of a plan of action, which shall develop the resources of the whole Church, and bring each section of the Church to the work of training its own ministry, adopts the arrangement recommended in the Report of the Permanent Committee, with some additions and alterations, in the following form:

1. It is the duty of the Church, in obedience to the Saviour's last command to preach the Gospel to every creature, to give constant and becoming attention to the increase of the Ministry.

2. The Presbyterian Church, in its Congregations, Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods, and General Assembly, possesses a superior system of means for conducting this work in a most successful manner.

3. It is particularly desirable, that each Presbytery should make the subject of the Ministry a topic of serious consideration in its stated meetings, at least once every year; and adopt arrangements, to have presented to the churches, through their own ministers as far as possible, the wants of our Church, our country, and the world, in this respect; to press on young men their duty to give themselves to this work; on parents their obligation to dedicate their children to it, and train them for it; and on individual churches their privilege and duty, to see that all their sons, who give promise of suitable qualifications for the ministry, are sought out and encouraged to enter it; to make adequate provision for the education of all such, as are in circumstances to need their aid, and who show by their characters and improvement that they are worthy of it; and to see that in each church an annual collection is made in behalf of this cause.

4. It is important, that the claims of the Christian ministry on pious young men, in a course of education, should be publicly presented once every year in all the Colleges within our bounds; and it is recommended that the General Secretary, in connection with the officers in these institutions, secure the performance of this service.

5. While the General Assembly does not design to interfere with the action of separate Churches and Presbyteries, or the combined action of a number of them in their synodical capacity, it decidedly recommends its Permanent Committee as the bond of union and medium of coöperation in this work; and it is hereby urged upon each Presbytery and Synod, whether coöperating or not with that Committee, to forward, through its Stated Clerk, to said Permanent Committee, at some time in the month of April in each year, a full report of its doings, in reply to such questions as may be proposed to it; and the information so given shall be embodied in the Annual Report of the Committee to the General Assembly.

6. Each Presbytery, designing to coöperate with the Permanent Committee, shall appoint annually a Standing Committee on Education for the Ministry, whose duty it shall be, to examine and recommend, in the vacation of the Presbytery, such young men as require assistance from the funds at the disposal of the Permanent Committee; and to exercise over them such pastoral supervision as may be possible, while they are prosecuting their studies. And all such Committees are hereby enjoined, to give strict attention to the rules prescribed by the Permanent Committee, in any recommendation which they may make, so as to avert dishonor from this enterprise of the Church, and avoid the waste and misapplication of its funds.

7. Every Presbytery, coöperating with the Permanent Committee by presenting the subject to its churches annually, and taking collections to be paid to the general treasury, shall be entitled, as far as the means placed at the disposal of that Committee will allow, to receive aid for all candidates for the ministry under its care, however much the appropriations to them may exceed the contributions of such Presbytery.

8. It is recommended to all the churches so to arrange their contributions to benevolent operations, that the uniform time for that in behalf of Education for the ministry shall be the Sabbath preceding, or succeeding, the last Thursday in February of each year, the day of the Annual Concert of Prayer for Colleges.

9. As it is desirable that this cause should assume a prominent and permanent place in the contributions of the churches, it is recommended, to those whom providence has favored with means, to endow temporary scholarships, by the contribution of the requisite sum each year to assist a student through his theological course; or the contribution of such a sum each year to assist one through his literary and theological course; or by the establishment of permanent scholarships by donations or legacies, under the management of the Permanent Committee; and, to afford facility and security in doing this, the Permanent Committtee are hereby directed, to apply to the Legislature of the State of New-York for a suitable act of incorporation. And, until such act is obtained, individuals designing permanent gifts or legacies, are requested to place them in the legal charge of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House in Philadelphia, for the use of the Permanent Committee on Education for the Ministry.

10. The General Assembly would not claim any authority over the institutions where our ministry are educated; but it is hereby requested of the Faculties of the Union and Auburn Theological Seminaries in New-York, of Lane Seminary near Cincinnati, and Maryville Seminary in Tennessee, and of any other similar institutions hereafter established, to furnish the General Assembly each year, through its Permanent Committee on Education for the Ministry, with a written statement of their condition, advantages, and prospects, the names of their Professors, the ordinary yearly expenses, and any other matters of general interest to the Church, to be read to the Assembly, and published as an appendix to the Annual Report of the said Committee; and the General Secretary is hereby charged, with the duty of presenting this request annually to said Faculties, in time to receive their written reports before the meeting of the General Assembly.

Resolved, 3. This General Assembly approves the rules, adopted by the Permanent Committee, for aiding young men in their preparatory studies for the ministry, with some alterations, as fitted to prevent the introduction of incompetent and unworthy men to this office, and at the same time to afford suitable encouragement to those whose piety and talents give promise of usefulness. When any alterations are made in these Rules the Permanent Committee are requested to report the same to the General Assembly.

Plan for aiding Beneficiaries.

1. Each applicant for assistance shall present a certificate of recommendation from a Presbytery, (or its Standing Committee on Education,) stating, that he has been in the communion of the church at least one year, and that he has been carefully examined as to his experimental piety, his motives for desiring the sacred office, his attachment to the doctrines of the Presbyterian Church, his general habits, his prudence, his talents, his studies, his gifts for public speaking, his need of assistance, his disposition to do all in his power to sustain himself, and his willingness to observe the rules of the Committee. Such certificate must also state, whether the candidate is in his Academic, Collegiate, or Theological course, and the amount requisite to carry him through the first year.

2. While it is highly desirable, that all who receive assistance should be under the supervision of the Presbyteries to which they would naturally belong, and should be recommended by them, yet if, owing to the present position of the Education cause, or other important reasons, a Presbyterial certificate cannot be obtained, it may, at the option of the Permanent Committee, be substituted by a certificate of the same import, from any Examining Committee, appointed by them for such purposes, at any educational institution where the student is pursuing his course.

3. The amount granted to any applicant shall not, unless in very peculiar circumstances, exceed one hundred dollars for the Academic, one hundred and twenty dollars for the Collegiate, and one hundred and forty for the Theological course per annum, to be paid in quarterly installments upon the return of schedules to be filled up by the student, and his instructors, and the approbation of the same by the Permanent Committee.

4. Each applicant shall give a receipt or acknowledgment to the Treasurer, for the amount which from time to time he may receive, promising to repay the same with interest, if he fail to enter upon the work of the ministry within a reasonable time, or turn aside to any secular pursuit; unless the Presbytery to which he belongs shall certify, that there are good reasons for his relinquishing the active duties of the office, and recommend the canceling of the obligation.

5. Individuals receiving aid shall be under the pastoral supervision of the Presbyteries recommending them, and also of the General Secretary of the Permanent Committee; and will be expected to undergo renewed examinations on passing from one grade of their general course to another.

6. No payment shall be made in advance.

7. As the appropriations of the Committee are made on the principle of helping those who help themselves, and are insufficient for the entire support of a student, it is expected, that the student and his friends will make all proper exertions to assist in defraying the expenses of his education.

8. Each student aided is required, to pursue a thorough course of study preparatory to a three years' course of Theological studies, unless the Permanent Committee, and the Presbytery under whose care he is, in the exercise of a wise discretion, shall decide that his circumstances require that his studies shall be abbreviated.

9. When any student shall find it necessary to relinquish study for a time, to teach, or otherwise increase his means of support, he shall first obtain the consent of the Permanent Committee; and, if he shall not be absent from study more than three months, his appropriations will be continued; but if longer, they will be discontinued, or continued in part, according to circumstances.

10. When a student has ceased, for a period longer than a year, to receive assistance from the Committee, he shall be required to produce new testimonials before his name can be restored to the roll.

11. When the official relation between a student and the Committee ceases, or is about to cease, he is required to notify the General Secretary of the fact, stating the reason.

12. The reception of an appropriation, by a student, shall be considered as expressing a promise, to comply with all the rules and regulations of the Committee.

13. If at any time there be discovered in any student such defect in capacity, diligence, prudence, and especially in piety, as would render his introduction into the ministry a doubtful measure, it shall be considered the sacred duty of the Committee to withdraw their appropriations. Students shall also cease to receive assistance, when their health shall become such as to unfit them for study, and for the work of the ministry; when they are manifestly improvident, and contract debts without reasonable prospects of payment; when they marry; when they receive the assistance of any other Educational Committee; when they fail to make the regular returns; or cease, by change of circumstances, to need aid.

14. As all intellectual acquisitions are comparatively of little value without the cultivation of piety, it is expected and required of every candidate, to pay special attention to the practical duties of religion; such as reading the Scriptures, secret prayer and meditation; to attend upon religious meetings on the Sabbath, and during the week; to endeavor to promote the salvation of others; and to exhibit at all times a pious and consistent example.

Resolved, 4. While the Assembly feels the importance of a thorough organization of the Church, for the accomplishment of the work of Ministerial Education, it is at the same time deeply convinced that success will not attend the enterprise, unless the earnest efforts of its friends are united with prayer to God, that, by the abundant outpouring of the Spirit, the life of the Church may be made more vigorous, and large numbers of the youth of our land be converted to Christ.

Resolved, 5. The General Assembly recommends the observance of the last Thursday in February as a day of prayer for the blessing of God on our various institutions of learning.

Resolved, 6. That the election to fill the vacancies in the Permanent Committee be the first order of the day for Friday morning, and that the election be by ballot.

Resolved, 7. That the Report of the Permanent Committee be published under their direction, and circulated through all the churches.

The same Committee reported the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the memorial of the Presbytery of Iowa City, on the subject of Christian Education, asking the General Assembly, through its Permanent Committee on Education for the Ministry, to aid in erecting Academies and Collegiate Institutions, be referred to that Committee, with instructions to consider and extend aid at their discretion during the year; and to report to the next General Assembly.

The same Committee also reported the following preamble and resolution, viz.:

Communications have been laid before the Standing Committee on Education, in relation to Ashmun Institute, in Pennsylvania, asking an expression of opinion by this Assembly in favor of its design. It is a seminary for the education of colored young men. It embraces a classical and theological training, especially fitting those trained to labor in Africa.

Testimonials are furnished, in reference to the excellent character of the Principal, and the success attending the first quarter of instruction. It is the judgment of the Committee, that the object is good, and this Assembly may express an opinion favorable to the general object.

They recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That this General Assembly regard with favor the Ashmun Institute, recently established in Pennsylvania, which is designed to give a thorough classical and theological education to colored young men of piety, and thus fit them, as teachers and preachers of the Gospel, to promote the highest good of the African race.

The resolution was adopted.

The same Committee also reported the following minute in reference to Theological Seminaries.

The General Assembly has heard with interest the reports from the Auburn, Lane, and Union Theological Seminaries, and from the Literary and Theological Seminary at Maryville, Tenn. It appears that these Institutions are enjoying a good degree of prosperity. Considerable progress has been made in improving their external condition; Seminary buildings have been renovated and refurnished; liberal subscriptions have been made towards the endowment of professorships, as well as the establishment 'of scholarships for the aid of needy students. The faculties of these institutions are completely organized with able and devoted Professors; a good degree of the missionary spirit prevails among the students; a kind and liberal sentiment is manifest towards these Institutions in their several vicinities; and the Assembly has reason to believe, that the further necessities of these Seminaries will be as liberally regarded by the whole Church, as their claim is just and imperative.

The Assembly would record with deep regret the decease of the Rev. Isaac Anderson, D.D., late President of the Institution at Maryville.

The minute was adopted.

A series of resolutions in reference to the inadequate support of the Gospel ministry, were read and placed on the docket.

The Assembly proceeded to the unfinished business of yesterday, viz., the report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on Slavery.

Pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 28th, 7½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, agreeably to previous arrangements, in the Second Presbyterian Church, for the celebration of the Lord's Supper; and, in union with a large number of Christians, who accepted the invitation to participate with them, united in the celebration of this ordinance.

FRIDAY, May 29th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of the last two sessions were read and approved.

The Special Committee on the terms of correspondence with other bodies made a report, which was accepted, and placed upon the docket. The Rev. Henry Kendall presented a minority report, which was also put on the docket.

The Committee on Mileage announced sufficient funds in their hands for all accounts that had thus far been presented by the Commissioners, which were ordered paid.

Rev. Conway P. Wing, the Delegate to the Reformed Presbyterian Church, made a report, which was accepted, and ordered to be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, to whom was referred the terms of correspondence with the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, shall each appoint a minister with an alternate, to sit in the highest judicatories respectively, with the privilege of deliberating on all subjects coming before them, and of making suggestions on matters affecting the interests of both bodies mutually, or pertaining to the several interests of religion, but not of voting.

The ministers, members, and judicatories of these churches, treating each other with Christian respect, shall always recognize the validity of each other's acts and ordinances consonant to the word of God; it being understood, that any ecclesiastical judicatory belonging to either body may examine persons, or review cases of discipline, on points at present peculiar or distinctive to themselves respectively.

The same Committee also recommended that a correspondence on the same terms be opened with the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in the United States, and that a delegate and alternate be appointed to attend their next meeting.

Their report was adopted.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave to Elders John L. Knight, of the Presbytery of Fort Wayne, and Alexander Whilldin, of the Fourth Presbytery of Philadelphia.

The Assembly proceeded to the first order of the day, viz., the election of five members of the Permanent Committee on Education, when, after nominations had been made, the following persons were chosen by ballot: Rev. John J. Owen, D.D., Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D., Rev. William Hogarth, Hon. William Jessup, LL.D., and Jesse W. Benedict.

The second order of the day, viz., the election of three Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, was then taken up, and Rev. Asa D.

Smith, D.D., Rev. James W. McLane, D.D., and Norman White, were elected by ballot.

The Assembly resumed the unfinished business of yesterday afternoon, viz., the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Slavery, which was discussed until the hour of adjournment.

Adjourned until 3 o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 29th, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

The unfinished business of the morning, viz., the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Slavery, was resumed, and continued until near the time of adjournment.

Resolved, That, when the Assembly adjourn, they adjourn to meet this evening at 7½ o'clock.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported Overture No. 3, being a request from the church of Niles, attached to the Presbytery of St. Joseph, and another from the Presbytery of Kalamazoo, for a transfer of churches.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted; that the State line be henceforward the boundary line between the Synods of Michigan and Wabash; and that, in accordance with this arrangement, the Rev. Alfred Bryant and the Rev. Elisha B. Sherwood, together with the churches of Niles, Edwardsburgh, Cassopolis, and Buchanan, be, and they hereby are, transferred from the Presbytery of St. Joseph to the Presbytery of Kalamazoo; and that the Rev. William Fuller, together with the churches of White Pigeon and Sturgis, be, and they hereby are, transferred from the Presbytery of St. Joseph to the Presbytery of Coldwater.

The Report was adopted.

The Committee to nominate a preacher on Home Missions for the next year recommended the Rev. Jacob Little, D.D., of the Presbytery of Pataskala, Principal; and the Rev. Henry A. Nelson, of the Presbytery of St. Louis, Alternate.

The Report was adopted.

The Committee on the Memorial from the Presbyterian Historical Society made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Memorial from the Presbyterian Historical Society respectfully report:

That the Society is composed of members of the following branches of the Presbyterian Church, viz.: Those represented by the two General Assemblies; the Associate Church; the Associate Reformed Church, and the two branches of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The Society at its last annual meeting agreed to memorialize the two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church, on the subject of commemorating, in some appropriate manner, the Reünion of the Synods of New-York and Philadelphia, which occurred in 1758. "Next year," the Memorial observes, "would furnish a Centennial Celebration, whose good influence might be felt far and wide."

The reasons assigned for this Union Celebration in the Memorial are, 1, That it would be a means of historical knowledge. 2, That it would be the expression of gratitude to God for the good resulting from the Union. 3, That "special moral lessons are suggested by the circumstances that led to the division of 1741, and the reünion of 1758;" and, finally, that it would afford an opportunity for cultivating a spirit of fraternal union.

It is proper to observe that the proposition for this Union Celebration came entirely from our brethren of the other branch of our Church, though cordially met, in the same spirit in which the proposition was made, by those members of our Church who belong to the Society. In view of which case the Committee recommend the following action, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly are pleased to see, that the ministry and members of the churches under their care are cultivating a spirit of fraternal kindness towards the other branches of the Presbyterian Church.

2. That a Centennial Celebration of so signal an event in the history of our Church, as its happy reünion after seventeen years of separation, commends itself to us as interesting and useful.

3. That a Committee of five be appointed to make such arrangements in connection with the Executive Committee of the Presbyterian Historical Society, for this commemoration, as may be appropriate, in case that the Assembly of the other branch of the Presbyterian Church take similar action.

The Moderator announced the Committee to be, Rev. Benj. J. Wallace, Rev. Thomas Brainard, D.D., Rev. George Duffield, Jr., Henry J. Williams, and Samuel J. Perkins.

Adjourned until 7¾ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 29th, 7¾ o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, according to adjournment, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The unfinished business of the afternoon, viz., the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Slavery, was resumed and discussed until the hour of adjournment.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at nine o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 30th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported, that leave had been given to Rev. Jonathan B. Condit, D.D., Rev. William Hogarth, Rev. Hiram Gregg, Harmon Woodruff, Henry H. Coolege, Isaac M. Robinson, and Rev. Charles Hutchinson.

TUESDAY, June 2d, 8½ o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been given to Rev. Thomas H. Tatlow and Elders John W. Cleland, Robert M. Todd, and Philip Baker.

The Standing Committee on Publication presented a report, which was accepted, and placed upon the docket.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church presented the following report:

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, to whom was referred the consideration of a permanent system of Mileage, present the following report:

The Constitution affirms that, "in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent."

The following recommendations are therefore submitted:

That each Presbytery be earnestly requested to contribute annually their full proportion towards the expenses of our General Assemblies.

That this proportion be determined by the number of communicants connected with the Presbytery.

That the rate, per capita, for the next Assembly, be five (5) cents for each communicant.

That each Presbytery be at liberty to apportion their quota among their churches as they shall deem best.

That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, estimate and report the probable amount that will be needed to defray the necessary traveling expenses of the Commissioners, and the contingent expenses of the next succeeding Assembly, together with the rate that will be adequate.

That, on or before the fourth day of the sessions of each Assembly, the amount thus contributed be paid to the Committee on Mileage, and a bill be presented by each Commissioner, of his necessary traveling expenses and mileage.

That these bills, having been duly audited by the Mileage Committee, be paid as fully as the funds will permit, after appropriating an amount sufficient to defray the contingent expenses of the Assembly.

That each minister and vacant church connected with those Presbyteries who have contributed their full quota to this fund, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes.

That, in order to avail themselves of the privileges of this plan, the Presbyteries must contribute and forward to the Assembly their full proportion of this fund as thus determined.

The report was adopted.

The Assembly resumed, and continued until the hour of adjournment, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Slavery.

Adjourned until 3 o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, June 2d, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, to whom was referred the report of the Committee on the Digest, recommended that the course pursued by the Special Committee in the preparation of the Digest thus far, be approved by the Assembly.

That they be instructed to complete the work, according to the plan heretofore followed, and to use their discretion in relation to the questions proposed in their report.

That, when completed, it be submitted to the Permanent Publication Committee, and, if approved by them, be published under their direction.

The report was adopted.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, to whom was referred the question, "Whether any three ministers of a Presbytery are a quorum to transact business?" reported an answer.

The report was accepted, and placed upon the Docket.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the unfinished business of the morning, viz., the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Slavery. Its further consideration was postponed, and a substitute was introduced.

Pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned until 7½ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, June 2d, 7½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the substitute to the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the subject of Slavery.

On the motion to postpone, the previous question was ordered, and the further consideration of the substitute was postponed.

Another paper upon the same subject was then introduced, and, pending its discussion, the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow at 8½ o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, June 3d, 8½ o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The traveling expenses of the Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, (to Massachusetts, New-Hampshire, Maine, Vermont, New-York, Wisconsin, German Reformed Church, Reformed Presbyterian Church and Lutheran Church,) and of the last Moderator; the bills for printing and stationery; the Janitor's bill; with the salary and traveling expenses of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, were ordered to be paid.

Resolved, That the Minutes of this Assembly, with the usual Appendix, be printed under the direction of the Stated Clerk.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the paper upon the subject of Slavery, introduced last evening.

After amendment, the paper was adopted, and is as follows:

The General Assembly, in view of the memorials before them and of the present relations of the Church to the subject of Slavery, feel called upon to make the following exposition of principle and duty.

The Presbyterian Church in these United States has, from the beginning, maintained an attitude of decided opposition to the institution of Slavery.

The Synod of New-York and Philadelphia, in 1787, two years before the organization of the General Assembly, declared that they did "highly approve of the general principles in favor of universal liberty that prevail in America, and the interest which many of the States have taken in promoting the abolition of Slavery;" and did "recommend it to all their people, to use the most prudent measures, consistent with the interest and state of civil society in the parts where they live, to procure eventually the final abolition of Slavery in America."

In 1793, while the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church was in process of formation and publication, the action of the Synod, just referred to, was approved by the General Assembly and republished by its order.

The Assembly of 1815 declared, "that, although in some sections of our country, under certain circumstances, the transfer of slaves may be unavoidable, yet they consider the buying and selling of slaves by way of traffic, and all undue severity in the management of them, as inconsistent with the spirit of the Gospel. And they recommend it to the Presbyteries and Sessions under their care, to make use of all prudent measures to prevent such shameful and unrighteous conduct."

The Assembly of 1815 "expressed their regret, that the Slavery of the Africans and of their descendants still continues in so many places, and even among those within the pale of the Church;" and called particular attention to the action of 1795, with respect to the buying and selling of slaves.

In 1818, the Assembly unanimously adopted a report on this subject, prepared by Dr. Green of Philadelphia, Dr. Baxter of Virginia, and Mr. Burgess of Ohio, of which the following is a part.

"We consider the voluntary enslaving of one part of the human race by another as a gross violation of the most precious and sacred rights of human nature; as utterly inconsistent with the law of God, which requires us to love our neighbor as ourselves, and as totally irreconcilable with the spirit and principles of the Gospel of Christ, which enjoin, that 'all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.' Slavery creates a paradox in the moral system; it exhibits rational, accountable, and immortal beings in such circumstances as scarcely to leave them the power of moral action. It exhibits them as dependent on the will of others, whether they shall receive religious instruction; whether they shall know and worship the true God; whether they shall enjoy the ordinances of the Gospel; whether they shall perform the duties and cherish the endearments of husbands and wives, parents and children, neighbors and friends; whether they shall preserve their chastity and purity, or regard the dictates of justice and humanity. Such are some of the consequences of Slavery—consequences not imaginary, but which connect themselves with its very existence. The evils to which the slave is always exposed often take place in fact, and in their very worst degree and form; and where all of them do not take place, as we rejoice to say that in many instances, through the influence of the principles of humanity and religion on the minds of masters, they do not—still the slave is deprived of his natural right, degraded as a human being, and exposed to the danger of passing into the hands of a master, who may inflict upon him all the hardships and injuries which inhumanity and avarice may suggest.

"From this view of the consequences resulting from the practice, into which Christian people have most inconsistently fallen, of enslaving a portion of their brethren of mankind—for God hath made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the earth—it is manifestly the duty of all Christians who enjoy the light of the present day, when the inconsistency of Slavery, both with the dictates of humanity and religion, has been demonstrated and is generally seen and acknowledged, to use their honest, earnest, and unwearied endeavors to correct the errors of former times, and as speedily as possible to efface this blot on our holy religion, and to obtain the complete abolition of Slavery throughout Christendom, and if possible throughout the world."

The Assembly also recommended "to all the members of our religious denomination, not only to permit but to facilitate and encourage the instruction of their slaves in the principles and duties of the Christian religion;" and added: "We enjoin it on all Church Sessions and Presbyteries, under the care of this Assembly, to discountenance, and, as far as possible, to prevent, all cruelty of whatever kind in the treatment of slaves; especially the cruelty of separating husband and wife, parents and children, and that which consists in selling slaves, to those who will either themselves deprive these unhappy people of the blessings of the Gospel, or who will transport them to places where the Gospel is not proclaimed, or where it is forbidden to slaves to attend upon its institutions."

The foregoing testimonials, on the subject of Slavery, were universally acquiesced in by the Presbyterian Church up to the time of the division in 1838.

In the year 1846, the General Assembly made a declaration on this subject, of which the following is the introductory paragraph:

"1. The system of Slavery, as it exists in these United States, viewed either in the laws of the several States which sanction it, or in its actual operation and results in society, is intrinsically an unrighteous and oppressive system, and is opposed to the prescriptions of the law of God, to the spirit and precepts of the Gospel, and to the best interests of humanity."

In 1849 the Assembly explicitly reäffirmed the sentiments expressed by the Assemblies of 1815, 1818, and 1846. In the year 1850 the General Assembly made the following declaration: "We exceedingly deplore the working of the whole system of Slavery as it exists in our country, and is interwoven with the political institutions of the slaveholding States, as fraught with many and great evils to the civil, political, and moral interests of those regions where it exists.

"The holding of our fellow-men in the condition of Slavery except in those cases where it is unavoidable, by the laws of the State, the obligations of guardianship, or the demands of humanity, is an offence in the proper import of that term, as used in the Book of Discipline, Chap. 1, sec. 3, and should be regarded and treated in the same manner as other offences."

Occupying the position in relation to this subject, which the framers of our Constitution held at the first, and which our Church has always held, it is with deep grief that we now discover, that a portion of the Church at the South has so far departed from the established doctrine of the Church in relation to Slavery, as to maintain that "it is an ordinance of God," and that the system of Slavery existing in these United States is Scriptural and right. Against this new doctrine we feel constrained to bear our solemn testimony. It is at war with the whole spirit and tenor of the Gospel of love and good will, as well as abhorrent to the conscience of the Christian world. We can have no sympathy or fellowship with it; and we exhort all our people to eschew it as serious and pernicious error.

We are especially pained by the fact, that the Presbytery of Lexington, South, have given official notice to us, that a number of ministers and ruling elders, as well as many church members, in their connection, hold slaves "from principle" and "of choice," "believing it to be according to the Bible right," and have, without any qualifying explanation, assumed the responsibility of sustaining such ministers, elders, and church members, in their position. We deem it our duty, in the exercise of our constitutional authority "to bear testimony against error in doctrine, or immorality in practice, in any Church, Presbytery, or Synod," to disapprove and earnestly condemn the position, which has been thus assumed by the Presbytery of Lexington, South, as one which is opposed to the established convictions of the Presbyterian Church, and must operate to mar its peace and seriously hinder its prosperity, as well as bring reproach on our holy religion; and we do hereby call on that Presbytery to review and rectify their position. Such doctrines and practice cannot be permanently tolerated in the Presbyterian Church. May they speedily melt away under the illuminating and mellowing influence of the Gospel and grace of God our Saviour.

We do not, indeed, pronounce a sentence of indiscriminate condemnation upon all our brethren who are unfortunately connected with the system of Slavery. We tenderly sympathize with all those who deplore the evil, and are honestly doing all in their power for the present well-being of their slaves, and for their complete emancipation. We would aid and not embarrass such brethren. And yet, in the language of the General Assembly of 1818, we would "earnestly warn them against unduly extending the plea of necessity; against making it a cover for the love and practice of Slavery, or a pretence for not using efforts that are lawful and practicable to extinguish this evil."

In conclusion, the Assembly call the attention of the Publication Committee to this subject, and recommend the publication, in a convenient form, of the testimony of the Presbyterian Church touching this subject, at the earliest practicable period.

The vote upon its adoption was by Yeas and Nays, and was as follows:

A resolution upon the same subject was introduced. After discussion, its further consideration was, for the present, postponed.

Rev. James G. Hamner, D.D., presented, for himself and others, a Protest, which, having been read, was ordered to be placed upon the Minutes, and is as follows:

We, the undersigned Southern Ministers and Ruling Elders, protest against the present decision of the General Assembly.

We protest—Because, while past General Assemblies have asserted, that the system of Slavery is wrong, they have heretofore affirmed, that the slaveholder was so controlled by State laws, obligations of guardianship, and humanity, that he was, as thus situated, without censure or odium as the master. This averment in the testimony of past Assemblies has so far satisfied the South, as to make it unnecessary to do more than protest against the mere anti-slavery part of such testimony.

We protest then, now, That the present act of the Assembly is such an assertion of the sin of Slavery, as degrades the whole Southern Church—an assertion without authority from the word of God, or the organic law of the Presbyterian body.

We protest, that such action is, under present conditions, the virtual excinding of the South, whatever be the motives of those who vote the deed.

We protest, that such indirect excision is unrighteous, oppressive, uncalled for—the exercise of usurped power—destructive of the unity of our branch of the Church—hurtful to the North and the South—and adding to the peril of the union of these United States.

Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, June 3d, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported, that leave had been given to Rev. Messrs. Robert M. Morrison, Asher Wright, J. H. Trowbridge, W. W. Taylor, C. C. Carr, B. Foster Pratt, H. N. Bissell, S. R. Dimock, A. D. Chapman, J. B. Logan, M. Huggins, M. C. Searle, C. Machin, S. L. Merrell, Joseph Gordon, F. S. Howe, G. D. Young, C. M. Atkinson, E. O. Ward, S. S. Goodman, and George Painter; with the Elders, W. R. Shepherd, Simeon Gilbert, William Stewart, Plyna Cobb, B. Stevens, William P. Cutler, R. D. Jones, R. P. Rhea, M. Brigham, Patrick Nicholson, George Robertson, John N. Adams, J. F. Smith, J. H. Plumb, E. R. Thompson, J. S. Skidmore, E. Daggy, W. D. Clark, A. Thompson, Aborn T. Bigelow, M.D., and A. A. Guthrie.

The Mileage Committee presented their report, as follows:

The Committee on Mileage respectfully report:

That eighty-three (83) Presbyteries have contributed to the funds of the Assembly, at its present session, the sum of $3363.23.

That twenty-eight (28) Presbyteries have made no contribution, namely: the Presbyteries of Troy, Columbia, Oswego, Cortland, Otsego, Chenango, Angelica, Montrose, San Francisco, Saginaw,* Grand River, Portage, Elyria, Franklin, Hamilton, Crawfordsville, Logansport, Fort Wayne, Schuyler, Providence, Green River, Union, West-Tennessee, Shiloh, Richland, Clinton, Lexington, South, and Texas, ($134.75.)

That forty of the Presbyteries, having contributed to the funds of the Assembly, have presented accounts for their traveling expenses, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $2294.33, all of which have been paid.

That four Presbyteries which have contributed to the funds, and are included in the 83 Presbyteries above mentioned, are delinquent in paying the amount assessed to them under the rule of the Assembly for their proportion of the Contingent Fund, namely: Ithaca, $2.20; Genesee, $2.35; Winchester, $1.60, and New-River, 90c.

The whole amount paid in is, ...	$3,363 23
The whole amount paid Commissioners, . . .	2,294 53
	$1,068 70

Leaving, subject to the order of the Assembly, in the hands of the Mileage Committee, one thousand and sixty-eight dollars and seventy cents.

Schedule A, herewith reported, exhibits the amount of the Contingent Fund assessed to each Presbytery, the amount paid by each, and the amount paid to the Commissioners of each.

* Though nothing has been paid by the Saginaw Presbytery, nothing is in fact due, its members having been reckoned in and assessed as of the Detroit Presbytery.

Schedule B, herewith reported, exhibits the amounts receipted by each Commissioner to whom payments were made.

The report was adopted, and the balance in their hands was ordered to be paid to the Stated Clerk for the Contingent Funds of the Assembly.

The Assembly took from the docket the report of the Committee on the terms of correspondence with other bodies, and, after discussion, the minority report was adopted and is as follows:

Whereas, Several of the Associations, in correspondence with this body, have requested the views of this Assembly on the terms of correspondence, especially in regard to the right of reproof and rebuke, therefore,

Resolved, That the General Assembly have never intended to refuse to Corresponding Bodies any rights or privileges which are compatible with true delicacy, courtesy, and Christian charity; in the light of which, this body respectfully requests all Corresponding Bodies to interpret all past acts of the Assembly.

The report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Mississippi, recommending their approval, as far as written, was adopted.

The Committee appointed to prepare an answer to the protest of Rev. James G. Hamner, D.D., and others, presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

ANSWER TO THE PROTEST.

In reply to the protest against the action taken by the Assembly on the subject of Slavery, the Assembly make the following remarks:

1. The present action of the Assembly on this subject is in perfect harmony with the testimonies of former Assemblies, and consists chiefly in a reäffirmation of those testimonies. The General Assembly has never "affirmed that the slaveholder was so controlled by State laws, obligations of guardianship and humanity, that he was, as thus situated, without censure or odium as the master." It has only conceded, that certain exceptional cases may exist, such as are defined in the Resolutions of the Assembly of 1850, and approved by this Assembly.

2. We see nothing in the present action which is unconstitutional, or which "degrades," or even reflects upon, any portion of the Southern Church, which still abides by the old doctrine of the Presbyterian Church in relation to this subject.

3. With respect to the complaint, "that such action is, under present conditions, the virtual excinding of the South," the Assembly observe, that no such excision is intended, and we cannot perceive that it is in any wise involved even by remote implication. We have simply reäffirmed the established views of the Presbyterian Church on the subject of Slavery, and distinctly condemned the new and counter doctrines which have been declared and defended by some within our bounds.

4. With regard to the allegation, that our action in this case is "unrighteous, oppressive, uncalled for," usurpatory and destructive of great interests, we need only say, that it rests on the groundless assumption, that this action is an "indirect excision" of the South. If our Southern brethren shall break the unity of the Church, because we stand by our former position, as in duty bound, the responsibility for the consequences will not rest on the Assembly.

The Assembly proceeded to consider the report of the Standing Committee on Church Extension, in relation to the Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on Church Extension.

The report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Extension, having examined the report of the Permanent Committee on Church Extension, only deem it necessary to recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That while this General Assembly would make no change in the general basis of our operations in the department of Church Extension, yet in view of the fact that, as experience shows, great and perplexing delays are found to result, in many cases, from a literal and rigid adherence to the restrictions under which the Committee on Church Extension have acted hitherto, they are hereby authorized to exercise their discretion, in relation to such applications for aid, as may seem to require prompt and immediate action.

Resolved, 2. In view of the rapid growth of the population in the newer sections of our country, and the consequent demand for explorations, and the establishment and support of churches, that a large increase in the funds of the Committee is imperatively needed for the prosecution of their work during the coming year; and that it is hereby recommended, to all the churches in our connection, to make this one of their regular objects of annual contribution.

Resolved, 3. That a Committee of nine be appointed at this time to confer with the Executive Committee of the American Home Missionary Society, in reference to our relations with that Society.

The following persons are hereby nominated for appointment in the place of those members of the Permanent Committee, on Church Extension, whose term of office expires at the present time, viz.: Joseph B. Sheffield, Thomas P. Sparhawk, Hon. Joseph Allison, Benjamin J. Wallace, S. W. Fisher, D.D.

The above nomination was confirmed by the Assembly.

Messrs. Roe Lockwood, William A. Booth, and J. Milton Smith, were appointed the Committee to audit the accounts of the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported Overture No. 4, relating to the recent action of the American Home Missionary Society, in respect to churches having slaveholding members. The Committee recommend that the subject be referred to the Committee of Conference with the American Home Missionary Society.

The Report was adopted.

The Assembly took from the docket the report of the Standing Publication Committee, in relation to the Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on Publication. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication, to whom was referred the fifth Annual Report of the Presbyterian Publication Committee, the third Annual Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and several other papers, report to the Assembly, as the result of the examination which they have had an opportunity of giving to these documents, recommending the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly express their gratitude to the great Head of the Church, for the prosperity of the publication cause, now relieved from its embarrassments, and placed upon a permanent foundation.

2. Resolved, That the General Assembly notice with pleasure the manifestation of promptness and liberality in the President of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian House, John A. Brown, Esq., of Philadelphia, who, by a munificent donation, has secured to the Trustees the legal title of the Presbyterian House.

3. Resolved, That the power of the press, in promoting true piety and a wide-spread intelligence among our population, is an instrumentality appointed of God, and now put into our hands, to be employed for the advancement of the general interests of religion, and for the prosperity of our own denomination.

4. Resolved, That the Publication Committee be encouraged, to publish not only such works as may present the peculiarities of our branch of the Christian Church in doctrine and practice, but, from time to time, such works of an evangelical character as may be profitable to the Church at large.

5. Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, that "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House" be, and they hereby are, authorized and directed to act in their corporate capacity as Trustees of the Permanent Committee of this Assembly, called "The Presbyterian Publication Committee," as fully and in the same manner, as if "The Presbyterian Publication Committee" were themselves constituted a corporation by the same authority which incorporated "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House."

6. Resolved, That we recognize, with gratitude to God, the completion of the labors of the Publication Committee, by which the Assembly is furnished with a book of Psalmody which they can call their own, the profits of which will materially aid the funds of the Church in the Publication cause; and the Assembly hereby recommend, to the pastors and the churches, that they use all reasonable diligence in promoting uniformity, by the introduction of this book.

7. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed by the Publication Committee, to prepare a book of tunes adapted to the Church Psalmist, and that this Committee be instructed to consult and correspond with pastors and leaders of choirs in the churches, as to the particular tunes most in use and most popular in the congregations; and that this Committee report to the next General Assembly.

8. Resolved, That the preparation of an appendix to the Church Psalmist, of such hymns as may be necessary to make the work complete, be committed to N. S. S. Beman, D.D., Rev. Albert Barnes, and S. W. Fisher, D.D., and that this Committee report to the next General Assembly.

9. Resolved, That the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare an arrangement of the Book of Psalms for chanting, a specimen of which is presented with their report, be directed, in the completion of their work, for the sake of bringing the book into as small compass as possible, to leave out the titles of the Psalms, and all comments upon the text, and only arrange the words to the music; and in publishing the work, the copy of an English print, accompanying the report, is commended as a model.

10. Resolved, That as the publisher of the "Parish Psalmody," in a memorial made to the Assembly, seems to suppose that he has some pecuniary claim upon the Assembly, though the Permanent Committee of Publication, to whom this subject has been referred, have decided that there is no just claim, yet, as a Christian method of answering the memorial and settling the question in dispute, the whole subject be referred to a Committee, to report to the next General Assembly in respect to this claim; of which Committee one shall be appointed by said publisher, one by the Permanent Committee of Publication, and the third by these two.

11. Resolved, That the Treasurer's accounts of the Publication Committee, and of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian House, which have been presented duly audited, be approved.

12. Resolved, That it be enjoined upon all our churches to make an annual collection for the Publication cause, in the month of October.

13. Resolved, That an annual sermon be preached before the General Assembly, on the subject of Publication, and that for the next year Rev. Albert Barnes be the preacher, and Rev. Henry B. Smith, D.D., be the alternate.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were directed to sign, on behalf of the Assembly, "An Address from American Christians to the Evangelical Conference which is to be held in Berlin, in the month of September, 1857," a copy of which was presented to the Assembly; and the Rev. Henry Smith, D.D., was requested to represent the Assembly in that Conference.

The report of the Committee on the Polity of the Church, to whom was referred the consideration of the question, "Whether any three ministers of a Presbytery are a quorum to transact business?" was postponed.

Hon. Joseph Allison and Rev. Henry A. Riley presented a Protest against the appointment, by the Assembly, of a Delegate to the Synod of the German Reformed Church; which was ordered to be placed upon the Minutes, and is as follows:

The undersigned protest against the action of the Assembly, in appointing delegates to the Synod of the German Reformed Church:

Because they believe the said Church has departed from sound orthodoxy in many particulars, especially upon the baptismal and sacramental questions.

Because the German Reformed Church in this country has become in many respects Romanizing in its policy and doctrine.

Because the Synod of said Church, at a late session, adopted a report of a Committee of their own body, which in effect denied the special influences of the Holy Spirit.

JOS. ALLISON.
HENRY A. RILEY.

The Delegate to the Synod of the German Reformed Church was directed to make inquiries of the Synod upon the subjects contained in this Protest.

Adjourned until 7¾ o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, June 3d, 7¾ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of a series of resolutions, previously presented, in reference to the inadequate support of the Gospel ministry. After discussion, they were indefinitely postponed.

The following resolution, introduced in the morning, was adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee of ten be appointed, four of whom shall be members of Presbyteries where Slavery exists, whose duty it shall be, to meet and confer together in reference to the means which may be safely and properly employed to remove slaveholding from our churches; and that the Committee report, to the next General Assembly, whether any, and what means can, in their judgment, be effectually employed for this purpose, with the concurrence and co-operation of our Southern brethren; and if, in their judgment, no such means can be employed, that the Committee recommend such measures as they deem best calculated to secure the permanent peace and prosperity of all our churches.

Rev. Albert Barnes, Rev. Robert W. Patterson, Rev. Archer C. Dickerson, Rev. A. H. H. Boyd, D.D., Rev. James G. Hamner, D.D., Rev. Isaac W. K. Handy, Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D., Rev. M. L. R. P. Thompson, D.D., Hon. Joseph Allison, and Hon. Wm. Jessup, LL.D., were appointed the above Committee.

The Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D., Rev. Thomas Brainerd, D.D., Rev. William C. Wisner, D.D., Rev. D. Howe Allen, D.D., Rev. Harvey Curtis, Rev. Timothy Hill, Samuel H. Perkins, and Cyrus P. Smith, were appointed the Committee of Conference with the Home Missionary Society.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be presented to the Rev. Samuel W. Fisher, D.D., for the very dignified and impartial manner in which he has presided during the deliberations of this body; and for the courteous and Christian bearing, which, in his official capacity, he has constantly maintained during the exciting debates of the present sessions.

Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly be presented to the numerous railroad companies who have forwarded and returned the members of this Assembly, at a reduced price, on their way to and from this city.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be tendered to the citizens of Cleveland, for the generous hospitality extended to the Commissioners, and others in attendance, which has rendered their stay in the Forest City so peculiarly pleasant; with the assurance of our fervent prayer, that the blessing of the God of Peace may rest upon them.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be returned to the Committee of Arrangements, for their promptness and activity in providing for our comfort.

Also, that the thanks of this Assembly be returned to the Trustees of the Second Presbyterian Church, for the accommodations extended to the Assembly during its present sessions.

Also, to the Press, for its full and minute report of the proceedings of the Assembly during its sessions.

The minutes of the session were read and approved.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with.

The business of the Assembly having been finished, and the vote having been taken for the dissolving of the Assembly, the Moderator, with prayer and the Apostolic benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved; and required another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the 2d Presbyterian Church, or some other church designated by the Committee of Arrangements, in the city of CHICAGO, Illinois, on the third Thursday of May, 1858, at 11 o'clock A.M.

APPENDIX.

I. Annual Narrative

OF THE

STATE OF RELIGION

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

MAY, 1857.

Of the one hundred and eleven Presbyteries constituting the General Assembly, seventy-five have furnished Narratives of their religious state.

It is impossible to read these Narratives without emotion. They come from every section of our land. They reflect the sentiments of earnest men in widely differing circumstances. They show the most affecting contrasts in outward condition and gracious life. They image with singular distinctness the varying fortunes of Christ's army. They seem to bring one into close, sacred contact with Christ's body. They make one feel, almost without figure, the throbbings of Christ's heart.

In reading these Narratives and grouping their vast mass of facts together, we note, with high satisfaction, and grateful recognition of Jehovah's covenant faithfulness, that, despite all oppositions and discouragements, despite the worldliness of many who profess Christ's name, the enmity of unregenerate hearts to holiness and truth, the ignorance, delusion, infidelity, depraved appetite, and especially the agitations of our times, the Church, the past year, has made decided progress. We cannot give, in full, the proof of what we thus affirm. We simply state some few undoubted illustrations of augmenting power.

ADVANCE IN CONTRIBUTIONS.

First, then, among the evidences of an increasing vigor and efficiency in our denomination, we specify a large advance in contributions to Church purposes and the common objects of benevolence. Scarcely a Presbytery has omitted to record the erection or repairment of church edifices, in many instances at great cost. Some Presbyteries speak cheeringly of recent liquidations of church debts. Some tell of houses built or building to supply their ministers with homes. Some specify such church-extension enterprises as involve considerable expenditures, which yet are freely met by a generous, liberal-minded membership. And all, without exception, witness to a growing interest, as shown the past year by money gifts, in the numerous agencies for evangelizing our country and the world. These varied contributions are frequently referred to in the Narratives, without the slightest data for an estimate of their aggregate amount. It is confidently believed, that in no one year has their sum been as great as in the year just closed. It is much to be regretted that our published statistics of benevolent contributions are so imperfect, as to be almost worthless for an annual comparison.

GREATER ACTIVITY IN CHRISTIAN LABORS.

A second evidence of an increasing vigor and efficiency in our denomination is an activity, greater than before reported, in labors for Christ. These labors are of different kinds; some long recognized and stamped with the emphatic sanction of experience; some recently begun, yet proving fully their adaptedness to the peculiar aspects of our work.

Among these labors, those connected with the religious training of the young, hold a place of special prominence. The Presbyterial Narratives reveal the fact, that the past year has witnessed unprecedented numbers of the young collected into Sunday-Schools and Bible-Classes. From some statistics embodied in these Narratives, we estimate, that not less than one hundred and fifty thousand youth, each Sabbath day, are brought under the direct influence of the Scriptures and the Sanctuary. Nor is evidence wanting, that this influence is attended by the special power of the Holy Ghost. "In one Church," we are told, "where, as the fruit of a recent revival, some forty persons are indulging hope of having passed from death to life, almost every one of the forty is either a Bible-class or Sabbath-school scholar, and the average age of the converts is only sixteen years."

Not only in the Sunday-schools and Bible-classes long established is this activity in Christian labors shown, but the past year has witnessed an unusual enterprise and zeal, among the churches in cities and large towns, to seek out the children of the poor and wretched, and collect them into MISSION SCHOOLS. This effort is connected with another of great promise. A systematic visitation of the families neglecting the sanctuary has been begun, in many places, with the happiest results. The uniform testimony of the Presbyteries, reporting facts in this connection, is that the effort has furnished professed Christians an important means of grace, whilst it has added very largely to the attendance in the schools and in the churches. It has had, moreover, the seal of God's approval. Not a few of the wanderers out of the way have been reclaimed, and brought to blessed fellowship with the Father and his Son Jesus Christ.

This increased activity, which over all the Church is beginning to display itself, finds an additional illustration in those Presbyteries which are brought into contact with slaves. The heart of Christian love is evidently yearning over those who are in bonds. One Presbytery testifies: "Within the bounds of our churches, the Gospel is regularly and with effect dispensed by our ministers to the slave population." Another Presbytery reports: "The pastors and elders of the churches hold repeated meetings for the colored people, wherever they seem to be called for, while these people are always welcome in all our congregations." And still another Presbytery says: "There is considerable preaching to the colored people." These are but specimens of similar statements. We record them with great pleasure, as evidencing that, amid the conflicts of opinion and the strifes of parties, the claims of a dependent people to share with others the blessings of the Gospel, are not overlooked.

Another illustration of increased activity in labors for Christ is found, in the inauguration by many Presbyteries of such missionary arrangements, as promise to supply the destitutions in their respective fields. The feeling is becoming stronger year by year, that every Presbytery must occupy the wastes that lie around it; that, whilst the field is the world, there is a special obligation to begin at Jerusalem. The past year has brought out this feeling in new forms. We regard the fact as foreshadowing the true policy of such a Church as ours, and as the precursor of good things to come. We know nothing more touching than the simple story, in some of the Narratives, of enterprises undertaken, sacrifices made, toils encountered, burdens borne, in order that an empire, the grandest that the sun looks down upon, may be won for Christ.

GROWING PERMANENCY IN THE PASTORAL RELATION.

A third evidence of an increasing vigor and efficiency in our denomination is the growing permanency in the pastoral relation. We have been especially struck with the indications of this fact embodied in the Narratives. Presbyteries in every section of the country speak of "a growing sentiment in the churches," that the ministry is entitled to better pecuniary support than heretofore afforded. They tell us that quite a number of the churches have, the past year, added liberally to salaries; because it is beginning to be seen and felt, that one grand cause of sundered pastorates is the cruel poverty, to which too many pastors have been thoughtlessly doomed. They tell us, that the conviction is becoming general in some quarters, that, if the churches would secure God's blessing, they must first be just to God's laborious servants. They give, in this connection, emphatic testimony to the greater efficiency of those churches where the pastors are well supported. They express, in numerous instances, their satisfaction, that the pastoral relation exists between so many of their ministers and churches, and their purpose to discourage mere supplies. They declare, that the tendency to change is giving way to sentiments, conditioning the best church growth upon the permanent coöperative toils of pastors and their flocks.

We hail this utterance of the Presbyteries with unfeigned joy. We account it full of precious blessing. We believe that nothing would so enlarge, establish, and bless our Zion as to settle faithful pastors in all our churches, and to make the relation permanent by generous support and cordial coöperation.

GROWTH OF HEALTHY DENOMINATIONAL FEELING.

A fourth evidence of an increasing vigor and efficiency in our denomination, is the rapid growth of a healthy denominational feeling. This growth is confined to no locality, but reveals itself in every section of the Church. A Presbytery in the extreme North-west says: "We are growingly denominational." A Presbytery in the extreme East says: "On every hand, there are the most gratifying indications, that our people are beginning to act with efficiency, from an intelligent conviction that our Church ought to do her own work." A Presbytery midway between the Hudson and the Mississippi says: "The churches present nothing indicating a want of unity and harmony, or of confidence in the principles, doctrines, and order of our branch of the Presbyterian Church. A more thorough acquaintance with its genius and mission has tended to strengthen and confirm our faith in, and to increase our attachment to, its doctrines and polity." Still another Presbytery, in a locality quite remote from those just cited, and representative of a large, important section of the Church, thus writes: "As a Presbytery we would record with gratitude our conviction, that there is among us an increasing sympathy for, and coöperation with, our beloved Zion, in her attempts to meet her weighty responsibilities."

These oft-repeated declarations of attachment to our denomination find abundant confirmation in the Narratives. It is especially encouraging to note, that many Presbyteries, in every part of our extended field, bear willing testimonies to the wisdom and necessity of those great plans of church development, which our Assemblies, the few past years, have been laboriously perfecting. The feeling evidently is, that our Church is summoned to a work which she must do, or fail in loyalty to Christ. The indications plainly are, that common sentiments and sympathies, like some vital force, are beginning to pervade our Zion, and to constrain her sons to pray: "Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces."

LONGING FOR REVIVALS.

Another and the last evidence, that we cite, of an increasing vigor and efficiency in our denomination is, the intense longing, breathed through all the Narratives for a general, glorious outpouring of the Spirit. The past year has not been one which may be characterized as a year of revivals, although many churches in many Presbyteries have been greatly quickened, and some have been favored with spiritual influences of extraordinary power.

But where God has sent and has withheld these gracious showers, the feeling is alike profound, that nothing can or should content the Church but floods of light and love, which, sweeping away the Church's worldliness, shall bear on ample tide "the fullness of the Gentiles" unto Christ. One Presbytery says: "The dearth of revival influences is alarming." Another writes: "To our enlargement and highest edification, revivals are indispensable." Still another witnesses: "The Church needs a refreshing from the Lord for her growth; nay, for her very existence." And still another touchingly declares: "We would, with our brethren in other parts of our Zion, and on our bended knees, offer the prayer of Habakkuk: 'O Lord! revive thy work.'"

This longing for revivals we cannot but consider a cheering indication of the noblest life. Next to a state of actual revival is the sense of its need, and the struggle to attain it at any sacrifice of treasure, toil, or time. We trust that the period is not distant, when this state of actual, general, glorious revival shall be ours; when the Church, "seeking the Lord God by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes," shall find the annual record of her progress a blessed realization of the prophet's vision: "Thou shalt be a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God. Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate; but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah."

In conclusion, whilst rejoicing that the Church lives, and furnishes the past year most cheering proofs of increasing energy, we are not to be unmindful that her sons die. We record in this, as in every Annual Narrative, the decease of a number of our brethren, who, resting from their labors, say to us: "Work, while it is called to-day." The names of the deceased are as follows:

the body were in general harmony with the oft-repeated testimonies of our own beloved Church.

The Rev. S. M. Gould was appointed the Delegate of the Conference to our General Assembly.

ASA D. SMITH.

New-York, May 23, 1857.

II. To the General Association of New-Hampshire.

The undersigned respectfully reports, that, according to appointment by the General Assembly of 1856, he attended the last Annual Meeting of the General Association of New-Hampshire.

The Association met in Exeter, in that State, on Tuesday, the 26th of August last, and was in session three days.

It was attended by representatives from nearly, if not quite all, of the fourteen District Associations within the State, and by delegates from various evangelical denominations who were in correspondence with it.

From the reports received, on the state of religion, from the different districts comprised in the field of the General Association, it was apparent that the pastors, as a body, were laborious, faithful, and devoted to their calling; but that, through death and emigration, many of the churches and congregations were decreasing in numbers, and in ability to support the Gospel, in their respective localities, and to help on the work of evangelization elsewhere.

A few churches were represented as having, within the year, received some additions to their numbers, by profession of their faith, but revivals had not of late been enjoyed.

The cause of Temperance was represented as suffering—of Intemperance as gaining friends, and immorality as consequently advancing. The cause of human freedom, or Anti-Slavery, was represented as having a prominent place in the minds of the people composing the churches and congregations, and as constituting a distinct and important subject of the minister's preaching, and other forms of labor.

The state of religion was, therefore, in many of its aspects, in the bounds of the General Association, quite cheerless and depressing. But all was not dark. Thousands of professed followers of Christ were there, and many faithful and devoted ministers of his Gospel were there, who zealously labored to counteract the evils which seemed so numerous and threatening. Besides the ordinary objects, which in every parish require attention, they take a lively interest in the cause of Education, and in Bible, Tract, and Missionary Societies. And they appear to be walking in the faith and order of the Gospel, and in harmony among themselves.

The undersigned, as the Delegate from the Assembly, was received by the Association with courtesy and fraternal kindness. His communication of the Assembly's Christian salutations, and his narrative of the facts and things relating to the history of the churches in connection with the Assembly since the visit of the Delegate in 1855, were received with evident satisfaction, and followed by kind and appropriate expressions.

In the progress of the sessions, it became manifest, however, that some disturbing forces had been at work, whose influence had caused some apprehension in regard to the practicability of continuing the correspondence, which has so long and so happily been maintained between the Association and the Assembly.

The chief grounds of unhappiness were, the acts of the General Assembly, in regard to "Church Extension," (seeking "to plant Presbyterian churches in various places, in advance of all others,") and in regard to "remonstrance" and "rebuke" from corresponding members, in the case of the Delegate from the General Association of New-York to the Assembly.

It was proposed to discontinue the correspondence. The decision, however, on that matter, after considerable discussion, was postponed; and measures were fallen upon and agreed to, which, it was hoped, might result in a mutual understanding in regard to the matters of difference, and relieve the Association from the burden of the responsibility, which would devolve upon it in case of an immediate decision, as had been proposed.

It was gratifying to the undersigned, to see the Association take the course indicated. For it seemed to him that, if properly understood, there was not sufficient ground in the action referred to, to justify a separation of the bodies; and he entertained the hope, that the lapse of time, and fraternal explanations, with the reflection that might be had, in the period required for the measures to be employed, would save a disruption, and a necessary cause of reproach of the Protestant religion, by the enemies of the Gospel.

What will be the result time must show. It was an object of the undersigned, to set the action of the Assembly clearly, and in its true spirit and design, before the Association; and to show, that it violated none of the principles involved in the true idea of Christian fellowship, or the compact which did exist, or might be supposed to exist, for the purpose of edification between the two bodies.

In conclusion, he would say, that his visit to the Association was one of deep interest. There was manifested by the brethren who composed it a kind and Christian spirit. The differences that have obtained between them and the Assembly on a few topics, it is hoped, can be soon adjusted, and harmony be fully restored. Let us earnestly labor for such a result, that we may "cut off occasion from those who desire occasion" to blaspheme and hinder the progress of evangelical truth in the earth.

Very respectfully, E. R. FAIRCHILD.

New-York, May 19, 1857.

III. To the General Convention of Vermont.

The General Convention of Vermont, to which I was appointed a Delegate by the last General Assembly, held its annual sessions at Waterbury, June, 1856. As your Delegate, I was cordially received; and, by many members of the Convention, much interest was manifested in the prosperity of the Presbyterian Church.

The business of the Convention was dispatched in a systematic and earnest manner. The religious exercises were characterized by a high degree of spiritual fervor and devotion. The benevolent enterprises of the day received a due share of attention. From reports, it appeared, that an enlarged spirit of benevolence prevails now, as heretofore, throughout the State.

The chief source of grief to the Convention was the increasing destitution of the preached Gospel in the rural districts. The feeble and unsupplied churches are so numerous, as to present an alarming state of things. This destitution was attributed to the constant emigration to the West.

During the sessions of the Convention, the Vermont Home Missionary Society held their anniversary. The most important subject of discussion was, the best means of supplying with the Gospel these waste and destitute places. The measure which they adopted must be of great interest to the General Assembly, since it is no other than the Church Extension plan of the Presbyterian Church. They proposed to raise $3000, as a special fund, to employ Itinerant Missionaries, to labor in feeble churches and destitute places. This enterprise is to be entirely outside and independent of the ordinary Home Missionary work. Your Delegate took occasion to congratulate the Convention, on the employment of this supplementary agency to the American Home Missionary Society, and to assure them, that we had so long and painfully felt the necessity of it, that we could bid them God speed in their noble work; and the more especially because it was a practical approval of a plan to save feeble churches from extinction, and to plant new ones, for adopting which they had slightly censured our Assembly the year before.

The Convention, with great unanimity, appointed Delegates to this Assembly; and seemed desirous of continuing the fraternal intercourse with the Presbyterian Church. Harmony, Christian fellowship, and earnest zeal for the extension of Christ's kingdom, pervaded the Convention during the entire session. E. M. ROLLO.

IV. To the General Association of Massachusetts.

The undersigned was appointed, by the last General Assembly, their Delegate to attend the Annual Meeting of the General Association of Massachusetts, which met in the following June in Salem. In pursuance with this appointment, he attended the meeting of the Association, and was received and treated with Christian kindness and courtesy. He presents herewith, to the Assembly, a copy of their Minutes, which contain the statistics of their churches, and other information of interest to the Assembly.

The most exciting subject of debate before the Association, and the one in which the Assembly is most interested, was contained in a resolution to cease fraternal correspondence with the Assembly, by not appointing, hereafter, Delegates to attend its meetings. The reason urged in support of the resolution was, the Assembly's complicity in the evils of slavery, and their refusal to receive and profit by what our brethren deemed merited rebuke. The action of the Assembly in the appointment of a Church Extension Committee, and the rude and unfair interference of some Presbyterians in the West with their Congregational brethren, in the establishment and maintainance of their churches, of which bitter complaints were made by some Delegates from Western Associations, were also referred to in support of the resolution.

Your Delegate felt the responsibility of his position, and the importance of presenting the views, which, he believed, the Assembly entertained; and begs leave, therefore, to present the purport of them in this report.

He stated, that the Church which he represented would learn with regret, that there was any disposition, on the part of their brethren, to cease the fraternal correspondence which had existed for so many years, and the fruits of which were seen in their united efforts to spread the Gospel, and establish its institutions, both at home and abroad: that as all these efforts, with their fruits, had grown out of this fraternal correspondence, and the confidence in each other which it had induced, so its withdrawal, on their part, especially for the reasons assigned, would, it was feared, in a short time, supplant these co-operative, by denominational, efforts, in which the spirit of Christ would be supplanted by the bitterness of sectarian rivalship; that your Delegate could conceive of nothing that would occasion deeper regret, than that those devoted missionaries, from both branches of the Church, who for years had been urging forward, hand in hand, and shoulder to shoulder, the triumphs of the Gospel, in heathen lands, should now be torn apart, if not arrayed in hostile attitude toward each other, in consequence of the want of confidence that had been expressed on the floor of that Association, in the purity of the Church which your Delegate represented. The Assembly, he was confident, would take no part in an act that threatened such consequences, nor be in any sense responsible for it. If the channels, through which the Christian sympathy and efforts of both denominations had so long flowed, for fertilizing the moral deserts of the world, must now be filled up, our brethren of the Association must do it themselves: and if, in doing it, it should be found that they had given the Ark of God an unhallowed touch, they must bear the responsibility before God and the Christian world.

Your Delegate, in referring to the reasons by which this step was urged, claimed for the Assembly, that they had done, according to their best judgment, what duty called them to do on the subject of Slavery; that they had never refused, and, your Delegate believed, never would refuse, to sustain the exercise of discipline, for the violation of Christian duty, on the part of its churches or church-members, when regularly brought before them, on this or any other subject; that, with all Christians, the Assembly believed that there were circumstances, which justified the continuance of the legal relationship between masters and slaves, for purposes benevolent toward the slaves themselves. But that against the sin of Slavery, it had ever borne its uniform and decided testimony; that it guarded with jealousy the right of free discussion, in which the Delegates of the Association enjoyed the utmost freedom, without let or hindrance; and if, now, they had any new light to give on any subject connected with the business of the Assembly, it would be thankfully received and duly appreciated; that when a subject had been discussed, and the deliberate judgment of the Assembly recorded, the minority had the right to protest, and to record their protest with reasons on the Minutes of the Assembly, provided it was done in respectful terms; but the right claimed—to come upon the floor of the Assembly and rebuke and reprove it, for its solemnly recorded judgment after a full and free discussion, and the liberty of protesting — neither the Assembly nor the Association of Massachusetts, nor any other deliberative body, could yield, without the sacrifice of self-respect.

In regard to the appointment, by the Assembly, of a Committee on Church Extension, your Delegate stated, that it had been done by the Assembly in good faith, and without any intention to come in conflict with the principles of coöperation, on which our churches had acted with the American Home Missionary Society; that it had been so stated, both by the Committee and the Assembly; and your Delegate claimed the confidence of the Association in their declarations, until, at least, the Committee had violated in their action those principles, and in that violation had been sustained by the Assembly.

In regard to the complaints of the Western Delegates, your Delegate remarked, that while he would be far from intimating, that there had been any intentional misrepresentation, the Association would remember, that the statements which they had heard were entirely ex parte. It would not be difficult, he presumed, to find an equal number of Presbyterians, and of equal reputation for veracity, who would urge as great, if not greater, grievances against their Congregational brethren; that such conflicts were indeed unhappy, but they pertained to that residuum of imperfection connected with the best earthly institutions; and that it would be best to leave their correction to the officers of the American Home Missionary Society, who, it was hoped, would inculcate on all their missionaries, the duty of cultivating a Christian, and not a sectarian spirit.

With these remarks in vindication of the Church that he represented, your Delegate left the subject to the disposal of the Association, assuring them, that if, in their wisdom, they should judge it best that this correspondence should cease, the Assembly would by no means urge its continuance; but ever pray, that God would greatly succeed all their efforts in building up the kingdom of our common Lord and Redeemer in this world.

After a good deal of discussion, the Association resolved—"That the subject of continuing their present correspondence with the Presbyterian churches be referred to the District Associations, to report at their next meeting." Two Delegates were then appointed to meet this Assembly, to whom this Assembly, as has ever been done, will extend its kind and cordial welcome.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM R. DEWITT.

Harrisburgh, Pa., May 21st, 1857.

V. To the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island.

Agreeably to the appointment of the General Assembly of 1856, the undersigned attended the Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, as its Delegate, and respectfully submits the following as his report:

Twenty churches are represented in the Consociation, by a Pastor and Delegate each. The body, though small, includes in its number some of high distinction in the Christian community, whose presence imparts to its sessions a dignified character. From the accounts rendered, it appears that the churches in its connection are enjoying a good degree of prosperity.

From some of the speeches made in the early part of the meeting, it soon became evident, that there was not a little jealousy, and even direct hostility, entertained toward our branch of the Church, both by some of the members of the Consociation, and by certain representatives of other bodies present, on the ground partly of its alleged encroachments on Congregational rights, and partly of its supposed complicity with Slavery. In consequence of this fact, your Delegate took special pains, in the course of his remarks, to vindicate the decided anti-slavery character of the Assembly, as indicated in its recorded resolutions, and to explain also its denominational position, as both independent in itself and courteous toward others. He concluded by tendering his brethren every assurance of fraternal regard, and by urging the importance of overlooking minor differences in the earnest endeavor to hold fast the bonds of Christian fellowship, in this crisis of our nation's history.

In response to his speech, the following preamble and resolution were moved, and after a protracted discussion, adopted by a majority of three votes:

"Whereas, The General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church, with which we are in correspondence, regarding slaveholding as not inconsistent with the Church of Christ, decline receiving fraternal remonstrance and reproof, from corresponding Christian bodies, who may differ from them on this subject: therefore,

"Resolved, That we cannot, consistently with our principles and Christian obligation, continue correspondence with these bodies."

Pending the debate which ensued, your Delegate endeavored to explain the action of the last Assembly, referred to in the above preamble, as bearing solely upon the General Association of New-York, with whom certain issues had been raised; and he took the liberty of disclaiming, on the part of the Assembly, any intention to deny the right of mutual remonstrance between Christian bodies, when such remonstrance was predicated upon matters clearly shown to be wrong, and was conducted in a becoming manner. In addition, he proposed, if the Consociation were not satisfied with his explanations, that they should suspend action, and appoint a Delegate to inquire more fully into the intentions of the Assembly, as involved in the Resolution under consideration. These representations proved of no avail in arresting a measure, which had every appearance of being a foregone conclusion. For four years had the question of cutting off correspondence with the Presbyterian Church been in agitation before the Consociation, and now it was decided affirmatively, by the aid of advocates gained by considerations arising from the action of the Assembly towards the General Association of New-York, which was construed as applying to all Congregational bodies.

The infelicity of the result thus reached is relieved, in a measure, by the fact, that it was earnestly resisted by a majority of the ministers present, and most of these of longest standing in connection with the Consociation; who made eloquent speeches in favor of continued correspondence, and signally rebuked the schismatical temper which ruled in their younger brethren. The very mover of the Preamble and Resolution himself—whose motives in the matter were above all suspicion of wrong—declined voting at the last, in favor of his own measure.

On taking leave of the Consociation, your Delegate tendered it his cordial wishes for its continued prosperity; and expressed the hope, that, however ecclesiastically sundered for a season, Congregationalists and Presbyterians would all meet, at last, in one General Assembly above.

The Moderator cordially responded.

Respectfully submitted, D. W. POOR.

Newark, N. J., May 1st, 1857.

VI. To the General Association of Connecticut.

The General Association of Connecticut, to which body the undersigned was appointed a Delegate, by the last General Assembly, held its Annual Meeting at Middletown, Connecticut, on the 17th of June, 1856.

The number of District Associations connected with the General

Association is fifteen, comprising 283 churches; of which 196 are reported as having pastors, 38 stated supplies, and 46 destitute. The prosperity of these churches, during the year, was indicated by a net increase in the number of members, and a growing liberality in sustaining the various branches of Christian charity. Fifteen of the number are reported as having been "refreshed by the quickening and sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit."

Your Delegate was received with great cordiality, and made to feel that he was among brethren of essentially the same faith and order with ourselves.

Some misunderstanding had gained prevalence in the body, respecting the character and objects of the Assembly's scheme of Church Extension. It was regarded by many, and noticed in the Report of the Connecticut Home Missionary Society, as conceived in the spirit of rivalry with Congregationalists, and as an infringement of the policy and mutual understandings on which the American Home Missionary Society was founded.

Your Delegate deemed it his duty to assure the brethren of Connecticut, that nothing was further from the intentions of the Assembly. They had done nothing more than what they were perfectly willing their Congregational brethren should do—nothing more than what those brethren had been doing in various ways, for a course of years. The Assembly had no desire to interfere with the proper functions of the Home Missionary Society. That Society had been, from the beginning, and still was, dear to the hearts of Presbyterians. The Church Extension Committee, like the Church Erection schemes of the Albany Convention, and of the General Assembly, was established to meet a manifest want, which the Home Missionary Society, by its rules, could not supply, and was expressly limited to that object. The Society, as its whole history proves, was never intended to exclude other agencies for the advancement of religion in our country; and it was our hope, instead of diminishing the contributions of our churches to the funds of the Society, to stimulate and increase them.

There was another point on which misunderstandings had arisen, threatening to sever the relations of correspondence, which have so long subsisted between the Association and the Assembly. The action of the last Assembly on the resolutions of the Association of New-York had been interpreted as denying, to bodies corresponding with us, the right of fraternal remonstrance and reproof in all cases whatsoever.

Your Delegate referred the Association to the history of this action, and showed them, that while a single phrase, taken apart from its connection, would admit of that interpretation, it was manifest, both from the preamble to the Assembly's resolution, and the circumstances which called it forth, that such was not the true interpretation. As respects the subject of Slavery, no body of Christians in the United States, not excepting the General Association of Connecticut, had given as much time, or as free a latitude, to the discussion of that subject; and its recorded testimony now stands in the front rank of anti-slavery protests. So far from being disposed to deny to their brethren the right to remonstrate effectively, on that or any other subject which seemed to them to require such remonstrance, the Assembly always had received, and, he believed, always would receive such remonstrances, in a spirit as fraternal as that in which they were made. While they claimed the right to conduct their own affairs in their own way, and would allow the right of review, in such matters, to no body of men whatsoever, they would be thankful for any light which their brethren could throw upon the path of their duty, whether in respect to Slavery, or any other subject, and for any opinions, or remonstrances, which should be made in the spirit of Christian courtesy.

After considerable discussion, resolutions looking towards the discontinuance of correspondence were exchanged for one of inquiry, which the Delegates from the Association are instructed to communicate to the General Assembly, and a copy of which will be found appended to this Report. Your Delegate would only add, that the resolution referred to was conceived, and adopted, unanimously, in the spirit of the most cordial friendship; and a reply, such as the Assembly will be disposed to give, will, he believes, relieve the minds of many, from an honest misunderstanding, and cement the bonds of Christian fellowship between us and our brethren of Connecticut.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. STEARNS.

Newark, N. J., May 4th, 1857.

The following is a copy of the resolution referred to in the above report:

"It was moved and unanimously Resolved, That the Delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church be instructed to communicate to that body, that the General Association of Connecticut are unwilling to interpret the Resolution on the terms of intercourse with corresponding bodies, passed by the General Assembly at its late session in New-York, as intending that which its terms would seem to require. The language of the Resolution is: 'We can admit no right of our Congregational brethren to review our proceedings or to reprove or rebuke us for what we may or may not do.' Although this language was addressed specifically to a single Congregational body, it apparently affirms a principle applicable alike to all bodies. The General Association are even more adverse to any literal interpretation of this language, since they have heard the very courteous and fraternal address of the Assembly's Delegate. Believing that the terms of the above-named Resolution were selected inadvertently, and expecting an answer that will be entirely satisfactory, the General Association asks of the General Assembly a more specific declaration of its intent in the aforesaid action. The point on which the Association desire to be better informed, is, whether the General Assembly decline all inquiry and admonition, fraternally offered, by bodies in correspondence with them."

VII. To the General Association of New-York.

The undersigned attended, according to appointment, as your Delegate, the sessions of the General Association of the State of New-York, held at Albany, in October last. He was kindly received and courteously treated by the brethren.

The previous action of the Assembly, on the subject of correspondence between the two bodies, elicited a protracted discussion; during which considerable feeling was manifested. Every indulgence was allowed your Delegate in expressing his views, which he did at considerable length.

On the subject of the General Assembly's denying the right of Corresponding Bodies to review their proceedings, your Delegate took the following ground: "The Assembly do not deny the right of any body to express dissent from what they do. Brownson might do that in his Review. We never intended to take any such ground in reference to this reverend body. In this sense, you have the undoubted right to review our proceedings as much as you please; just as you may look at the proceedings of any other body, as the Reformed Dutch Church, or the Baptist Church. But, in the Assembly's action, 'review' and 'reproof' go together, and are preceded by the term 'censure;' showing that the Assembly meant 'review' in the sense of being brought for 'reproof' to your bar, not actually, but in effect, and thus censured by you. We never took the ground that you might not express to us your views in reference to our course. We never took the ground that you might not, if you wished, kindly remonstrate with us for any thing that has been done by us. That has been done by other Associations, and not a word of fault has been found with them. But the Assembly took the ground, that, when an ecclesiastical body in correspondence with us, assumes such an attitude as to appear to bring us to their bar, to reprove us for our conduct, such assumption must be relinquished, or the correspondence must cease; that it cannot be maintained upon any such principle."

Again; in a correspondence upon the same subject your Delegate says: "The Assembly complained, not that you remonstrated, but of the manner of your remonstrance. They thought it somewhat 'oracular and dictatorial.' They are perfectly willing, that Congregational bodies should address them on subjects of mutual interest, if it is done in a courteous manner, just as they would be willing to address them in return. But they are not willing in effect to be brought to the bar of a Corresponding Body and 'reproved and censured' by them. They are not willing to be bearded upon their own floor with epithets so unseemly, that even the body from whence they came are, upon a sober second thought, grieved that they should have used them. When they are acting conscientiously, and doing what, all things considered, they think is for the best, they are unwilling to be considered unchristian, and to have their conduct characterized as 'abhorrent.' They do not mean to curtail the privileges of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies, but they do mean to protect themselves against that which is unseemly and 'discourteous.'"

Your Delegate has introduced these extracts, that the Assembly may fully understand the course taken by him, and the manner in which he expounded the action which he was sent to communicate.

The Association greatly doubted, whether the Assembly were rightly understood by their Delegate, and the undersigned would be much gratified if his view is considered the correct one, and, if they in their wisdom shall think best, to be sustained by the Assembly in this matter.

The Association resolved, for the present year at least, not to send a Delegate to the Assembly. Thus they have assumed the responsibility of interrupting, and probably of terminating for ever, the correspondence between the two bodies.

All of which is respectfully submitted, W. C. WISNER.

Lockport, N. Y., May 21st, 1857.

VIII. To the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin.

The undersigned would respectfully report, that, agreeably to the appointment of the General Assembly of 1856, he attended the Congregational and Presbyterian Convention of Wisconsin, which met at Milwaukee, in October last.

The Convention was composed largely of men in middle life, who, with large hearts and strong minds, are cultivating one of the noblest fields the Master has committed to any portion of his Church. Though of different denominations, they work together with perfect harmony, having, in the honor of Christ and the salvation of souls, an end higher and better than mere denominational extension.

Their discussions of all the questions which came before them, pertaining to Missions, Education, and Slavery, were fraternal, and yet earnest and animated.

Your Delegate was cordially welcomed; and the wish to continue the correspondence was manifested, by the appointment of a Delegate to the present meeting of the Assembly. D. H. ALLEN.

Walnut Hills, O., May 21st, 1857.

IX. To the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States.

Agreeably to the appointment of the General Assembly, I attended the sessions of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, in Reading, Pa., May 14th, 1857, and was very cordially received by them. I wish that I could convey to the General Assembly the impressions made upon my mind, at the discovery of a noble body of men, whose views on the subject of spiritual religion, the ministry, the doctrines of revealed truth essential to salvation, Home Missions, and Education, accord so nearly with our own.

In connection with the General Synod, there are 643 ministers, 1365 churches, and 124,943 communicants. In addition to these, are other Synods of the same evangelical character, not in connection with the General Synod, which, together, constitute a body larger than our own. This arm of the Church is the most admirably adapted to labor among the German and Scandinavian population of our country, and a wide field of usefulness is open to them. Their colleges, theological seminaries, and literary institutions, are numerous, and ably conducted. Their determination to secure a thoroughly educated and pious ministry, and their success attained under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Schmucker, and his excellent compeers at Gettysburgh, and in the other literary and theological institutions, are without a parallel in the history of churches in this country.

The following resolution is herewith presented:

"At a meeting of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, held in the city of Reading, Pa., May 20th, 1857, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That we have heard with much pleasure Dr. Rowland's representations of the condition and encouraging prospects of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, of the Christian sympathy entertained in that large and respectable body in behalf of our Lutheran Zion, and of their desire to coöperate with us in the extension of Christ's kingdom, and the promotion of vital godliness; that we very cordially reciprocate their kindly feelings and friendly wishes, and will gladly unite with them in a Christian correspondence, and in their prayers and efforts for the advancement of the best interests of the Church of our common Lord and Redeemer.

"M. L. STOEVER, Secretary."

In conclusion, it seems to me very desirable that the correspondence, so auspiciously begun, should be continued; and that our several churches should be closely united in a spirit of coöperation, and in the bonds of true Christian love.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

HENRY A. ROWLAND.

Newark, May 21st, 1857.

X. To the Synod of the German Reformed Church in the United States.

The service required of me, as Delegate to the Synod of the German Reformed Church, was duly and cheerfully performed. It was in itself pleasant, and its recollections are delightful.

This Synod, venerable ecclesiastically, (having held its one hundred and tenth Annual Meeting,) and venerable on account of the age of several of its members, and the wisdom and piety that it embodies, met at Reading, Pa., Tuesday, Oct. 21st, 1856. It was opened with a sermon by the Rev. Henry Harbaugh, who was subsequently appointed as Delegate, Primarius, to attend upon the sessions of this Assembly.

I was cordially received, and treated with all the attention that Christian courtesy and fraternal affection demand.

The proceedings of the Synod were dignified, harmonious, and prayerful; manifesting a high regard for ecclesiastical order, Christian gentleness, and the fear of God.

Down to the year 25 of this century, the Records of the Synod were kept in the German language; but since that time, they have been preserved in English, although the German is still used extensively in religious worship and church deliberations.

The disposition to favor those benevolent enterprises, which distinguish this age, is increasing among our German brethren. During the sessions of the Synod, they have exercises promotive of several of these objects.

On this occasion, the reports from their missionaries, both at home and abroad, wore an encouraging aspect, and indicated a very zealous devotion to the cause of Christ.

The meeting in behalf of Foreign Missions was rendered peculiarly interesting, by the presence and labors of the devoted brother from Aintab. The Rev. B. Schneider, after an absence of twenty-two years, was permitted to return from his missionary field, to address his ministerial brethren and Christian friends in the church to which he had formerly belonged—of whose Sunday-school he was the Superintendent, whose present Superintendent was then one of his scholars.

In respect to the cause of Education—particularly the education of young men for the Gospel ministry—the facts in this Synod are strikingly in contrast to those that prevail within the bounds of our Assembly. Our German brethren are compelled, through want of funds, to turn away large numbers of worthy applicants; while the great lamentation with us, has been, and still is, to an affecting degree, the want of men. We have the means, but not the men; they, the men, but not the means.

Respectfully submitted, GEO. W. WARNER.

XI. To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The undersigned, appointed by the General Assembly of 1856, an alternate Delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in the United States, to meet at Cedarville, Ohio, on the third Thursday in May, 1857, would report that he was present at that meeting, according to his appointment. He was received with every token of respect and kindness which the warmest friend of our Church could desire. Every facility for an explanation of the position, present state, and aims of our denomination, was afforded; and his assurances of fraternal interest were received with apparent confidence and gratification. The proceedings of the Synod were characterized by a high degree of deliberation, courtesy, and seriousness. Great prominence was given to the exercises connected with the Lord's Supper, in which all the ancient usages, to which so much historical interest is attached, were carefully maintained; and not only revived the recollection of the martyrs of the covenant, but tended to awaken their spirit. A proposal to change the representative character of the Synod, so as to give each minister and one elder from each congregation of the Reformed Church, a seat, in accordance with its original Constitution, and the plan of the Reformed Presbyterian Synods of Scotland and Ireland, was for some time discussed, but was finally declined. A correspondence with their brethren, from whom they had formerly been separated, on the subject of a reünion, had been previously opened, and was now continued under circumstances of discouragement, but with an eminently Christian spirit. Much zeal was shown in behalf of the doctrines of our common Westminster Confession; and yet your Delegate was highly gratified with the evidence given, that they were quite as anxious for the true life and power by which these should be animated. Though eminently conservative and jealous of innovation, their eye was fixed distinctly upon the great movements of the present day. Sympathy was expressed for all whom they regarded as oppressed, or laboring for the reformation of public morals. Among their regular committees and items of business, was one which referred especially to the signs of the times. A day of fasting is always appointed, for each year, with reference to national and generally prevalent sins, and is observed by custom before each quarterly communion; and an annual thanksgiving is in like manner appointed. One Foreign Mission is sustained, in connection with the Presbyterian Board, in India. Domestic Missions are prosecuted with commendable zeal, and it is said that no denomination of Christians in our country give more liberally, in proportion to their numbers, than they. The youth are very strictly educated and trained, and few of these are believed to forsake the principles and practice of their forefathers. Although sacramental communion is not extended to any who do not receive the particular principles of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and submit to its authority, the unity of the visible Catholic Church, in all its branches, is scrupulously recognized; and they profess themselves ready to coöperate cordially, in all general movements for the conversion of the world, and for the defence of our common Christianity. A Delegate was appointed, last year, to attend the General Assembly of 1857, who was detained by official duty; but his place was supplied by the appointment of another of their most distinguished members, at the recent meeting; and a desire was expressed, that the correspondence now so pleasantly commenced may be continued without interruption. The attention of the Assembly is hereby directed to the Articles of Correspondence, herewith transmitted, adopted by the Synod in 1837, and which are still proposed as the basis of our intercourse, but which have not received the assent of the Assembly of our Church.

Respectfully submitted, C. P. WING.

Carlisle, Pa., May 27th, 1857.

III. Annual Reports.

I. EXTRACTS FROM THE FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN PUBLICATION COMMITTEE.

* * * * * * *

The year 1857 will ever be a memorable one to the Publication cause; for to it will be referred the completion of the $25,000 requisite to secure the Presbyterian House, the purchase of the Church Psalmist, according to the recommendation of the General Assembly, and the long-desired possession of some available capital with which to commence a regular system of publication.

* * * * * * *

Next to the completion of the fund necessary to secure the Presbyterian House, and its invaluable charter to the General Assembly —both of which were the direct results of the labors of your Committee, but the details of which more appropriately belong to the Trustees of the House—your Committee would call the particular attention of the Assembly to the purchase of the Church Psalmist.

At a very early period after the division, even as far back as A.D. 1840, it became a matter of no small solicitude to the General Assembly, for many and obvious reasons, to secure a uniform system of Psalmody for our churches. Hence, in looking for some book to which they could give their cordial approval, they found it in the Church Psalmist, by the Rev. N. S. S. Beman, D.D. This work had been to the author a labor of love for more than twenty years. First, after long and patient investigation, he had wrought out the principles on which it should be constructed; next, he had looked at the lyrical character of each psalm and hymn, taken as a whole; then, verse by verse, he had carefully weighed and scrutinized every doctrinal sentiment that it contained: finally, line by line, not only by reading them from the pulpit, but by the singing of a thoroughly instructed choir, he had fully satisfied himself as to the correctness of their prosody.

Thus prepared, the impression of the Assembly in its favor has been fully confirmed by the experience of the churches themselves. Already, the book has run through sixty editions, and for the six months ending Jan. 1st, 1857, the sale amounted to nearly 10,000 copies. Let this rate of sale continue only a few years longer, and our Psalmody, as to uniformity at least, will be all that could be desired.

It is but due to the venerable author of the Psalmist, to say that in all the negotiations of your Committee with him touching this matter, he has manifested a deference and respect to the wishes of the Assembly, that we trust will not be without their appropriate acknowledgment.

It also gives us pleasure to say the same thing in reference to the publishers, Messrs. Ivison & Phinney.

* * * * * * *

The stereotype plates which have thus come into possession of your Committee, are as follows:

1. The pulpit size, (which is as good as new,) of which there is one set.
2. Two sets of the middle size, (one never yet used, and the other nearly new.)
3. One set of the small size, which will do, with care, for many years.
4. A set of plates, the Appendix to the Social Psalmist, which is music arranged for that book.
5. A new and enlarged Index of subjects for the pulpit copy.
6. An Index of Scriptures, to which the hymns refer.

All that is now wanting to render the Church Psalmist complete, is a satisfactory Appendix; and then we believe our denomination will have just occasion to congratulate itself on the possession of a Psalm and Hymn Book inferior to no other similar book in our country.

For the last two years, with the exception of Almanacs for 1856 and 1857, to which we have endeavored to give the form of a denominational tract, for the current year, your Committee have studiously avoided incurring expenses for publication, that we saw no reasonable prospect of meeting from our Treasury. Already involved, some of us personally, and all as a Committee, with neither charter, nor property, to fall back upon, and relieve us from individual liability, we have sustained our operations and credit at no ordinary amount of toil and self-denial. Though not without our strong misgivings, that the claims of the religious press in our denomination did not stand on an equal footing with that to which they were justly entitled, and cordially admitted, by every other denomination in the land; that they had only reached the head of our body, and had yet to find the way to their heart; still we are willing to believe, that this indifference was rather apparent than real, and that as soon as the $100,000 fund for Church Erection was completed, the cause of Publication would be equally well provided for.

When, therefore, in answer to the appeal of your Committee, in their last Report, and their full and candid statement of the embarassment into which they were thrown, while endeavoring for a period of four years to keep the enterprise alive without funds, the Assembly of 1856 recommended to the churches to take a simultaneous collection of not less than $30,000, in the ensuing December, they were prepared to expect a response, all the more generous for having been the longer delayed.

Elaborate editorials in most of our religious papers; extensive action in the large majority of our Synods; printed circulars and private correspondence on the part of your Committee; above all, the importance and supposed popularity of the object to be accomplished in the purchase of the Church Psalmist; all led us to believe that at least a moiety of the $30,000 would be secured from the denomination generally. But December came, and December passed, and, instead of $30,000, we did not, as our portion, receive $5000. Though not absolutely forgotten; though some churches, whose names have been upon our roll for 150 years, and others too young as yet to have their name enrolled at all, remembered her in their benefactions; yet the whole amount thus realized, was alike unworthy of the Assembly's recommendation and of the cause. The collection may have been a simultaneous one, so far as it went, but it certainly was not a general one. It became but too evident that all hopes of retaining the Presbyterian House would soon be gone for ever.

In this exigency, two of our members were appointed a Sub-Committee, to wait upon a gentleman who had already taken a deep interest in the progress of our enterprise, and entreat his friendly intervention to save us from the extremely awkward and unpleasant predicament in which we found ourselves as a denomination. Their appeal was successful, but the answer to it made conditional. Mr. Brown would give $10,000 to the House, provided an equal amount would be secured by the churches in Philadelphia for the Committee. After an arduous and general effort on the part of the members of the Committee with the churches to which they respectively belonged, the condition was fulfilled.

* * * * * * *

Thus it was that we were enabled to purchase the Church Psalmist, and to save the Presbyterian House and its charter.

* * * * * * *

It is of vital importance to the successful prosecution of our enterprise, that there be also an increase of funds. The little capital that we now have will almost immediately be absorbed, in payment for the Church Psalmist. The rents of the House being sacredly pledged to the donors as a Sinking Fund, for the extinguishment of the mortgage, will not, of course, be available for several years to come. We would, therefore, respectfully submit to the wisdom of the Assembly:

1. The appointment of some day, at as early a period in the fall as possible, for a general collection throughout our churches.

2. The annual appointment, by the Assembly, of a sermon on its behalf, and that the preacher of said sermon, with an alternate, be appointed for the coming year.

3. The adoption of the following resolution by the Assembly, in order to secure to the Committee the full advantage of the charter of the Presbyterian House:

"Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, that the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, be, and they hereby are, authorized and directed to act, in their corporate capacity, as Trustees of the Permanent Committee of this Assembly, called the Presbyterian Publication Committee, as fully, and in the same manner as if the Presbyterian Publication Committee were themselves constituted a corporation, by the same authority which incorporated the Trustees of the Presbyterian House."

Your Committee further report, that on the 5th of February, 1857, Rev. William H. Spencer tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Committee, and that, after the business of the Committee had been for some time conducted by the voluntary service of its own members, the Rev. John W. Dulles was appointed to said office.

Also, that the term of service has expired of the following members of the Committee, viz.: Rev. John Jenkins, Rev. Benjamin J. Wallace, Samuel H. Perkins, Esq., Samuel T. Bodine, and Charles S. Wurts.

Your Committee herewith present an audited account of the Treasurer of the Committee, Mr. William Purves, of which the following is an abstract:

Balance, per last report, ...	$236 94
Sales at Depository, ...	4,302 14
Donations, ...	3,645 71
Proceeds of notes discounted, ...	1,477 24
	$9,662 03
By sundry expenditures, as detailed in Treasurer's Report,	$9,430 86
Balance, ...	$232 77

All of which is respectfully submitted,

GEORGE DUFFIELD, Jr.,
Secretary pro tem.

II. THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE.

The Trustees of the Presbyterian House, in presenting their Third Annual Report to the General Assembly, would express their thanks to the great Head of the Church, that no breach has been made in their numbers, but that their lives have all been mercifully preserved.

The Trustees are grateful also that they are able to report, though not precisely in the way that was expected, entire success in the charge committed to them. In our last Report it was stated, that about $15,000 were necessary to carry out the original plan for the purchase of the House, so as to leave but $20,000 a ground-rent, to be paid from the rents of the building. As the Presbyterian Publication Committee also needed funds, the Assembly, combining the two objects, directed a simultaneous collection of $30,000, to be equally divided between the Trustees of the House and the Publication Committee. It is with regret that we are obliged to state, that the response to this appeal of the General Assembly was not what it ought to have been.

The Trustees were unable to account for this result of an appeal, from our General Assembly, to a Church, whose liberality is inferior to that of none other, possessing only equal means. It had been our wish, that the House should not only be the property of the General Assembly, but that it should so far be paid for by the whole Church, as that every Presbyterian should feel a personal interest in it, and it was with reluctance that this agreeable idea was abandoned. Looking at the result of the simultaneous collection, and being entirely unwilling to believe, that its meagre product was an index of the generosity of our Church, we began to fear that the very beauty and eligibleness of our House might, through some mistaken idea that Philadelphia wished to gratify a local pride, have prevented the outflow of liberality. Instead of feeling with us joy and gratitude that our whole Church now had this pleasant home for such of our Institutions as the Assembly might see fit to establish in the Presbyterian House, we began to fear that the Church might be restrained, in their contributions to these Institutions themselves, by the idea that their liberality was not to tell immediately upon their objects. It was thought, therefore, under these circumstances, that it might be best to abandon the original idea of collections from the whole Church, and to pay for the House in Philadelphia itself. We shall regret it, if we have erred in this, and in any degree mistaken the views and feelings of the Church; in which case, however, ample opportunity will be afforded to correct our mistake, by generous contributions to those Institutions established in the House.

The President of our Board of Trustees, feeling the force of the considerations already alluded to, so soon as it was fully understood that the amount needed to pay for the House, so far that but $20,000 would be left on ground-rent, agreeably to the plan of the General Assembly, would not be realized from the simultaneous collection, at once proposed to pay $10,000, the necessary sum, himself, and as it was understood that the Publication Committee was also in need of funds, for the same reason—the comparative failure of the simultaneous collection—Mr. Brown, with the view of securing funds for that object also, made the $10,000, which he proposed to pay for the House, conditional upon the raising of a similar sum in the city for the Publication Committee. This sum was readily made up, and it is but sheer justice to say, that the whole amount raised in Philadelphia for the Presbyterian House and the Publication Committee, reaches Forty Thousand Dollars. It is cheerfully given, not because Philadelphians suppose, that the Church has special claims upon them, but because they feel a deep interest in her welfare, and trust that our whole Church, so soon as the subject is clearly before them, will respond to our own Institutions with characteristic liberality.

The balance against the Treasury at the last report was $3,384.67. From the report of the Treasurer, herewith transmitted, it will be perceived that the amount received during the past year, from all sources, was,

From rents, ...	$2,747 54
" subscriptions and collections, .	4,357 64	$7,105 18
The expenditures during the past year have been as follows, viz.:
Liquidation of balance against Treasury,	$3,384 67
Ground-rent, taxes, and all other payments as per Treasurer's detailed report audited by the Corporation,	2,983 13	6,367 80
Leaving in the Treasury a balance of		737 38

The original purchase money of the House was $40,000, on which had been paid, at the time of the purchase, $10,000. This money was advanced by five gentlemen, and has now all been returned, none of the generous lenders requiring interest on the loan. The semi-annual ground-rent is due on the 23d of June next, and on that day it is the intention of Mr. Brown to pay over $10,000, the second payment upon the House, when every liability of every kind will be paid off, except the $20,000 which is to remain on ground-rent, until liquidated by the rents of the building. The ground-rent from that day will be $1200, to which is to be added taxes and ordinary repairs to the amount of about $800. As the rents of the building amount to $3000, there is a sinking fund of about $1000 per annum to pay the ground-rent. On the 23d of June, it is expected that the temporary Trustees, H. J. Williams and E. S. Whelen, Esqs., will transfer the property to the Trustees of the Presbyterian House appointed by the General Assembly.

It is with much pleasure that the Trustees thus announce to the Assembly the fulfillment of the most arduous part of the duties assigned them. They trust that this will be but the beginning of a long line of prosperity to the Institutions, which are to have their home in the Presbyterian House.

The Presbyterian Publication Committee find themselves embarrassed in their operations for want of a Charter. As they must necessarily incur pecuniary obligations to some extent, and make contracts with publishers, authors, and others, they are continually undergoing individual liabilities to which it is not right to subject them. The last Assembly authorized an application for a Charter to the Legislature of Pennsylvania, but it appears upon examination of the Charter of this Corporation, that it is amply sufficient for both purposes. All that is required is a resolution of the Assembly, which the Trustees respectfully request your venerable body to pass in the following or similar terms:

Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, that "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House," be, and they hereby are, authorized and directed to act, in their corporate capacity, as Trustees of the Permanent Committee of this Assembly, called "The Presbyterian Publication Committee," as fully and in the same manner as if "The Presbyterian Publication Committee" were themselves constituted a corporation, by the same authority which incorporated "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House."

The Board have only further to report that the term of the following Trustees expires during the present sessions of the Assembly: Albert Barnes, John C. Farr, David H. Riddle, Charles S. Wurts, and Benjamin J. Wallace.

As it is required, that there should be an equal number of ministers and laymen in the Board, it will be necessary to elect at this time three ministers and two laymen, who must also, by the terms of the Charter, be citizens of the State of Pennsylvania.

All which is respectfully submitted, approved and passed by the Board, May 12, 1857.

BENJ. J. WALLACE, Secretary.

III. SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHURCH EXTENSION COMMITTEE.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Church Extension Committee, in presenting their Second Annual Report to the General Assembly, would express their thankfulness to the great Head of the Church, that the life of every member of the Committee and of their missionaries has been spared, and that the same entire harmony has marked our deliberations and conclusions which characterized the first year of our operations.

The following have been our missionary operations during the time embraced in our report:

1. The Rev. Edward D. Neill has continued his efforts in the Territory of Minnesota. In addition to his other engagements, he has planted a Second Presbyterian Church in the city of Saint Paul, called "The House of Hope," to which he is now ministering. This enterprise has been greatly favored, and it is probable that it will not need missionary assistance after the present year.

2. The Rev. W. H. Williams and the Rev. Asa Martin have been our exploring missionaries in the Synod of Iowa. Mr. Martin has not made application for a renewal of his commission. Mr. Williams continues his connection with the Committee. These brethren have traveled extensively, have preached the Gospel, and have organized churches wherever an opportunity presented itself. The brethren of the Synod of Iowa consider such labors indispensable in the present state of their Synod. The Church Extension Committee of that Synod, as well as that body itself, coöperate very cordially with us.

3. The Rev. John Kidd has continued his labors in the South Church, Milwaukee. He has been very successful in his efforts. The house of worship is full of attentive hearers; and it is his opinion and that of the brethren around him that his church will need no more aid, after their building is so enlarged as to accommodate all who wish to worship with them.

4. The Rev. J. H. Trowbridge has been commissioned for the church in Dubuque, Iowa. So successful has this effort been, that it is expected that the church will need aid but a single year, and will at once take its place as a self-supporting church, and exert its influence to sustain the weaker churches in the interesting and important field of which it is the centre.

5. The Rev. A. Hartpence has continued to be our missionary at Nashville, Tennessee. The difficulties of the field are unusually great, yet as Mr. Hartpence feels that he is making progress, and as the brethren of the Synod of West-Tennessee are decidedly of opinion that he ought to be sustained, the Committee have renewed the appointment.

6. The commission of Rev. J. M. McLean has also been renewed for the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Mobile, Alabama. Mr. McLean is very much encouraged. His congregation has much increased, and his hope is, that the church will soon be self-supporting.

7. The Rev. Sidney H. Barteau has been appointed exploring missionary for the State of Wisconsin, at the request of the joint Church Extension Committee of the Presbyteries of Milwaukee and Fox River. Mr. Barteau has planted several churches, and his labors are very highly esteemed by our brethren in Wisconsin. One fourth of his salary is to be raised on the field.

8. The Rev. E. L. Hurd was, at the request of the Presbytery of Peoria and Knox, Illinois, appointed as exploring missionary in the Presbytery, but left the field at the end of three months.

9. The Rev. Williston Jones has been, at the request of the Church Extension Committee of the Synod, appointed exploring missionary for the Presbytery of Iowa. He is actively engaged in the duties of his appointment.

10. The Rev. Justin Marsh has been, at the request of their Church Extension Committee, appointed exploring missionary for the Presbytery of Monroe, Michigan. Three fifths of his salary are to be raised on the field.

11. The Rev. G. Brown has been appointed, at the request of their Church Extension Committee, exploring missionary for the Synod of Wabash, Indiana. One half of his salary is to be raised on his field.

12. The Rev. Charles Kenmore has been appointed missionary at Cairo, Illinois. This is a very interesting case of purely evangelical enterprise. The brethren of the Presbytery of Alton, feeling that an effort to plant the Gospel should be made in Cairo, a growing city at the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, raised the money and built a brick church worth $2500, which they presented to a corporation created for the purpose under the laws of the State of Illinois. There is no spiritual church as yet organized. The people in the city, interested in religion and good order, agreed to raise one half the salary of Mr. Kenmore if our Committee would assume the other half for one year. The effort should have the prayers and good wishes of every Christian.

13. The Rev. I. P. Stryker, at the request of the Church Extension Committee of the Synod of Peoria, has been appointed missionary at Urbana, Illinois. Seven tenths of Mr. Stryker's salary is assumed, at once, on the ground, and the brethren think the effort will not long need aid. The church worship in a hall, but a suitable building, they think, will be very soon erected.

The Rev. J. H. Spelman has, at the request of the Church Extension Committee of the Presbytery of Keokuk, Iowa, just been appointed exploring missionary for that Presbytery.

The church at Knoxville, Illinois, has become self-supporting during the year. The church at Dubuque, Iowa, will no longer need assistance after this year, and it is expected that this will be the case with the church at St. Paul, Minnesota. At this point, in regard to all the churches aided, the Committee are steadily aiming.

The Rev. J. G. Wilson, the Rev. E. L. Hurd, and the Rev. Asa Martin, exploring missionaries respectively in the Lake Superior country, in the Presbytery of Peoria and Knox, Illinois, and the Synod of Iowa, have ceased their labors in connection with the Committee.

It is scarcely necessary again to mention what was stated in the last Report, that the Committee have confined their labors carefully to the limits assigned them by the General Assembly. They, of course, do not particularize the cases in which they have felt it their duty to refuse applications.

The report of the Treasurer will exhibit the condition of the finances. The balance in the hands of the Treasurer on the first of May, 1856, was $2158.40. Including the amount since received, the entire resources of the Committee for the ecclesiastical year, were $5066.59.

The expenditures for the year have been $4626.22, leaving a balance in the Treasury of $440.37, which, however, is more than absorbed by drafts now due to missionaries.

It will thus be perceived that, but for balances on hand at the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, it would have been impossible for the Committee to have met its engagements. It is very gratifying to be able to state, that under these trying circumstances, the Committee have been able, though sometimes only by delaying longer than was desirable, to meet every application which they deemed peculiarly urgent and important. The drafts have generally been forwarded punctually, although we regret to state, that there have been instances where missionaries have been obliged to wait for drafts that were over-due.

The Committee earnestly commend this subject to the Assembly. It has not seemed best to put a traveling agent into the field to urge contributions from our churches. It has been our hope, that the small sum that has been needed by the Committee would be raised without this expedient. The Secretary, pro tem., while not feeling it to be his duty to present the claims of the Committee in the pulpit, has exerted himself by correspondence, and, as far as was considered desirable, through the press, to put this matter properly before the churches. He has corresponded with between one and two hundred ministers, pastors of our largest and most liberal churches. The response has not been what we hope for, nor what the cause demands.

The cause seems generally to be regarded as an exceptional one, to be brought in between the special efforts of churches for other causes. But it is believed, that there never has been so small an amount of funds invested, so as to produce a greater amount of good. The applications for the present year, it is presumed, will be larger than for any previous year, and it is earnestly pressed upon the Assembly that some efficient plan be devised for securing the amount of funds that may be necessary. The Committee need the prompt and indeed immediate assistance of the churches.

If no more efficient plan occur to the Assembly, the Committee beg leave to ask that a month be designated, during which, by request of the Assembly, this cause should specially come before the churches.

The term of office of the following members of the Committee expires during the present sessions of the Assembly: The Rev. Samuel T. Spear, D.D., Joseph B. Sheffield, Thomas P. Sparhawk, Hon. Joseph Allison, and Rev. Benjamin J. Wallace.

Unanimously and respectfully submitted. Adopted by the Committee, April 21, 1857.

BENJ. J. WALLACE, Secretary, pro tem.

The whole number of churches, that have been aided from the Fund during the year, is fifty-five, and the total amount disbursed is $19,343. This amount has not as yet been all paid out by the Treasurer, but has been granted by the Board. When a loan or donation is made, a copy of the Bond and Mortgage, prepared by the Board, is sent to the Trustees of the congregation, to be executed by them; and when these papers, properly executed, are returned to the Secretary, and are approved by the Board, a draft upon the Treasurer of the Fund for the amount granted is sent to the Trustees. This draft, however, does not, in all cases, come back immediately. Hence the difference between the amount granted by the Board and the amount actually paid out by the Treasurer. The number of the donations made is twelve, and their average amount is $191. The loans amount to forty-three, and their average is $396.

From these statements, it will be seen that nearly one fifth of the whole Fund has been disbursed during the last six months. This fact, in the opinion of the Board, shows the existence of wise and conservative action on the part of the Synodical Committees. According to the Plan, the loans are made without interset for three years. Two years more, therefore, must elapse before any considerable amount will be returned to the treasury. If the whole amount had been disbursed during the year, there would, consequently, be no adequate means in the hands of the Board with which to meet the wants that will, in all probability, exist during the two coming years—wants, too, that may be even more urgent than any that have been relieved. But these future wants have been anticipated, and wisely provided for, in the limited extent to which the work of distribution has been carried. The remaining four fifths of the Fund, if wisely disbursed, will, most probably, be sufficient to meet all the applications that may be made.

IV. Miscellaneous.

I. EXPENSES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The attention of the Presbyteries is called to the plan, proposed on p. 399, for the raising of an annual fund, to defray the traveling expenses of Commissioners, and the contingent expenses of the General Assembly.

II. ANNUAL MINUTES.

Price, as determined by the Assembly of 1854, forty cents, and no charge for postage. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery, and of every Synod; also to every Minister, whose address is known, and whose Presbytery has contributed to the Mileage Fund its full apportionment.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod, in which are to be stated the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates and candidates within their bounds, and how distributed; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the place and hour of their next Annual Meeting, and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly—

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 453 of the present Appendix, of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sunday-schools and Bible-classes organized, the number of scholars in each, etc.; also the decease, if any, of the ministers of the Presbytery during the year. Also, as directed by the General Assembly of 1854, its various arrangements for Church Extension; stating the number of its ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of its churches, and how they are supplied; the gross amount of funds collected in its bounds for Home Missions and Church Erection; the amount received by its churches from the American Home Missionary Society, or any similar institution; the number of houses of worship, with their probable value, and whether they are free from debt; the number of new churches organized and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the Gospel; what and how much agency has been employed; together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the detail of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly, in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

Attention is requested to the following particulars: Let the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery take special care,

1. That the Commissioners to the Assembly are furnished with a Commission, according to the model prescribed in the Form of Government, chap. XXII., sec. ii.

2. That the Apportionment for the Mileage Fund of the Assembly be, in due season, distributed annually by the Presbytery among its churches, and the amount forwarded by the hands of one of the Commissioners, or by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

3. That the Presbyterial Reports, specified in the previous article, be duly prepared, authenticated, and forwarded. These Reports should be on separate papers, for the convenience of the Assembly in referring them to distinct Committees.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following rules be observed:

(1.) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 453.

(2.) Record ministers in the order of their ministerial age, with their Christian names in full, and their address in the adjoining column.

(3.) Place the name of every church opposite the name of its pastor or stated supply; or, if vacant, at the foot of the roll.

(4.) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g.: P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; P. C., for a Pastor of a Congregational Church; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Prof., for a Professor in a College or Theological Seminary; Sec., for a Secretary of a benevolent institution; D. Sec., for a District Secretary; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; W. C., for a minister without charge; and Col., for a Colporteur.

(5.) Place after the name of every church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; or V. for one that is vacant.

(6.) If a church fails to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants denoting the fact.

(7.) In the additions to the church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8.) In the report of "Funds" contributed observe the directions at the foot of the blank form on the next page, ☞ 453.

(9.) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column; but of the Candidates, —including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the respective churches of the Presbytery,—the number only is to be given.

(10.) Avoid erasures or interlineations, and make names and numbers distinctly legible.

(12.) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet.

☞ If any thing should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the Meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent, as soon as possible, by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, No. 103 West Thirty-Fourth street, New-York City.

FORM OF A PRESBYTERIAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

KEY TO THE ABBREVIATIONS, &c., IN THE FOLLOWING SCHEDULE.

An asterisk, (*) attached to the name of a Presbytery, denotes that no report has been received from that Presbytery the present year, and that the deficiency is supplied from the last report rendered, and other sources, if any. An asterisk is also attached to the number of Communicants when a Church has failed to render a report, and the deficiency is supplied in like manner. The same sign attached to the first column shows the whole number of Additions both on Examination and Certificate, no distinction having been made in the Presbyterial report. The same sign in the "General Assembly" column shows the excess of the payment to the Assembly above the sum reported.

The following abbreviations also are used: P. for Pastor; P. E. for Pastor Elect; C. P. for Colleague Pastor; P. C. for Pastor of a Congregational Church; S. S. for Stated Supply; W. C. for Without Charge; Ag. for Agent; H. M. for Home Missionary; C. M. for City Missionary; T. M. for Tract Missionary; P. M. for Presbyterial Missionary; S. M. for Synodical Missionary; F. M. for Foreign Missionary; Pres. for President; Prof. for Professor; Tea. for Teacher; Ed. for Editor; Ch. for Chaplain; Sec. for Secretary of a Benevolent Society; D. Sec. for District Secretary; Col. for Colporteur; and V. for a Vacant Church.
